DESERET EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1903.

niready spread so far that it is reported that he has been affered and has refused the presidency of the republic of Haiti. He has secaived hundreds of letters of congratulation from prominent men, among them one from former President floral assistances in his struggles for higher education. He has paid his ex-penses in Yale thus far by the labor of his own hands and head and worked his way into the university by shoveling dirt on a tallroad. George Williamson Crawford of Elr-WINNING HONORS AT YALE!

prize for oratory.

Negroes and Foreigners Forging to the Front At American Universities.

16

William Pickens Wins the Ten Eyck Prize for Oratory-Other Brit-Hant Young Men.

Special Correspondence.

New Haven, Aug. 3 .- The extraordinary success achieved by negroes and forelighters at the American universities, particularly at Yale, during the past few years has caused much comment in educationa circles. During the year just ended two negroes, i Chinaman, a Japanese and an Armenian won prizes for scholarship in the various schools composing Yale university, three of them working their way.

William Pickens, a negro from Little Rock, Ark, was the winner of the Ten Eyck prize for oratory, the chief prize of that sort given in the academic depart-The fame of his achievement has i remain in this country for some time, mak-ing a special study of rithing engineering, after which he will go home to look after his mines. After his graduation from the Jopanese university he was with the gov-ernment committee which investigated the carthquake problem.

the carthquake problem. Haroutune Mugurdick Dadourian of Tarsus, Asia Minor, has been awarded the Loomis fellowship in physics by the Sci-entic school, greated two year honorn for excellence in all studies and given a prize for excellence in electrical engineer-ing. Bades that, he has been elected to membership in Sigma XI, the scientific school honorary society corresponding to Phi Beta Kappa in the academic depart-ment. Dadourien began winning prizes in his freshman year, when he took honors in physics, mathematics and French. He will stay at Yale three years longer, pre-paring himself to teach in his native country. on a rallroad. George Williamson Crawford of Bir-mingham, Ala, is unother negro who has you haurels under heavy handicaps. He has fioully worked his way through the law school, having heen three times win-ner of one of the Wayland prizes for de-taring, and at the commencement exer-cises he was awarded the Townsend with for arctory. prize for orntory. Chung Hui Wang, a Chinaman from Mongkong, has received the degree of master of laws summa cum laude after a year of pestgraduate study in the law school. Wang is here on a Chinese gov-ernment scholarshin which he won at the University of Tientsin, from which he was graduated in 1959. He will pursue his studies at Yule for another year and will then return to China to enter the govern-ment service.

country. Other foreigners have attained pre-eminence at Yale in previous years, two or three of them being Japanese women. Some years ago Mum Yew Chung, a little Chinaman, was the cockswain of a vic-torious Yale varsity crew. William Yung, whose father was a rich Chinese mer-chant, and whose mother was an Ameri-cal woman, was one of the most pom-har members of the university give club in 1897.

nent service. Hatsail Mayesawa, a graduate of the Thiversity of Tokyo, has taken prizes in he Sheffield Scientific school for excel-ence in mechanical drawing and mathe-natics and has received honorable men-ion for his work in chemistry. He is adependently work in chemistry. He is adependently work in sciencested n mining in Japan ad Mormosa. He will Other colleges and universitie have had enrolled at various times foreigners of exceptional intellectual capacity. Prob-ably the most distinguished of these is the present Chinese minister at Washing-ton. Sir Liang Cheng Tung. In addition to a high standing in scholarship at of Tennysen's indirect connection with the same tragedy. Soon after the murder the part's inther dined with Lord St. Helens, the Fritish ambassador, in Moscow, Sev-eral Russian officers of high rank, whose names he did not know, were also guests During dinner a guarded reference was made to the emotror's death. "Why do you sneek so singerly about a matter so motorious?" cried Tennyson, implisively, leaning across his neighbor, a Russian, whose breast was avered with orders. "We know very well in England that Em-peror Paul was nurdered. Count Zohoff brocked him down, and Bendingsen and Count Pahlen strungled him." There was a striked silomenthen the ambassador ab-ruptly changed the subject. As the greests liked out into an adjoining room Lord St. Holerns drew Teanyson aside. "Don't so into the next room," he wisported "but across whose breast you leaned, was count Pahlen, and Zohoff was also at the table." He gave a few hurried directions, and Tennyson righed off, threw his clothes into a noticented off, threw his clothes into a sortmanted off, threw his clothes into a noticented the dover, Sir Liang was a noted baschall player, and his manerers of the curved tail was instrumental in whining more than one contest from Andover's tradi-tional rival, Exeter. Harvard has graduated several negroes who have made quite a stir in the world, one, William H. Lewis, a famous football man, having been recently appointed by President Roosevelt assistant United States district attorney for the Boston district.

district. At West Point, through the courtesy of Congress, many young South and Central Americans have learned the art of war, and the son of President Inicials of Costa Rico is a cadel there now.

DeWitt is the Name.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve look for the name DeWITT on every box. The pure, unadultorifed Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the beat calve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczenn and plles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has enused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuin bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. Chicago. Sold by all druggists.

OUR GREAT

HECTOR TO ACHILLES. TENNYSON'S MISTAKE.

Browning's lines on the assassination of the Emperor Paul of Russia, quoted in the London News, remind a correspondent 'In it strenuous enough for you?" he inquired at the finish of the second round.

bard an English frigate-New York

"Pirst rate." replied the Trojan, with fine sarcasm. "Feels just like trying to climb over the end hog on a street cer." Smilingly the hero went on the third lap, realizing that his tribulations might be worse.—New York Sun. wheel of her machine, pressed with he wheel of her machine, pressed with her foot the bulb that made the horn toot gruffly, and swiftly and smoothly she shot after the English knight. Soon the great automobile overtook the carriage and halted. The young girl, an old friend of Sir Thomas', ex-tended her hand, and, as he took it, she said reproachfully:

Potent Fill Pleasure.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Lit-tle Early Risers. W. S. Philpot of Al-bany, Ga., says "During a billous attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue-mass or any cheer pills L even took and at the

SCHOOL CHILDREN

AND THEIR PARENTS.

Do they frown? Do they squint? Do they hold the book near or far? These little things indicate eye trou-ble and cannot be outgrown except with the help of proper glasses.

Examination free.

RECASTS TILL

ants for 17

7 g. m. 8 g. m. 9 g. m. 10 g. m. Ille annancesses

THE SEM WEEKLY

contains all the crea Selerdac News. LOCAL

Daniel Eyer has lo of by amputation. W M. Rash is in colding over local cre Thomas Ashworth matrow's regular homas McKean, c A. Westman in a b and his $1,000 bond rgt. A. H. Lund it has been appoin naster sergeant by

The annual confe

Bishop Cranston

n was to

t the First Meth

dent; George

reliable electric

109 E. First South.

There was con

train leaving

THE REPORT OF THE PARTY OF THE

tended her hand, and, as he took it, she said reproachfully: "You passed me, a little while age, without looking at me." With a gallant smile and inclination of the head, Sir Thomas answered: "If I had looked at you, I couldn't have passed you."

any other pills I ever took and at the same time it effected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by all druggists.

A GALLANT REPLY.

Sir Thomas Lipton has a gallant way of paying pretty compliments to ladies, Driving through Washington, on the day he lunched at the White House with President Rossevelt, he passed a huge red automobile that stood before an imposing mansion of gray stone. A young girl in a white gown sat in the automobile, and, Sir Thomas glided by, she bowed to him, smiling a radiaer and charming smile. He, however, falled to see her.

to see her. The young girl looked embarrassed, vexed. She bit her lip. She thought a moment. Then she took hold of the