BATTLED WITH A BURGLAR

Mrs. Christensen Has a Terrific Encounter With One.

Yesterday about noon a man visited the apartments of Prof. Mose Christensen, without being asked to enter, and after a moment's hesitation commenced pocketing the silver knives, forks, spoons and other small articles, and as he was about to depart, Mrs. Christensen entered and observing him pocketing the articles, she courageously grabbed him by the arm, and he gave her a push and fell on the floor. The lady rushed to his aid, and in a minute's time she was on top of him, and with her husband, Prof. Coop, and several other gentlemen who were in an adjoining room came to her assistance, and after a short struggle, they started after him, and proved their ability as foot racers by overtaking him and marching him over to the police station where he was booked for petty larceny, but before he gets through with him, Mrs. Christensen has a more serious charge to make against him. Mrs. Christensen does not hurt much when he knocked her down, but very badly frightened. She gave him a name, Matthew Crawford, and he is a stranger here in Ogden.

TO THE CHRISTIAN HOME.

The 35-year-old Mattilda Jensen, who was arrested by the police department last day ago for strolling the streets all hours of the day and night and being in the company of a large number of lewd men, was brought before Justice Hall and found guilty of incorrigibility and improper conduct, and recommended for the reformatory, and was turned over to the officers, who found the said charges true, and was about to commit her to the State Industrial school, when the ladies of the Christian Home intervened for the wayward girl and got her to reform and live a life of respectability and she pleaded with his grace, and she was given another chance to do better and to take her to the Christian Home. The young girl seemed to regret her wrong doings, and promised to do better, so she was released and she permitted her to be in the Christian Home.

BALLANTYNE RECITAL.

Last evening the tabernacle was filled to overflowing by the music lovers of Ogden and the public in general. The recital of Prof. J. P. Ballantyne, vocal composition, with the assistance of Mr. Harry Burdette, organist; Miss Mary Burdette, soprano; Miss J. E. Burdette, alto; Miss L. A. Burdette, tenor; Mr. E. F. Tull, bass; and Miss L. A. Burdette, soprano; and a number of voice culture, and chorus of the tabernacle select voices. It was pronounced by all one of the grandest musical treats that Ogden has enjoyed. Each part on the program was loudly applauded, and no doubt that each number would have been repeated had it not been for the fact that there would be no encores allowed. The short talk by Prof. Ballantyne on "Breathings as the basis of tone production" was very interesting and highly appreciated. The entire recital reflects credit upon the professor, and was a proof of his unquestionable ability as a teacher of voice culture and song.

MISERABLE BEHEFT.

Another event that is worthy of commemoration was the grand ball given last evening in the Second ward by the head of Elder Alma Lindsay, who is now laboring on a mission in Breslau, Germany. The dance was very largely attended, and an evening of much pleasure and the proceeds of the ball will be used for a very worthy cause in helping Elder Lindsay defray his missionary expenses.

FARMINGTON.

Judge Rolapp Holds Court—Petition to Restrict Boundaries of Kaysville.

Special Correspondence. Farmington, Davis Co., Jan. 26.—A brief session of the district court for this county was held at Farmington, this morning, by Judge Rolapp. The divorce case of Helen J. Gamble vs. Walter J. Gamble, was first heard, and a decree of divorce granted, on the ground of desertion and failure to provide for plaintiff the common necessities of life; also, the custody of the minor child was also given to Mrs. Gamble. In re the estate of Hannah Maria Boynton, deceased; proof of publication of notice to creditors filed. In re estate of Mark Beazer, deceased; petition of Helen M. Beazer for letters of administration, was referred to the clerk to take testimony. State of Utah vs. Henry Maitland, alias Frank McCann, and Frank Armstrong; the defendants were arraigned on an information charging burglary, and the court appointed D. O. Wiley Jr. to defend Maitland, and Charles E. Pearson to defend Armstrong. The defendants stated that their true names were Henry Maitland, and Lincoln Hood. Attorney A. J. Weber, of Ogden, asked the court to make an order granting him the privilege of a private consultation with Nick Hawley, the person charged with the murder of Thomas Sandall. But as no information had been filed in the case, the court refused to take judicial cognizance of the matter, and declined to grant the order. Attorney S. H. Lewis, H. R. Tanner, Mr. Bates of Barnes, Brown & Henderson of Salt Lake City, and A. J. Weber of Ogden, were in the town today. Ex-State Senator Daniel Hamer was a court visitor from Ogden, and returned to Ogden with Judge Rolapp on the morning Short Line passenger.

TO RESTRICT KAYSVILLE CITY LIMITS.

A petition signed by 21 property holders in the city of Kaysville has been filed in the district court, praying for the restriction of the corporate limits of the city of Kaysville, from its present extent of area, which covers 23 sections of land, including the village of Layton and a great deal of farming land, and covering a little more than two sections in Johnson and the platted portions of Kaysville City proper. Arthur Brown, Henry P. Henderson, E. P. Ellison, Jesse M. Smith and Rufus Adams are designated and empowered to act for and in the behalf of the petitioners in the action. And it is asked that the court appoint three disinterested commissioners to adjust the terms upon which the severance may be had as to the city's liabilities, and as to the mutual property rights of the city and the territory to be detached.

Old People Made Young.

J. C. Sherman, the veteran editor of the Vermontville (Mich.) Echo, has discovered the remarkable secret of keeping old people young. For years he has avoided nervousness, sleeplessness, indigestion, heart trouble, constipation and rheumatism, by using Electric Bitters, and he writes: "It can't be praised too highly. It gently stimulates the kidneys, tones the stomach, aids digestion, and gives a splendid appetite. It has worked wonders for my wife and me. It's a marvellous remedy for old people's complaints." ### Migrating to Green River—Farewell Reception to D. S. Gillies.

Special Correspondence. Circleville, Platte Co., Jan. 25.—Last night nearly every citizen of our town turned out to do honor and bid farewell to our respected citizen, D. S. Gillies, who has sold most of his property here and is moving to Green River, At. At a meeting of the people assembled at Dalton's hall and Mr. J. H. Fullmer was appointed to go to Mr. Gillies' residence and escort him to the hall where a complete surprise awaited him. Bro. Gillies was completely overawed and could hardly reply for some time to the speech delivered by Mr. Fullmer. Speeches, songs, recitations, dancing and picnicking was the order of the program and a very enjoyable time that will long be remembered by Bro. Gillies and his friends was had. All joined in wishing Bro. Gillies and his family joy and prosperity in their making of a new home. Bro. Gillies has been an active worker in the Circleville ward for nearly twenty years. Fifteen years ago he Sunday school, since then he has been postmaster, bishop's counselor, president of Y. M. M. I. A., and active in all branches of the Church, as well as watermaster and any thing to advance the interests of the community. We feel that we are parting with one of our best citizens. Others of our boys besides Bro. Gillies started for Green River in a few days. The drought still continues.

RICHFIELD.

Court Cases—Religion Class Work in School Buildings Discussed.

Special Correspondence. Richfield, Sevier Co., Jan. 26.—In the district court yesterday the case of Christian M. Peterson, alias "Dany Christ," was concluded and went to the jury at 3 o'clock last evening. Three hours later the jury returned with a verdict finding defendant guilty of grand larceny as charged in the information. Time for sentence was fixed for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. In the matter of the estate of Wm. C. Murphy, deceased, William C. Murphy was appointed administrator. As incidental to the case of the Deseret National Bank vs. Sheriff John W. Coons, H. J. Dinwiddie of Salt Lake appeared before the court to contest the cost bill of the sheriff for feeding certain cattle detained upon. After hearing the evidence, the sum of $36 was stricken from the bill. A mass meeting of citizens. A most enthusiastic mass meeting was held here last evening in response to an invitation sent out by the trustees to the signers of the petition charging that religion is being taught in the public school here, to present proofs of the assertions made by them, and a general invitation to the friends of the cause to be present. The signers of the petition were conspicuous by their absence—not a single one was there to raise his voice in support of the petition, although two who had signed the same through a misapprehension of its contents, expressed themselves as having been deceived and were now opposed to the petition. Five of the petitioners sent in a communication to the effect that they could see no good in discussing the matter, but maintained that the petition was signed in good faith upon the information they had received and that they would not recede from the position heretofore taken by them. After a number of warm speeches

Is Your Heart Weak?

Nervous Exhaustion Brings on Serious Heart Trouble.

HUDYAN CURES

DEAR DOCTORS: IT GIVES ME GREAT pleasure to write you. I have cured my Nervous Exhaustion, which was complicated with Heart Disease. My nervous system was wrecked. I could not sleep, had headache nearly all the time, was thin and very weak. I could not work. I soon observed that my pulse was weak and irregular, and I knew I was in bad luck. I took your HUDYAN, and in a few weeks I was entirely cured. HUDYAN is a splendid remedy for Nervous Exhaustion. I am, Sir, your truly, ARTHUR S. FERGUSON.

What HUDYAN did for Mr. Ferguson it will do for you. HUDYAN is for sale by druggists—50c a package, or 6 packages for $2.50. If your druggist does not keep HUDYAN, send direct to the HUDYAN REMEDY COMPANY, corner Stockton, Elgin and Market streets, San Francisco, Cal.

was made, a committee was elected to draft resolutions. The resolutions presented, which were unanimously adopted, were in substance as follows: They declared the assertions made in the petition to the school board to be unwarranted and false, as testified to by the principal of the school and all the teachers present—two being absent—and the school officers. They censured the petitioners in unmistakable language for making such assertions without first investigating to ascertain the facts in the matter, when the truth was within such easy reach. The best order and feelings prevailed throughout the meeting, and those present seemed willing to concede to the opposition all that could in fairness be demanded. If holding a religion class in the school room after school hours is a violation of the law, no one will contend for it a minute after the courts so decide the matter. But if the opposition to the class be founded on sentiment and not on law, then in the event the sentiment of the majority should prevail.

Smallpox Quarantine Lifted—No New Cases—Schools to Open Monday.

Special Correspondence. Eureka, Jan. 25.—At a special meeting of the local board of health held at the city hall this afternoon, it was decided to withdraw the proclamation closing the schools and prohibiting public gatherings. Only two new cases of eruptive diseases have been found during the past week, and as many patients have entirely recovered, the smallpox scare is gradually dying out. The schools will be reopened next Monday, after a three weeks' close, and many people will welcome this news, as for the past months they have been unable to entertain any kind of amusement. A baby boy made its appearance at the home of Rasmus Nelson last Wednesday. On Tuesday last a boy arrived at the home of Mr. William Stanton. Attorney Joel Jentler returned from a business trip to Nephi today. Precinct Justice John O. Freckleton left this afternoon on a business trip to Nephi. Mrs. Dan Field has returned from a visit to Salt Lake.

Open Winter—Teachers' Institute—Local News Notes of Interest.

Special Correspondence. Montpelier, Idaho, Jan. 25.—The Bear Lakers are having a very open winter, the like of which puzzles the pioneers' memory to duplicate. In comparison with three feet of snow last season, we now have not enough for good sleighing. The last two days have been moderately cold, but every week thus far has seen its thaw. Snow storms have threatened us of late but blown over. Farmers are beginning to wonder how crops will get their drink next summer. The health of the community in general is good. Some of the scarlet fever patients are out of quarantine, and the balance are recovering. No schools or public gatherings have been suspended here this winter because of sickness. Smallpox is reported on both sides of us and supporters of the vaccination theory are rapidly making their faith practical. No cases are yet developed in this county. Business is quiet because of scarcity of means. Collections have thus far been better than expected, as farmers have sold off many of their cattle to liquidate debts. TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. On Saturday next the Bear Lake teachers will hold their first institute of the season at Paris. As the school patrons always turn out well a splendid time is promised. CHANGE IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. The Sunday school workers are preparing to do honor to their ex-superintendent, Brother John Cederlund, on next Monday night. A party will be given him in the meeting house.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

Death of Walter C. Cole—A Sad Bereavement—Scarlet Fever Cases.

Special Correspondence. Paris, Idaho, Jan. 26.—The January term of the district court adjourned last night, Judge Jos. C. Rich going to Pocatello. There were but two criminal cases on the calendar. Frank Austin was indicted on a charge of grand larceny, for the alleged stealing of a steer from Frank Jones, the Montpelier butcher. The case was heard before a jury, but the evidence was not strong enough to convict and he was acquitted. The other criminal case was that of the State vs. Tom Sims for burglarizing the saloon of J. T. O'Connor, at Montpelier. He was permitted to plead to petit larceny and escaped with a fine of $20.

RELIEF SOCIETY ANNIVERSARY.

The annual anniversary, commemorative of the organization of the Relief Society of the Paris First ward, was held in their hall, Friday evening. As is usually the case on these happy occasions, a most enjoyable time was spent. There was a bounteous repast spread, and the evening was spent in games, dancing, singing, speeches, etc.

MILD WEATHER.

Not a cutter has been seen for nearly a month, and wagons and buggies roll in and out of town as though it were summer time. Never has such a winter been known in Bear Lake, and many predict a late spring in consequence of the white snow and ice being so long on the ground. The weather for the fine weather we are having.

DEATH OF WALTER C. COLE.

It was quite a shock to the community when it became known that Walter C. Cole, the well known saw mill operator, had been sick for only a few days, but pneumonia had set in, and early Tuesday morning, the 23rd inst., he died. His eldest son, Charles, who had been sixteen months away in the missionary field, laboring in the vicinity of Boise, Idaho, was telegraphed for, as also other relatives. The funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Cole on Thursday, June 25, and were largely attended by people from Paris, where he was so intimately acquainted. The stake clerk attended in a body and rendered a couple of selections, which were favorites of the deceased, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "One Sweetly Solenn Thought." The Bloomington choir furnished the other singing. The speakers were Elders Thomas Stetson, Walter Hoge and Bishop Robert Price and Alma Findlay. The remains were brought to Paris for interment.

A SAD BEREAVEMENT.

A double funeral was held in Dingle Sunday afternoon, both bodies being the children of Mr. and Mrs. Lester George of that place. These two children were all the family they had, and the grief-stricken parents are almost inconsolable over their loss. The little ones were aged one and three years, and died within seven hours of each other, from measles. Elders Geo. Humphreys of Paris and Hyrum Oakley of Dingle were the speakers.

SCARLET FEVER CASES.

Two more cases of scarlet fever have broken out since our last issue, both children in the family of S. S. Humphreys. Both cases are very mild, as are also all the other cases, and all are getting along exceedingly well. The county commissioners met Monday as per adjournment, but on account of court being in session concluded to meet on Monday next to finish up the business of the January session. The city council met informally Saturday night last in the probate judge's office and talked over business of much importance to the municipality. Their next session will be held on Feb. 3. We are glad to say that Mrs. Sarah Passey, the wife of Geo. A. Passey, who has been sick the past week, is now out of danger, and on the road to recovery. Elder Frank Lewis is home from his extended mission to the Eastern States, and will, in connection with Elder Chas. Cole, occupy the pulpit at the Stake services Sunday afternoon.
