SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL.

Mayor Conroy Vetoes Extortionate Bill and Solons Sustain Him.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Boy on Wheel Collides With a Buggy And Received Serious Injuries—Auto on Fire.

Ogden, June 12.—At last night's session of the city council the city fathers agreed to join with the county commissioners in the purchase of four additional voting machines for the city.

Chief Payne submitted the appointment of Roy Wiggins, William Dick and Thomas Heiford. They were confirmed.

By request of the Ogden City Improvement League, Councilmen Thomas, Emmett and Dixon were appointed a committee, and together with the mayor, to look into the matter of the league in an effort to secure an amicable adjustment of the litigation between the city and the Ogden Waterworks company.

Councilman A. H. Moyes had trouble of his own at the meeting of the city fathers last evening. Mr. Moyes is chairman of the street committee, and at a previous meeting of the council succeeded in getting what appears to be a very broad bill through. The bill was in favor of S. M. Scales. The sum was $400 for repairs to the road roller. The bill was peculiar in many ways and was for such repairs as an ordinary engineer would be able to make himself.

BOY HAS NARROW ESCAPE

For His Life—Received Serious Injuries in a Collision.

Ogden, June 12.—Alexander Carlson, the 10-year-old son of Evan Carlson, of Riverdale, had a narrow escape from death at the corner of Twenty-fourth and Washington late yesterday afternoon. The lad was coming down the Twenty-fourth street hill on a bicycle, at Washington avenue he steered off to the right and ran into the front of a car. He was thrown to the ground with fearful force. He was picked up and carried to the office of Dr. E. L. Rich of the First National Bank building where an examination showed that he had received a severe fracture of the right leg in addition to being injured about the head and body. Later he was taken to his home at Riverdale.

AUTO ABLAZE.

W. O. Kay's Road Machine Injured to Extent of $300.

Ogden, June 12.—Shortly after 9 o'clock last evening, some one carelessly threw a match beneath an automobile belonging to W. O. Kay of this city which was left standing in front of the Ogden State bank. The match ignited some gasoline gas which was escaping through a leak in one of the tanks, and in a moment the entire machine was ablaze. The fire department was summoned and quickly extinguished the flames. The loss will be about $300, fully insured.

BOX THIEVES AT WORK.

Two Suspects Arrested for Ram-snacking Freight Cars.

Ogden, June 12.—Box car thieves are again getting in their work in the local railroad yards here. On Sunday night three cars were broken into and a

NO WHITE FLY PEST IN WEBER

Supt. Pingree Denounces Story As Simply "A Typical Tribune Tale."

INSECT HAS NOT APPEARED.

Equally Untrue is the Story That Blight Has Again Fallen Over The Tomato Fields.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, June 12.—The Tribune today had a lurid and disquieting story sent out of Ogden last night, to the effect that the county commissioners had been compelled to take action in the way of exterminating the white fly pest, which it claimed had made its appearance in the sugar beet fields of the Amalgamated company. There is nothing whatever to the story, except that it indicates the kind and the quantity of brew the Tribune correspondent of this place has been taking in such liberal doses of late.

TRIBUNE PIPE DREAM.

When Supt. Joseph Pingree of the Amalgamated company was seen today, he said that the story was simply a "typical Tribune pipe dream," and that the white fly pest had not made its appearance and was not expected to do so. He added that as late as Saturday last he had met with more than 50 of the sugar beet farmers of the county. During that meeting the whole situation was canvassed, and the condition of the beet reported, and in not a single instance did a farmer report that the pest had made its appearance. On the contrary the reports were all of a reassuring character.

ASSISTANT TREE INSPECTOR.

As to the naming of Prof. W. N. McKendrick by the county commissioners, he was simply named, as heretofore announced in the "News," assistant fruit tree inspector, and the thought of a sugar beet pest in no wise entered into the appointment.

TOMATO BLIGHT FAKE.

With regard to the story that the owners of tomato and canning plants are losing heart over a blight in the tomato fields, it is stated that not a single case of blight has been discovered, and that it is altogether too early to predict whether last year's trouble will again visit this section, the plants being entirely too young to even suggest what their status will be some weeks hence. Ogden people understand full well that the writer is addicted to the use of stronger libations than those which come from either sugar beets or tomatoes, and form their judgment accordingly.

PLEASANT GROVE.

PIONEER CALLED.

Olivia Pratt Driggs Lays Down Life's Cares at 64.

Special Correspondence.

Pleasant Grove, Utah, June 12.—Olivia Pratt Driggs, wife of B. W. Driggs, died this morning at Pleasant Grove of asthma and heart failure. She was the eldest daughter of Asa and Parley P. Pratt and Mary Ann Pratt, and was born while they were on a mission in England, June 1, 1842. She remembered the Prophet Joseph when holding her on his knee and kissing her. A son, who was a pioneer, died in his infancy. She was a devoted wife and mother, and has resided in Pleasant Grove since her first settlement. She leaves a husband, eight children and a host of friends to mourn her demise.

The date of the funeral is not yet announced.

CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

City Lighting Proposition Considered—Death of Mrs. Anna Nielsen.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, June 12.—The city council last evening, in executive session, considered a report from the electric light committee and a proposal from Walter Cox, representing T. E. Daniels and others to light the city with 22 c. p. lights at a cost of 60 cents a month for each light, the city to have the privilege of purchasing the plant at the end of six years. The matter was referred to the electric light committee, with Mayor Frisby and Councilmen Partridge added. Mr. Daniels and associates purpose to use coal to generate the electricity if their offer is accepted.

Mr. Cox stated that they would have their plant in operation in 60 days if a contract is entered into with them. The first business before the city council in open session was the canvassing of the returns of the waterworks bond election held June 5. The result, as was previously published, 161 for, 14 against, total, 175.

Mayor Frisby presented a telegram from Senator Smoot, acknowledging the receipt of the telegram from the committee on Bridal Veil falls, and promising to present communications of the committee to the department of the interior as soon as received.

A bill for an ordinance, presented by the committee on judiciary, amending the ordinance in regard to false weights and measures was passed. The new ordinance eliminates the word "knowingly," which appears in the ordinance now in force.

The committee on judiciary reported in the matter of making water taxes liens on the lands irrigated, accompanied by an opinion of the city attorney, which stated that as the city has already made such taxes a lien on the lands irrigated, he did not consider an ordinance necessary. The committee therefore reported adversely to the enactment of an ordinance; report adopted.

DEATH OF MRS. ANNA NIELSEN.

Mrs. Anna Nielsen died yesterday afternoon at her home on Provo bench, after a lingering illness from cancer. She was born April 1, 1838, in Orinda, Son, Veile Amt, Denmark, and came to Utah in June, 1882, since which time she has been a resident of Provo. Four sons and one daughter, and 12 grandchildren survive her.

ALBERT G. THOMAS' FUNERAL.

IN NATURE'S LABORATORY.

Buried deep in our American forests, many years ago, Dr. Pierce found a beautiful, blooming plant the root of which possesses wonderfully efficacious properties as a stomach and general tonic, also as an alterative or blood purifier and liver invigorator, having an especial affinity for all mucous surfaces upon which it exerts a most salutary, soothing and healing influence.

This sturdy little plant is known to botanists as Hydrastis Canadensis, but has several local English names, being generally known as Golden Seal. Dr. Pierce found the root of this common forest plant to possess medicinal principles of great potency, especially when combined in just the right proportions, with Queen's root, Black Cherrybark, Stone root, Mandrake root and Blood-root, the properties of each being extracted and preserved in chemically pure glycerine of proper strength.

This compound Dr. Pierce named his "Golden Medical Discovery," in honor of the sturdy little Golden Seal plant. So little used was the root of this plant by the medical profession at that time, that it could be purchased in the open markets for from fifteen cents to twenty cents a pound. The use of many tons of this root every year in Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines—for it enters into both "Golden Medical Discovery" and also into Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—has caused the price of the root to advance until to-day it commands upwards of a dollar and a half a pound.

MANTL.

UTAH STUDENTS HONORED.

G. A. Iverson Receives High Credits in Michigan University.

Mantl, Sapote, Co., June 11.—The friends of G. A. Iverson, formerly court stenographer for Judge Jacob Johnson of the seventh judicial district court of Utah, learned with pleasure that the young gentleman had received high honors at the university, where he went a year ago to take up some studies. It was reported that all the honors conferred upon a law student were given him upon the completion of his first year's course, something unknown in the history of the institution. Another important item that will be of interest to his many friends in Utah is that he was selected as one of the 12 editors of the law publication published by the university, which is said to be read by all the judges and lawyers of the United States. It is believed that the aim of Mr. Iverson is to become one of the leading educators of the state, which from present reports seems quite probable. Mr. Iverson was raised in Ephraim and both in Norway, Europe. His mother is a resident of Ephraim, where he has many relatives and friends who will welcome the news of his success.

WEDDING CHIMES.

Wednesday last Louis S. Cox and Miss Louise White of this city were married at the temple, President J. D. McAllister performing the ceremony. A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. Both are popular young people of this city.

The engagement of Miss Sophia Hougard of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hougard, has been announced. The marriage to Mr. Thorpe of Ephraim will likely take place in the Salt Lake Temple about the 29th of June.

H. R. Brown of this city is at his home in a critical condition, suffering from pneumonia. Last night his condition was so serious that the relatives almost gave up hope of his recovery.

A little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ross of this city was accidentally drowned at Clear Creek, Carbon county, last week, and his remains were brought to this city for burial yesterday.

Funeral services were held at the residence of the deceased, where many relatives and friends went to extend sympathy to the bereaved.

LONG TENNESSEE FIGHT.

For twenty years W. L. Hawks, of Belts, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface. This caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, Druggist, 112-114 So. Main St.
