

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—The beautiful drama of the "Will and the Way," which was presented on Saturday evening, gave such genuine satisfaction and elicited such hearty applause, that it will be presented again tomorrow evening, and will be followed by the farce "Raising the Wind." All who have not witnessed this beautiful drama should avail themselves of the opportunity now presented to do so. It is founded on one of the most interesting novels in the English language, is a close adaptation of the original, and is one of the most interesting pieces presented at the Salt Lake Theatre for a long period. Remember to-morrow evening.

ALL CAPTURED.—It will be seen by today's dispatches, that it is supposed that all the men who were engaged in the late railroad robberies have been arrested, and all the treasure, except about one thousand dollars, recovered. This was one of the most daring robberies, in conception and execution, ever heard of, but fate has been sorely against the scoundrels who consummated it. We believe the rascals who were captured in this Territory have been handed over to the authorities of Nevada, an extremely fortunate occurrence for Utah but unfortunately for the culprits, because, they will be very likely now to receive the punishment the law awards to them. Such a result would have been doubtful had they been tried in some of the courts of Utah, for they were captured by "Mormon" officers, a sufficient guarantee to ensure their liberation by the jobbers who now "run" judicial affairs in some of the districts of this Territory. Facts in the history of the past two or three months bear out this statement, strange as it may seem; and there is no question that similar transactions would again disgrace the judicial records of the Territory, were public opinion not strongly set against such a method of procedure. It is doubtful even if this would prevent it for when a judge and his son "run" a court and share the spoils, all sense of propriety and professional dignity is dead, and in witnessing such an unprecedented and anomalous proceeding Utah, at this time, is compelled to blush for Illinois!

"THE LIVING SKELETON."—There is now on exhibition at the Deseret Museum one of the most singular specimens of mankind in existence—namely, Mr. Price, known among professional showmen as the "Living Skeleton"—an appellation by no means inappropriate. The gentleman is a native of New York City, and thirty-eight years of age. He is five feet and one or two inches high, is the owner of a tolerably handsome face, and his head, face and neck are full size; but the dimensions of his body, arms and legs are very little, if any, larger than those of a boy five years of age. He endures no pain, eats heartily, digests his food well, but has always been, he says, in his present state of emaciation. His case has often been the subject of medical investigation, but has baffled the professors of that science. He has traveled for many years, and has visited nearly all parts of this continent. He states that he is a married man, and that his family—a wife and two healthy children—live in New York City. He is pleasant and agreeable in manner, quite communicative, and perfectly self-possessed, like a man who has seen the world and enjoys life. He comes here from California; will be on exhibition a short time at the Museum, and all who desire to see this very strange specimen of the genus Homo, may do so on payment of twenty-five cents.

THE WORK IN AUSTRALIA.—The Melbourne Star, of October 18th, contains a letter from Elder Robert Beauchamp, written at Sidney, in which he speaks very encouragingly of the work in that far off region. He states that the meeting room of the Saints in that city is so crowded on Sunday afternoons that many are compelled to stand outside during the services, and listen as well as they can to the preaching. Elder Beauchamp says that notwithstanding a torrent of abuse is continually poured upon himself and "Mormonism," from the pulpits of the press, yet the spirit of enquiry is increasing among the people, and he is hopeful that a good work will be accomplished there.

COTSWOLDS FOR ARIZONA.—We are pleased to chronicle that our Southern neighbors of Arizona are becoming interested in the importation of pure-blooded sheep. We learn, through an exchange, that Messrs. P. R. Skinner and J. L. Dunham, who are large land owners in Arizona, have lately purchased of Mr. B. Leona, of Windsor Locks, Ct., fifty pure bred Cotswold Rams, which they convey by rail to Sheridan, Kansas, the terminus of the Kansas Pacific Railroad. From there they will be driven across the country to Santa Fe, New Mexico, and thence to Arizona. The purchasers intend to cross them with the native sheep to grow combing wool. It is claimed that the climate of their destination is admirably adapted for sheep raising. We wish the enterprise success.

FILLMORE.—"M." writes from Fillmore on the 11th inst.

"The health of the citizens of Fillmore is very good. Our city is in a flourishing condition. New fences and many strong commodious edifices are in course of erection. Co-operation, in its various departments, prospers and gives general satisfaction to shareholders. The semi-annual meeting of the shareholders of the more branch of Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution met last Monday, the 7th inst., and were treated to a declaration of 30 per cent dividend. Our Co-operative Store House, under the direction of President Callister, is being pushed vigorously; the walls are of brick, three stories high including the basement. Dimensions 40x26 ft.

Married:

In this city, November 14th, 1870, by Elder Joseph F. Smith, Mr. David H. Kimball, son of the late President H. C. Kimball, and Miss Sarah Elizabeth Haman, adopted daughter of Elder Edward Haman.

May they ever be happy.
As the wedded should be.
May there never be sorrow
In their family.

In faith's bright halo of peace,
May they bloom through life;
Mark a name on history's page
With the grace of life.

May the blessings of heaven
Fall on them, and their new
First and last, to their joy
"Be faithful and true."

Then when life's gently closing,
On heaven-born thought,
In salvation's resting place,
The good fight they've fought.
