In the course of its recent thorough revision, the American edition was edited with the special view of supplying the wants of American readers. It also possesses a special attraction in containing a series of over seventy-five full-page engravings not contained in any other edition. 478

WOULD NEVER USE THEM.—If persons were aware of the injurious character of most Baking Powders now for sale in every town in our country they would never use them. A baking powder to be good and wholesome can not be made by ignorant persons, who know no more about the chemical combina-tions necessary for such results than a school boy. The only good bak-ing powder prepared by a physician is Dr. Price's Cream. And for his True Flavouring Extracts, we have only to say that they are the finest, purest, and best to be found in this or any other country.

PURE OLIVE OIL.—Constantly on hand the genuine article directly imported from France, for sale by Louis A. Bertrand, at his residence, half a block west from the Valley House and three doors from the Utah Hotel, and by Mr. Riser, watchmaker, opposite the Herald Office; price from fifty cents to two dollars, according to the size of the bottles.

As a Frenchman, I do testify that my olive oil is the very best in the market. 48

IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVEL-ING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons be-fore starting on a journey to ascer-tain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is central-ly located, and as their trains ar-rive there thirty minutes in ad-vance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making East-ern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Cen-tral, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kan-kakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information, with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Of-fices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, West-ern Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb.,

or to W. H. Stenpet, General Pas-senger Agent, Chicago. 484

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 35 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Dull.

Going to Sicily.—We understand that Brother Joseph Toronto pur-poses, before long, paying a visit to Sicily, the country where he was raised. Brother Toronto is a native of the Island of Sardinia, but re-moved in early childhood to Sicily.

Wintry.—Now comes another slice of Winter. For many weeks the weather has been generally clear, pleasant, genial and beau-tiful, but snow commenced to fall last night, and when the citizens awoke from their slumbers this morning there were two or three inches upon the ground, and since then the depth increased to about five or six inches.

The Alleghenians.—This talented troupe of Vocalists, Swiss Bell-ringers, and Ladies' and Gents' Sil-ver Orchestral Band, will com-mence an engagement at the The-atre this evening. They come to us with an excellent reputation in their profession. The newspapers of the various cities and towns where they have performed lately in the East give glowing accounts of the ability, skill, and success of the troupe in their delightful and varied entertainments. In the troupe are Miss Marie Packard, sweet singer, soprano bell player, and silver band tenor; Miss Bella Durgin, contralto, bell player, sil-ver band alto, and serio-comic ar-tist; Mr. Frank L. Benjamin, "the silver-voiced tenor"; Mr. Sam Col-lins, comedian, and helicon baritone in silver band; Mr. M. H. Perry, violinist and E-flat cornet player; Mr. Chas. I. Phelon, basso, bell player, and B bass in silver band; Mr. Byron W. Kelly, baritone and bell player; and Master Chetty Packard, the young musici-an.

The following are a few of the appreciative notices of the troupe by the press—

"No such performance on the hand bells has been heard in Lon-don, within our memory. To say that the music produced by these extraordinary Bell Ringers is sweet is to mention its smallest merit."—London Times.

"They have not only astonished, but won the admiration of all lovers of soul-stirring music."—Congregationalist.

"No human tongue could dis-course more mellifluous music."—Mr. Spurgeon.

"They sing the music of the heart."—Methodist.

"They are the ministers of good, speaking to the great heart of hu-manity, in soothing strains of beauty."—Christian Advocate.

"I would brave any storm or suffer any inclemency of the weath-er, to hear these wonderful child-ren of song."—Masonic Review.

"Their entertainment is interest-ing, and novel, as well as high-toned and refined."—Presbyterian Witness.

"Everything is good, in excel-lent taste, and leans to virtue's side."—Register.

"Their quartettes are beautiful and pathetic."—Watsonian.

"The Alleghenians pre-eminently command the respect and pat-ronage of the public."—Rev. J. Griffith.

"This is the best company that has ever visited this city."—Detroit Post.

Narrow Escape.—About one o'clock, to-day, as Brigham Wood-ruff, son of Elder Wilford Wood-ruff, was standing near his father's house, immediately south of the Valley House, a bullet whizzed past his head, barely missing him. He supposed, from the direction in which the bullet sped, &c., that the gun from which it was dis-charged must have been fired at a point near the corner of the block, south.

This is a case of criminal reck-lessness, in discharging firearms within the limits of the city.

A Nuisance.—Our attention has been directed to what may be deemed considerable of a nuisance, caused by parties from the country who camp in the Tithing Office yard taking their teams along the sidewalk, on the east side of East Temple Street, to City Creek, to water. By that means there is frequently an accumulation of manure along that way that is not pleasant to the eyes or olfactory of pedestrians.

It is contrary to the provisions of a city ordinance for teams to per-amulate on the sidewalk.

Utah Southern R. R.—On and after Thursday, Feb. 25th, trains will be run for the accommo-dation of the public, to and fro, be-tween this city and the terminus at York, in Juab county, a distance of 75 miles. This is another railroad triumph for Utah, another evi-dence of the enterprise and energy of her citizens. The trains will leave this city every day, Sundays included, at 7 a. m. and arrive at 5.40. They will arrive at York at 12 m. and leave at 12.20 p.m.

The Oratorio.—We learn that the musicians engaged in practising Handel's Oratorio of "The Mes-siah" are making excellent pro-gress, having already mastered nearly a dozen of the various chor-uses of the sublime composition. We believe there are between twenty and thirty choruses in all, and the chorists are making themselves efficient in rendering them at the rate of about one each practice. The singers continue to meet for practice on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week, at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms.

We understand the parties who will sing the solos are Mesdames Haydon, Careless and Hamilton, and Messrs. Black, Owen and Williams.

It will probably be about five or six weeks before the proposed con-cert will be given.

Uninvited.—We are informed by members of the managing commit-tee of the Firemen's Ball that sev-eral persons who had not been in-vited, by some means or other gained an entrance to the part of the building appropriated to invited guests. The committee desire those individuals, who are known to them, to call and settle with them.

It may be added to this that there are not a few people who are of opinion that those who thus ob-trude their presence, uninvited, in-to select parties can scarcely be said to be particularly distinguishable for good breeding, and we think those holding such an opinion are not very wide of the mark. A trifle of self-respect would help some men along amazingly, a fact to which some men who don't ap-pear to be overburdened with that commodity appear to be completel-y oblivious.

The Firemen's Ball.—Probably in the vicinity of from 300 to 350 couples, besides the spectators in the first and second circles, attend-ed the ball of the Salt Lake Fire Brigade, at the Theatre, last night. Among the guests we noticed President Brigham Young, Geo. A. Smith and D. H. Wells, Elders Orson Pratt, John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff, B. Young, Jr., Bishop Edward Hunter, Elder Joseph A. Byrnes, Bishop Thomas Taylor, General John A. Smith and a couple of his staff officers, whose names we did not ascertain, Judge Sutherland, Judge Snow, members of the City Council and a number of other prominent gentlemen with accompanying ladies.

The huge dancing hall was well filled, almost approaching being crowded, yet good humor and a soci-able feeling prevailed, as a rule, great credit being due to the man-agers, for the excellent order that was kept.

The firemen were in uniform, scarlet shirts, slashed with white and some with blue, while many of the ladies, to be in harmony with their partners, in dress as well as in other respects, were bedecked in cor-sages of the same brilliant color, all of which, of course, tended to heighten the gaiety of the scene.

A part of the programme con-sisted of a grand march, by the firemen and their partners exclu-sively, led by Messrs. T. Goodman and George Neimoyer. While pre-parations were making for this in the rear part of the building the stage curtain dropped and Mr. Henry Malben regaled the other guests with his graphic rendition of the comic song of "The Man That Could Never Get Warm," singing it with such effect, setting the action to the words, that, but for the rather heated atmosphere, some of the more ethereally clad ladies might have been seized with sympathetic chills.

The march was interesting and picturesque, the various movements being executed neatly, without any appearance of bungling.

The ball was kept up till between two and three o'clock this morning, when all who had not previously done so retired to their homes, ap-parently well pleased, at having passed a few hours in social enjoy-ment.

District Court Proceedings.—The Court met at 10 o'clock this morn-ing, J. B. McKean, C. J., presid-ing. After a few ex parte motions were disposed of, the Court ordered a recess to be taken till 11 o'clock, when, if there was no further busi-ness, the Court would adjourn. Just then the U. S. District Attorney, appeared, and also the defendant in the case of the People, &c., vs. Thomas E. Ricks and his attorneys, Messrs. Sutherland and Bates, this being the day set for the commence-ment of the trial of that case.

On the re-assembling of the Court at 10 o'clock, U. S. District Attorney Carey stated that he was not ready to go on with the trial of the case of the People, &c., vs. Ricks, on account of the absence of the principal witness for the prose-cution, as being sick, being also now outside the jurisdiction of the Third District Court and therefore not subject to any compulsory pro-cess issuing from it, and he, the District Attorney, therefore desired a continuance of the case.

Judge Sutherland replied, to the effect that the case had been set to be tried to-day by the order of the court and by the consent of parties, and that therefore, unless the prose-cutor could show that subsequent circumstances, since the case was set for trial, made a postponement necessary, it should not be granted; that the District Attorney had failed to show that the situation differed now from what it was then. The prosecutor had presented no proof to the court that the witness refer-red to was sick, a matter of which, even on affidavit, he would be in-competent to testify, not being a physician. Neither did it appear that the witness would be here at any future time, being, as stated by the public prosecutor, not sub-ject to any compulsory process of the court, and might be that he would not appear without such compulsion. There was no evi-dence that he was willing to come.

The District Attorney explained that he did not know of the witness abouts of the witness till after the time of trial was set, that he had since heard from him to the effect that his health would not admit of his appearing in court at present, that he would appear as soon as possible, and that he, the District Attorney, expected a dispatch from him to-day, from the information contained in which he would prob-ably be able to determine when he would be ready to go on with the trial of the case. Mr. Carey also stated that, as the witness, being at a distance, could not possibly, under any circumstances, appear in court until the day after to-morrow, it would be too late then to try the case with the jury of the present term.

The Court stated that, there be-ing no proof before the Court of the facts alleged by the District Attorney, and the alleged facts being disputed, the Court could not act on the request for a post-pone-ment.

Judge Sutherland stated that he did not dispute the right of Mr. Carey to make his statement, and accepted it as if made on affidavit, but he was incompetent to testify to the facts alleged in the statement, because, not being a physi-cian, he could not testify to the state of the witness's health, neither was he prepared to affirm definitely that the witness could ever be brought into court at all.

The Court granted the postpone-ment, stating that he could not force the people into a trial until they had had ample time to bring their witnesses into court, and his decision would have been the same had the application been made by the defendant. He took the state-ment of the District Attorney as true, on the professional honor of that officer.

The attorneys for the defendant then desired that a day certain in the future might be set for the trial, when it was agreed that the counsel on each side should confer upon the matter, after Mr. Carey had heard from the witness before alluded to.

on an indictment, found by the Grand Jury, charging him with the murder, at Logan, several years ago, of one David Skeene.

Colonel Ricks is an old and re-spected citizen of the Territory, and is known to perhaps thousands of the people of Northern Utah as a man whose course of life has been such as to place him far above the suspicion of having ever commit-ted a crime of any kind, much less one of the horrible character with which he now stands charged; in fact it may be safely said that, by those who know him best, he is esteemed as a citizen, in every respect, of irreproachable character. In view of these facts, it may not be amiss to state the nature of the charge upon which he is now held. The following outline of the history of the case is thoroughly reliable, and there is little doubt that the points here stated will be developed dur-ing the progress of the trial, and that Col. Ricks will leave the Court room with his character thoroughly vindicated from the foul charge which it has been the effort of some to fasten upon him.

On the 27th day of June, 1860, Mr. Charles C. Rammell, of Provi-dence, Cache Co., entered a com-plaint, before the Honorable Peter Maughan, then Probate Judge of Cache Co., but now deceased, against David Skeene, at that time a resi-dent, we believe, of one of the set-tlements in Utah County, who, he verily believed, some twelve days previously, had taken away two horses and a colt, valued at $250, his Rammell's property. On the 28th day of June, 1860, or there-abouts, Skeene came up from the south to Cache county. While passing through Wellsville, on the way to Smithfield, he was recog-nized by certain parties, who con-veyed the information that he was in the county to Judge Maughan, who issued a warrant for his ap-prehension, and he was arrested at Smithfield, brought to Logan and placed in custody. His prelimi-nary examination on the charge of stealing Rammell's property was set for the 30th day of June, but when the court conven-ed the prisoner asked for an adjournment on account of the absence of important witnesses; his request was granted and he was remanded until the 4th of July. After the postponement of the ex-amination it was ascertained, from thoroughly reliable sources, that the prisoner intended to make an attempt to effect his escape. In consequence of the information thus obtained more strict guard over the prisoner was instituted, but late on the evening of the second of July, or very early on the morning of the third, he at-tempted to make his escape from custody, and in so doing assaulted his guard, Mr. Ricks, then sheriff of the county, who, as any vigilant officer would have done under the circumstances, fired upon his pris-oner, the shot inflicting a mortal wound.

An inquest was held on the 3rd, as soon as convenient, by the coroner and a jury, at which, from the evidence given, it appeared that the prisoner, while endeavoring to escape from custody, was shot by the officer having him in charge, and that officer was very properly exonerated from all blame in the transaction.
