LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer 42 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Cloudy.

Elizabeth Ford.—There is a letter at this office addressed to Elizabeth Ford. Call and get it.

Personal.—S. S. Stevens, Esq., agent of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, called upon us this morning.

Preaching.—Elder George Q. Cannon will preach in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, to-morrow afternoon, commencing at two p.m.

Religious Services.—Religious services will be held to-morrow afternoon and evening, commencing at two and six o'clock, in the several Ward meeting houses, throughout the city.

Departed.—The little son of Brother Luther Burnham, of Hyde Park, Cache County, who was accidentally severely burned a short time since, died of his injuries yesterday afternoon, at the residence of Brother James P. Freeze, in the 11th Ward of this City.

Stake Conferences.—The holding of the regular quarterly conferences of the Mogan County Stake and the Sanpete Stake commenced this morning. Apostles Franklin D. Richards and Joseph F. Smith are attending the one first named, and Apostles Wilford Woodruff, Orson Hyde and Lorenzo Snow the conference at Mantle.

Twentieth and Twenty-First Wards.—The Presidency of this Stake met with the priesthood of the above wards, last evening, when the following quorums were organized:

An Elders' Quorum in the Twentieth Ward, with Levi W. Richards as President; George White and James M. Ward, counselors.

An Elders' Quorum in the Twenty-first Ward, with Wm. P. Adcock as President; John Thorne and Richard S. James, counselors.

A Deacons' Quorum in the Twentieth Ward, with David O. Mackay as President; Orson D. Romney and John T. Hilton, counselors.

Two Deacons' Quorums in the Twenty-first Ward. John Muir president of the First Quorum, Archibald Erskine and William Allen as his counselors; Arthur L. Foulger president of the Second Quorum, Thomas Allen and John Adcock, Jr., as his counselors.

All these brethren were unanimously sustained in the positions named, and all were set apart, excepting one, who was absent.

Enterprise.—Ogden, being a railroad center, is a city of growing importance, and is energetically adopting the improvements of much older and larger cities. The latest and most conspicuous enterprise proposed is a street railroad, which, if established, will not only be of great advantage to the city proper, but also to North Ogden, Harrisville, Lynne, and Mound Fort. It will pass through the place last named and touch at the other points.

The following petition on the subject was presented to the Ogden City Council on Wednesday evening, and subsequently referred to a committee of that body:

To the Honorable, the Mayor, Aldermen and Council of the City of Ogden:

GENTLEMEN.—The undersigned respectfully petition your honorable body to grant them a franchise, grant, right of way, and permission to build, construct, and lay railroad tracks for the purpose of owning, operating and running a street or horse railroad, upon the following named streets, to wit: On Main and 4th Streets their full length within their corporate limits, and on 5th Street to the several depots, with a temporary track on 4th Street, between said 4th and 5th Streets, until such time as they are enabled to lay track on 4th Street, from Wall Street to the depots of the U. P., C. P., U. C., and N. R. Railroads, with all necessary rights and turnouts for the proper operating of said horse railroad on the above mentioned streets, together with the necessary tracks, turnouts, etc., to and from their stables and car houses. Said tracks to be laid in the center of the streets named, excepting on that portion of Main Street lying north of the Ogden River, from which the city limits the track and necessary turnouts, to be laid upon the side of the street instead of in the center, it being the intention of your petitioners to continue said horse railroad (the present authority being obtained) to a point within the limits of North Ogden.

In support of the above petition for a franchise, grant, or right of way, your petitioners would say that if their prayer be granted they will organize a joint stock company for the purpose of building, equipping, and operating said road, said company to consist of not less than five nor more than nine directors, a majority of whom shall be citizens of Ogden, it being the intention of your petitioners to have, if possible, at least 5-10ths of the capital stock of said company owned and controlled by residents of Ogden and Weber County. It is furthermore the intention of your petitioners to carry passengers by ticket to any point within the city limit for not less than five nor more than six and one-fourth cents each, and from or to any point in Ogden, to or from any point less than ten, nor more than twelve and a half cents each passenger. Said company to have the railroad in operation on a portion of Main Street and before July 1st, 1878, also the franchise, grant or right of way as herein petitioned for be null and void of no effect. And as in and to said petition your petitioners will always pray.

F. THOS. LARSEN, for himself and WM. ULRIKH, of Pennsylvania; J. M. LANGSDORF, CHAS. WANDMAN, WM. VANDER, D. H. HERRICK, SAM'L. HERRICK, and others.

THE FIRE AT HEBRON.—Brother G. H. Crosby, of Hebron, Washington County, forwards us some particulars of the recent burning of his dwelling and household goods and the co-operative store and contents at that place.

The loss to Brother Crosby, in house and furniture, was $1,400, and the same amount to the stockholders of the store, making a total of $2,800.

The co-operative association owning the store and goods was organized in March, 1870, and had been a great advantage to the people generally. Although the store and stock were swept away by the fire, the concern is not indebted to any one.

The fire is supposed to have been incendiary, and the escape of Brother Crosby's family is somewhat remarkable, as from twenty-five to forty pounds of gunpowder and about 400 Spencer cartridges exploded soon after the flames broke out, and a quantity of coal oil, turpentine, &c., made food for the conflagration.

The people of Hebron are twenty miles from any store, and the loss of theirs is strongly felt by them. Bro. Crosby and family are in a bad predicament, in being deprived of their comfortable home and household goods in the winter season.

The Hebron folks expect soon to re-commence the mercantile business in a co-operative capacity.

Making Progress.—A few days since an Indian from the farm in the western part of the Territory came into town to get a supply of flour. He had taken a grist of twenty bushels of wheat, raised by the Indians, to the mill nearest the Indian farm, but the machinery had got out of repair and was not running, necessitating his visit to the city.

The only thing worthy of remark in relation to the circumstance is the fact of an Indian of these parts taking a grist of his own raising to the mill. It is perhaps among the first incidents of the kind that ever occurred in the Territory. The aborigines in this part of the country are far from being of the highest type of that race, yet with kind treatment and proper instructions, even they can be induced to adopt industrial habits. This is the only correct and philanthropic method of dealing with the Indians. It is the plan adopted by the Latter-day Saints, the fruits of whose labors among them are already being seen.

Woolen and Worsted.—The manufacture of Utah woolen cloths is a decided success. Many of the productions in this line compare at least favorably with imported goods of the same classes. There is another branch in the same line that could, with the investment of the necessary capital, be made quite as successful if not more so—the manufacture of worsted goods. This would include fabrics for ladies' wear. The machinery for this branch of manufacture is necessarily somewhat intricate and expensive, but the materials for the fabrics are mostly here, and the skilled labor for every department can be found in Utah. Numbers of excellent workmen are in the Territory who have been trained in the best English factories.

Excommunicated.

At the monthly priesthood meeting for St. George Stake of Zion, convened in the St. George Tabernacle, at St. George, this 3rd day of November, 1877, Henry J. Eccles was cut off the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints as a general swindler, for lying and obtaining property under false pretenses. And all Saints are cautioned to beware of him.

ERASTUS SNOW, JAMES G. BLEAK, Clerk St. George Stake.

St. George, Nov. 3d, 1877.

Co-operation.—To-day we met with Bishop Henry Tingey, of the First Ward of Brigham City. He has been recently at work on the Co-operative farm, at that prosperous, thriving place. We learn from him that seven hundred acres have been sown in fall grain by the association, 500 acres on the Malad River and 200 on the Bear, near Bear River City.

For Carson.—Marshall Robinson, Esq., editor of the Carson Appeal, and wife, left Bountiful yesterday afternoon by the regular passenger train, after making a brief but pleasant visit in Utah.

Central Committee.—The Central Committee of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association will meet at seven o'clock this evening, at the Council House.

Select Ball.—There will be a "select social ball" in the 17th Ward Assembly Rooms on Tuesday evening, Nov. 20th.

The Philistines are not the only people on record who were jawed to death.

DIED.

In this city, November 16th, 1877, at the residence of James P. Freeze, OWEN STEWART, son of Luther C. and Mary Stewart Burnham, aged 1 year, 8 months and 11 days.

The Rev. George R. Howings departed this life in this city, Friday, Nov. 16th, at about 6 o'clock a. m. He was born in London, England, July 14th, 1827, and was educated for the law, but afterwards graduated and was ordained as a minister of the Independent Church. He has labored in that capacity in England and America nearly thirty years. It was his intention, if he had been spared, to return to his native land to close his days among dear children and the sons of his former life. He was a devoted and successful character and honest and sincere in his religious views. He died in firm faith of a glorious resurrection with the just made perfect through Christ the Redeemer.

Funeral services to be held at the M. E. Church, commencing at one o'clock p. m. on Sunday. Friends are cordially invited to attend. [Cm.]

THE HAPPY DAYS OF CHILDHOOD.

Composed for and recited at the meeting of the Young Men's M. I. A., 14th Ward, Oct. 29th, 1877.

The happy days of childhood, How beautiful! How bright! When rising with the morning sun, We sang with pure delight:

On, roaming with a merry crew, Through fields, or shady bowers, All nature seemed of rosy hue, So joyous passed the hours.

Now scrambling up the hillside, And calling choicest flowers, Or, lingering by the brooklet, A blissful life was ours.

Those happy days of childhood, 'Tis sweet to dream them o'er, Oh! would that they might come again, To pass away no more!

Yet why should we recall them? That life was not spent ill, To those who've shunned the path of shame There's much to live for still.

Compared with ages yet to come, Child of a moment we, To set a standard now the time, Of what it would be to be.

Come, let us tread the path of fame, Now we've attained the power To choose, between the right and wrong, Say not "Life's but a flower."

Life is for all eternity, This spirit never dies, But onward for perfection yearns, Like that beyond the skies.

Then let us choose the road that leads To purity and truth, And bear in mind, that we've the power, Both maiden and the youth.

The greatest glory to obtain, Yea Kings, and Queens to be And share with all the Saints of God, The wealth of land and sea.

And in the great millennium, Through Him through whom we pray, Our Glorious Chief, the King of Kings, Whose sceptre will bear away,

We shall be faithful, ever dwell, And all the earth possess; Then will commence that happy reign, The reign of righteousness.

To live with Christ a thousand years, And his presence dwell, The rapture, that such thoughts inspire Is more than tongue can tell.

The happy days of childhood, Though pure as heavenly dew, Seem dull, in contrast with the joy, Such prospects bring to view.

"This is our time of childhood, This is the place to learn," And may all who are here to-night, Be to truth and right held firm;

Then in the resurrection morn, With garments clean and white, We'll clasp each other by the hand, And sing with pure delight.

EDWARD DAVIS.

Correspondence.

Y. M. M. I. A. CEDAR CITY, November 10, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

Dear Sir:—As the regular meeting of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association of this place has again started for the season, we thought it best to inform you of the same. On Wednesday, the thirty-first of October, the first meeting of the season was held, and the following officers were chosen:

John Parry Jr., President, Henry Leigh and R. W. Herborn counselors; Louis Fisher, Secretary, Jos. S. Hunter, Treasurer; Samuel Wood, Librarian and John C. Duncan, Cor. Sec.

There was a very good attendance and all felt well, and expressed a determination to take an interest in the meetings.

We anticipate lively times in our meetings this winter, and would cordially invite all who feel an interest in the young men of Utah to visit us. Our regular meetings are on Wednesday evening of each week, at the Social Hall, at half-past six o'clock p. m.

I remain your brother in the covenant,

JOHN C. DUNCAN, Cor. Sec.
