

EVENING NEWS.

TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1855.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE VICTORIAN KING'S SPEECH MADE.

FOR FOREIGN.

London, May 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette states, the Governor-General of Canada in succession to the Marquis of Lorne has been offered to the Marquis of Lansdowne, who accepted. Lansdowne will probably sail for Canada next October.

Troycly, Chile.—The government intended to abolish the office of Spanish Resident Magistrate in Ireland.

Dublin, May 21.—Daly, one of the Phoenix Park murderers, has been reprieved.

A monument to Burke, assassinated in Phoenix Park, is erected in Dublin.

The police guard it. The magistrate's carriage is buried there.

Dr. Healy and Quinn have been forbidden to receive visitors in consequence of recent letters forwarded subscriptions to the Parliamentary fund and condemning the Pope's circular.

The artist will hold sixty paintings at their exhibition to be held at Mullingar.

Ostend has again been defeated, this time with great losses.

Thos. Sexton, M. P. for Sligo, in a speech yesterday, said that the Pope's circular was the action of the Irish clergy, and the action of the Irish race in relation thereto would restore to the permanent good of the cause of religion.

Sexton urged on his hearers to avoid words that would postpone a reconciliation, which he was sure would soon be established on the basis of conciliation between the Vatican and the Irish people.

Castle Bar, Ireland, May 21.—The body of the priest, James Quinn, who has been missing for four months, was found in a lake near here with a heavy chain round the neck.

General Items.

Paris, May 21.—In the second ballot for members of the Chamber of Deputies for the 18th arrondissement yesterday, M. Challe, candidate, received 3,680 votes; M. Bonnefond, 2,900; M. Renard, 1,134.

Monaco Abandoned and M. Bonnefond fought a duel with swords in the Bois de Boulogne, yesterday; both were wounded.

The French Derby, a mile and four furlongs, was won by Castille, chestnut colt, Frontier, Le Grange's bay colt, Fidelity.

St. Petersburg, May 21.—The workingmen's Committee held their second meeting, and ended with a general fight. One man was stabbed, and several others, including Joffrin, member of the Municipal Council, otherwise injured, but escaped with slight injuries.

St. Petersburg, May 21.—The Committee has granted a handsome pension to the secretary of M. Mofok, president of the society for regulating the social condition of the Russian Jews, who committed suicide a few weeks ago.

The report that M. Mofok's suicide was due to his speculation in cotton is considered groundless.

Moscow, May 21.—The Emperor and Empress were given a reception to the public at the Winter Palace, to attend the coronation. The weather is fine, the city presents a brilliant and picturesque scene.

Many delegates have arrived from abroad.

London, May 21.—The King and Queen are to be entertained by the Duke of Cambridge, and the camps of the Grand Duke Nicholas Alexandrovitch.

There will be held a congress on Monday of representatives of the press at the Grand Hotel.
