LOCAL AND OTHER NOTICES.

One Case.—Only one case, a drunk, in the police court since Saturday morning.

MEMBERS OF THE HIGH COURT.—The High Court will meet at the City Hall on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

SABATH MEETING.—The congregation at the Tabernacle, yesterday afternoon, was addressed by Edmond F. M. Tynan and Geo. J. Gidson.

MISSIONARIES GO.—About twenty missionaries who were appointed at the late conference left for their fields of labor this morning. Most of them go to Europe.

DECISION DAY.—It is expected that the bench of the Supreme Court of the Territory will render decisions on Friday in the cases with which it has been sitting at the late sitting of the court.

IN RUNNING ORDER.—The illuminated clock at the Emporium corner was set agoing on Saturday night, and will continue to admonish "latter-day" pedestrians as well as daylight travelers, of the "flight of time," from this time on.

A HIVE OF BEES.—About one o'clock today a hive of bees alighted on a quantity of plums, on the fruit stand of Mr. Parsons, next the Walker House, East Temple street. The hive was complete, including queen. We understand the bees were subsequently secured in a box.

LARGE ATTENDANCE.—There was a large attendance at the funeral services of Mother Lindsay yesterday. Remarks of an instructive and consolatory character were made by Elders George Teasdale, John Nicholson, John Gray and John Lyon, and Bishop Edwin D. Woolley. The remains of deceased were taken to the cemetery in thirteen vehicles, filled with relatives and friends.

DUCK POND.—There is a pond of stagnant water on First South St., almost directly in front of the City Hall, where a number of ducks were swimming about and having a general good time, to-day. This is not a very inviting surrounding for one of the principal public buildings of the city, especially when combined with that horrible looking fence, ornamented by tattered posters, which surrounds the lot west of the structure.

CASES TO BE CALLED.—To-morrow the following cases will be called in the District Court:

"Our emigration list from this conference will make an unusual large one."

The property which has been attached to the conference is due to the unity of the brethren and faithfulness of the saints, which have been down the slope of the Lord upon our labors.

SHIPPER.—The new plate for the steam chest of the narrow gauge engine of the Salt Lake and Pacific Railroad was cast by Davis & Sons on Friday, placed on the big planing machine at the depot west of Saturday, and shipped for its destination. It is expected that shipments of Weber cast will be expected in this city in a day or two.

NOT RE-OPENED.—A rumor has been current for a few days past that the First National Bank would re-open for business this morning. The report was incorrect. The bank, having been closed since the late sitting of the court, will not re-open until after the court has adjourned.
