May the God of thy Fathers uphold thee! And He will-yes-I know that He will-And thy mother's sweet spirit enfold thee And tend thee thro' every ill:

Taking charge of thy heart and thy brain, And bathing thy spirit in light, By such an electric chain

Asleep on a pullar of stone Lay One, in the times that are past, Asleep in the desert alone

But He saw in the visions of night Up and down on a ladder of light, Was ambrosial sustenance given To Him who was friendless and lone

In Strength he arose from his bed; And he raised up a pillar of stone In the rapturous joy of his heart, For he felt from the foot of God's throne,

D. & R. G. Strike. DENVER, Col., 11.—Contrary to gen-eral expectation the officials of the Denver & Rio Grande Railway did not reopen their shops to-day. At 6 o'clock this morning 1,200 strikers and employees of the Burlington and Union Pacific roads congregated opposite the Denver & Rio Grande shops. The Declaration of Independence was read and Knights of Labor songs sung with great gusto. The presence of a large crowd deterred the weakened strikers and others from going to work. The officials say the shops will surely be reopened in a few pays. Yesterday afternoon a large mass meeting was ield at the rink, which was addressed by ex-Congressman Belford, who severely criticised Judge Hallet, of the S. Court, for sending several strikers to jail, for 60 days for contempt in interfering with the workmen in the arly days of last week. The cause of feel to ask, Why was Jesus crucified?

Why were the Apostles imprisoned, persecuted and cruelly martyred? Why were the Prophets of ancient days cast into liens' dens and flery furnaces, and compelled to hide in mountains and caves of the earth? Were all those pure and noble men criminals. Why are such men as Brothers Skousen and Flake and others to-day imprisoned at Yuma, Arizona? I have long been well acquainted with Brother Skousen, and knew him to be an innocent, honest old farmer—as good a man as can be found, and what has be done to deserve punishment? It is the same old, old story, over and over again.

The great God of Israel has again spoken from the heavens. The words of the ancient Prophets, of Jesus and and his Apostles are being fulfilled. The Priesthood amd authority from Jesus Christ has been restored to the human family. Every nation, kindred, tongue and people are invited to come to the supper of the great Bridegroom. April 30 exports were $133,093,318.

Langster, the murderer of police officer Fowler, who is to be hanged in Wash-ington City on Friday next, made a desperate but unsuccessful attempt to escape from jail yesterday. The council of Catholic prelates, who met in Baltimore last week for the purpose of selecting a place for the new Catholic University, have decided in favor of Washington City. Press correspondents at Suakim are telegraphing complaints to London concerning the arbitrary manner in which military censorship over dispatches to newspapers is at present exercised. The correspondents saver that they are not permitted to send important news at all.

ufacture. Any man with sound judg-mont can easily see that exporting and not importing makes a people or na-tion prosperous, and yet carlead after carlead of things are imported by our community that could be made at home, such as furniture, clothing, shoes; in fact, what is not imported? How much better off would my fam. Minister Lowell Jeaves London for home June 19th. Phelps, the new Minister, will probably buy Lowell's house and furniture, No. 31 Lowendes Square, just as they now stand. How much better off would my family have been to-day had I commenced manufacturing chairs when I first located at St Johns, instead of fooling away three years on a saleratus bed in farming and only succeeding in raising
