

GROVER CLEVELAND DIES SUDDENLY

Death of Ex-President of U. S. Due to Heart Failure Complicated by Other Diseases.

EVENT TOTALLY UNEXPECTED

Announcement Came Like a Thunderbolt to Watchers of His Illness.

Physicians Surprised—Mrs. Cleveland Prostrated—Funeral Will Be at Westland Friday Afternoon.

CLEVELAND'S LIFE IN BRIEF

Born March 18, 1837, at Caldwell, Essex county, N. J. Went to Buffalo 1855, became clerk in a law office. Admitted to the bar, 1859. Assistant district attorney Erie county 1863-6. Sheriff of Erie county 1870-3. Established law practice, 1873-1881. Elected mayor of Buffalo, 1881. His veto of extravagant appropriations directed outside attention to him and led to his nomination and election as governor of New York in 1882. Elected president of the United States over James G. Blaine, Republican, by a majority of 37 electoral votes in 1884. Married Miss Frances Folsom of Buffalo, June 2, 1886. Defeated by Benjamin Harrison for second term of presidency in 1888. Practised law in New York, 1888-1892. Nominated for presidency by Democratic convention, June 22, 1892, and subsequently elected president as Democrat, defeating President Benjamin Harrison. In 1896 the Democratic party having decided for free coinage of silver, Mr. Cleveland gave his approval to the candidates of the National (gold-standard) Democratic ticket. He took up his residence, after his second retirement from the White House, at Princeton, N. Y., in 1897 and retired from public life.

Princeton, N. J., June 4.—Grover Cleveland, former president of the United States, died suddenly at his home at Westland here at 8:40 o'clock this morning. Death was due to heart failure complicated with other diseases. The passing away of Mr. Cleveland was not immediately announced, but was delayed until an official statement had been prepared by the physicians who had been attending him in the various periods of his illness.

DOCTORS' STATEMENT. The following statement signed by Doctors Joseph D. Bryant, George R. Lockwood and J. M. Carnochan was given out:

"Mr. Cleveland for many years had suffered from repeated attacks of gastro-intestinal origin. Also he had long standing organic disease of the heart and kidneys. Heart failure complicated with pulmonary thrombosis and edema were the immediate cause of his death."

While Mr. Cleveland had been seriously ill from time to time, the announcement of his death came like a thunderbolt to those who had been watching his illness.

Last night there was a slight flurry among the friends of the Cleveland family, that something was seriously wrong with the ex-president. This was occasioned by a visit of Dr. Bryant of New York, Mr. Cleveland's physician for many years. Mrs. Cleveland later in the evening, discussing Dr. Bryant's visit, said that there was no occasion for alarm and that Mr. Cleveland was getting along nicely. This reassurance totally unprepared the friends for the announcement of his death. Mrs. Cleveland was at home when her distinguished husband passed away. The children are at the Cleveland summer home at Tamworth, N. H., in charge of Mrs. Perrine, Mrs. Cleveland's mother.

The Cleveland family came from Lakewood, where the former president lay sick for many weeks on June 1, and intended to go to their summer home as soon as Mr. Cleveland had gained sufficient strength.

WHEN HE DIED.

The former president died in bed in the second story front room. Those at the bedside when the end came were Mrs. Cleveland and the three physicians. The only other person in the house at the time was a number of servants.

Drs. Bryant and Lockwood, who came from New York yesterday evening, remained at the Cleveland home all night as was their custom when they visited Princeton. While Mrs. Cleveland did not wish to alarm her friends last night by telling them that her distinguished husband was again quite ill, in fact she assured them he was doing quite well. There was nothing alarming in his condition, it was thought by the physicians, and the former president passed a fairly good night notwithstanding the oppressive heat.

When Drs. Bryant and Lockwood visited their patient this morning they found him "indisposed" as one of them termed it. Dr. Carnochan, who lives in Princeton, was asked to step over to the house. This was before 8 o'clock. Shortly after that hour Mr. Cleveland seemed to fail. The physician recognized instantly the symptoms. Immediate arrangements were made to combat the attack.

THE END.

With every resource at hand the physicians worked over their patient.

Finally he lapsed into unconsciousness and the end came at 8:40 o'clock.

It is believed that the terrific heat of the last few days contributed in a great degree to the sudden death of Mr. Cleveland.

The scene in the bed room immediately before and after the death of the distinguished patient can not here be recorded, for the three physicians refuse to refer to the subject.

As soon as the widow recovered herself, she summoned a servant and asked that Professor Andrew F. West of Princeton, a close intimate friend and neighbor, be sent for. He came instantly and rendered whatever assistance they could.

Telegrams were prepared to Mrs. Perrine and children at Tamworth and about a dozen other relatives who are scattered all over the country. Up to this time no one outside the Cleveland, West and Hibbin families knew of what had occurred. Mrs. Cleveland then requested Prof. West to inform The Associated Press of the death of her husband and a messenger was sent for to take telegrams to the telegraph office.

In the meantime the undertaker, John A. Stead of Princeton, was sent for, and the first neighbors knew that their distinguished neighbor had passed away was when the undertaker's wagon rattled rapidly down Bayard avenue to the Cleveland residence, Mr. Stead, as he stepped on the porch, hung the customary knot of rope beside the door and then entered the house.

MRS. CLEVELAND PROSTRATED.

Mrs. Cleveland is prostrated. When the nearby friends heard of the ex-president's death many of them hurried to Westland to render whatever assistance they could, but Professors West and Hibbin and the physicians had matters well in hand.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Among the telegrams sent by Mrs. Cleveland to relatives and friends was one to President Roosevelt and one to Secy. of War Taft.

The death of Mr. Cleveland came as a terrible shock to the people of Princeton, who were proud of their fellow citizen. They have always had a warm spot for both the ex-president and Mrs. Cleveland, because they selected Princeton as their home after they left the White House. His death to them was not in the least expected and many at first refused to believe the sad news.

FLAGS ALL OVER PRINCETON ARE AT HALF MAST.

From another, but trustworthy, source it is learned that Mr. Cleveland became quite ill yesterday and that his condition was serious during the night, though the physicians did not consider him so ill as to expect death so soon.

PUBLIC NOT INFORMED.

There seems to have been an effort on the part of the physicians to keep the seriousness of the ex-president's condition from the public. When Mrs. Cleveland was seen last night by a reporter for the Associated Press she chatted pleasantly. She manifested no anxiety over her husband's illness and when the visit of the physicians was referred to as appearing significant she said there was no occasion for alarm. Mrs. Cleveland either did not know the seriousness of the ex-president's condition, or did not desire to tell. Drs. Lockwood and Bryant came here at 4:24 p. m. yesterday.

ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland celebrated the twenty-second anniversary of their wedding here on June 2. The affair was very quiet because of Mr. Cleveland's illness. A large wedding cake containing 22 candles was sent to them by some of their neighbors.

MRS. CLEVELAND'S MOTHER.

Tamworth, N. H., June 24.—Mrs. Perrine, the mother of Mr. Grover Cleveland, received the news of the former president's death by long distance telephone today. The three Cleveland children, Mrs. Perrine and her daughter, Cleveland summer home here. While no definite arrangements have been made yet, it is believed that Mrs. Perrine and the children will leave for Princeton immediately.

SECY. TAFT SHOCKED.

New Haven, Conn., June 24.—Secy. Taft was greatly shocked when he was informed of the death of Former President Grover Cleveland. He was in the commencement procession with the university officials when the news was conveyed to him by the Associated Press.

"I am very sorry, indeed," he said, "to hear of Mr. Cleveland's death. He was one of the really great men of the country, and his passing away is a distinct loss to the American people."

NEWS IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, June 24.—Unofficial notification of the death of Former President Cleveland was flashed immediately to Oyster Bay for the information of President Roosevelt. The White House received its first news of the death from the Associated Press.

Secy. Cortelyou, who, as the senior assistant officer in Washington at present is now the acting head of the administration. The first word that came to Secy. Cortelyou from Oyster Bay was an instruction, which the secretary at once promulgated to all executive departments, to place their national flags at half-mast. It is probable that they will thus remain for a period of 30 days.

Secy. Cortelyou, who served as confidential stenographer to President Cleveland, expressed himself as greatly shocked.

Following precedent, President Roosevelt will by proclamation formally announce Mr. Cleveland's death.

Former Secy. of the Treasury Carlisle and former Secy. of the Navy Hilary A. Herbert, both of whom served in President Cleveland's cabinet, are away from the city. Mr. Carlisle left at 8 o'clock this morning on the Pennsylvania railroad for New York on business. Mr. Herbert, who is at Port Carlin, Ontario, has been telegraphed to and is expected to leave immediately for Princeton.

FUNERAL WILL BE FRIDAY.

The following bulletin was issued to the Associated Press today:

The funeral of former President Cleveland will be held Friday, June 26, at 2 o'clock, at the Cleveland residence on Bayard Lane, Princeton, and will be strictly private.

MR. CLEVELAND'S CAREER.

Mr. Cleveland was 71 years old on March 18 last. During the past winter Mr. Cleveland kept close to his home in Princeton until the approach of his birthday, when he went to Lakewood with his family. He was a trustee of the Equitable Life Assurance society of this city, and up to the time of his going to Lakewood had attended to his correspondence in connection with his duties for that society.

After he went to Lakewood, however, he discontinued that work and it soon developed that Mr. Cleveland was suffering from an attack of digestive ailment which he had experienced many times before.

Mr. Cleveland was attended by Dr. Joseph D. Bryant, of this city, and Dr. George R. Lockwood, a specialist in lung disorders, who was called into consultation. Dr. Bryant made frequent visits to the distinguished patient at Lakewood. Mr. Cleveland occupied a suite of rooms on the second floor of the Lakewood hotel, at Lakewood and was constantly attended by Dr. Geiden-

Mrs. Grover Cleveland with her dog, Ex-President Cleveland, and his dog.

I have, of course, abandoned my intention of starting today for the New London boat races, so that if the funeral is held on Thursday or Friday I can attend. I can also attend if it is Sunday, but if it is Saturday a number of men are coming here from various parts of the country on a business engagement, which I cannot well break."

"Will you direct someone to write me when the funeral is to be held and where? (Signed) "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

CLEVELAND A GREAT MAN SAY HIS LOCAL ADMIRERS

The death of Grover Cleveland was the subject of much comment in Salt Lake today, and one of the last messages that was received from friendly party affiliates in convention assembled, was carried to him in the form of a letter from the Democratic convention assembled here June 12, expressing sympathy for him in his illness, and hope for his early recovery.

The resolution of sympathy was introduced by National Committeeman Frank K. Nebeker, and sent to President Cleveland ten days ago. It was agreed to unanimously by the convention with the single exception of J. E. Tolton of Boston, a debater who made himself heard frequently in the last session of the house of representatives.

President Cleveland is well remembered by the Democratic leaders of Salt Lake, many of whom cast their first presidential ballots for him, and remember him as the last standard bearer of their party who administered the nation's affairs.

What a few prominent men of the city think of him is illustrated in the interviews given below, while none regard him as a man who was closely familiar with conditions in the west, all are willing to concede that he was a courageous president who did much for the nation.

W. W. Ritter—"I regard Grover Cleveland as one of the best and largest minded of our presidents. He was a man of unusual fairness and independence of character. He did what he thought right without keeping his own party or the public in general, in a financial way, this country certainly owes him a debt of gratitude. He stood up, even against an avalanche of opinion in his own party, and supported the integrity of our money; and this at a time when amount which will be sought in the United States district court is in excess of $40,000. This amount represents attorneys' fees and other liabilities incurred by Mrs. McDonald during the trial, which she was charged with the murder of Webster Gurin.

CONSPIRACY CHARGES AGAINST COLLINS DISMISSED

Chicago, June 23.—Charges of conspiracy contained in indictments against John H. Collins, former chief of police; William L. Connel, former commissioner of public works; and Edmund H. Roche, former city purchasing agent, which were charged with the murder of Webster Gurin, were today dismissed by Judge C. C. Chase. A charge against Collins of having destroyed public records was dismissed. The action follows the acquittal of Collins, Roche and Connel at a trial on a charge of having made improper use of the police department in favor of the candidacy of the ex-mayor, Mr. Healy, said that the state had less proof to substantiate the charges of conspiracy than was submitted at the former trial and said that in his opinion it would be a waste of the court's time to press the charges.

LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOR OLE NORDAHL

Leviston, Mont., June 23.—Ole Nordahl, convicted last Sunday morning of murder in the first degree for the killing of Mrs. Bertha Schleuter in January last, and who must also be guilty of slaying the other four members of the family if he murdered the mother, was today sentenced by Judge Cheate to life imprisonment. The jury having left the penalty to be fixed by the court, under the new law, Nordahl, when asked if he had anything to say, contented himself with the single remark that he had never harmed anyone. Judge Cheate reviewed the case at considerable length and also expressed his views on capital punishment, saying that while he believed the state had the right to take a man's life under certain circumstances his own conviction was that capital punishment was not expedient because of the lack of proof of the actual commission of the crime charged. The corpus delicti and his honor was satisfied on that point.

TO EXPLORE PERU.

Berkeley, Cal., June 24.—Dr. Samuel A. Barrett, of the University of California, who has been connected with the department of anthropology for two years and has conducted a series of investigations of the languages and habits of the Indians of this state, has just left for the interior of Ecuador and Peru, where he will take part in archaeological explorations in that country. He will be one of the members of the George G. Heye expedition which was fitted out three years ago by a New York millionaire. The expedition, the party will cover northern Ecuador and Peru.

DROWNED IN THE YELLOWSTONE

Billings, Mont., June 23.—A man named Moreland was drowned today in the Yellowstone river, being thrown from a raft by a rapid. A companion narrowly escaped drowning.

POLITICS IN ALASKA.

Fairbanks, Alaska, June 24.—The political situation in Alaska was made extremely complex yesterday by the statement which Judge James Wickert issued announcing that he was a candidate to succeed Thomas Cale as delegate to Congress. The fact that Mr. Cale and Judge Wickert are warm political and social friends adds to the oddity of the situation. Roman, the Democratic and Corson, Gov. Hoggatt's candidate, were former supporters of Mr. Cale. Maj. Clum who inaugurated his own campaign yesterday, was also a Cale supporter. In the face of all this, reports which come from the second division indicate that Cale has got strength there as well as in the Tanana.

ELEVEN DEATHS FROM HEAT.

Chicago, June 23.—Eleven deaths due to heat stroke and other causes were recorded in Chicago today. The thermometer again climbed to above 90 but late this afternoon a shift in the wind brought a cool wave and it is believed that the torrid wave has been broken in this section.

PATENTS FOR WESTERNERS.

(Special to the "News.") Washington, D. C., June 24.—Patents issued: Utah—W. Cox, Provo, anti-rattler thill coupling and support.

Idaho—C. W. Hunt and J. Kinney, Pocatello, means for automatically stopping trains; G. P. White, Wallace, concrete mixer.

RAMSEY TELLS OF LAMBLING.

Government Expert Says Growers Have Been Unfortunate.

Dr. R. A. Ramsey, assistant to the chief of the bureau of animal industry at Washington, is in the city. Dr. Ramsey is field man for the government. He has just been over the territory covering New Mexico, Arizona and southern Colorado. Owing to the lack of rainfall in this vast territory, Dr. Ramsey figures that 30 per cent of the lamb crop has been saved and unless rain falls soon the entire crop may be lost. No rain to anything has fallen since February. In many instances, explains the animal industry expert, it was necessary to kill the weaker lambs that the best might get higher range; the visitor told of some cases where one owner would have to dispose of as many as 2,000 head.

DEATH OF ENGINEER.

George H. Elvis of Bingham Consolidated Dies at Holy Cross Hospital.

The friends of George H. Elvis, the civil and mining engineer, who submitted to an operation for appendicitis at the Holy Cross hospital a few days ago, will be shocked to learn that the patient died at 10 o'clock last night. The remains are being held at O'Donnell's undertaking establishment until the arrival of the father of the deceased, who is expected to arrive tomorrow from Medford, Wis. Mr. Elvis was formerly employed by the Bingham Consolidated and Ohio Copper and was highly esteemed by officials of both companies. Although given the very best of medical attention and care, his case seems to have been an unfortunate one and surgeons who performed the operation entertained little hope of his recovery from the time they took the case.

REVOLUTION IN PERSIA SPREADING

Palace of Prince Zill Es Sultan, Shah's Uncle, Pillaged by The Soldiery.

WILD SCENES IN TEHRAN.

Corpses of Men and Bodies of Horses Cover Main Square Of Capital.

Government Has Declared a State of Siege—Throughout the Country Bazaars Have Been Closed.

Berlin, June 24.—The Tagblatt publishes a dispatch from Tehran saying that the firing of small arms and artillery was still going on today. The buildings of parliament were quite demolished by the bombardment of yesterday. Corpses of men and bodies of horses cover the main square of Tehran. It is impossible to give the exact number of casualties, but the Cossacks alone lost 10 men killed. The palace of Prince Zill Es Sultan, an uncle of the shah, and the buildings adjacent to it, have been pillaged by the soldiers. According to news from the provinces, Zill Es Sultan, who is friendly to Great Britain, has taken the leadership of the movement in the south. The night passed quietly, but the outbreak of firing this morning leads to the belief that there may be further collisions. The government has declared a state of siege and has ordered throughout the country have been closed.

THE FIRST SHOT.

It has been generally confirmed that the first shot in yesterday's fighting in this city was fired by members of the anjuman, or political clubs. Soldiers early in the morning had surrounded the parliament house and demanded that a number of persons whose arrest the shah had ordered be handed over to them forthwith. This demand, parliament refused to comply with and shots were fired at the troops. Artillery was then brought up and bombarded the parliament building, the halls of which were eventually captured.

MANY ARRESTS.

Said Abdulah, the president of parliament, Abdul Muzammil and many popular leaders and members of the anjuman as well as several newspaper editors, were arrested and 30 of them placed in chains last night. Taki-sadeh, leader of the opposition and editor of the Habdul Matin together with nine other editors, took refuge in the British legation.

The British and Russian representatives here have requested the shah to take immediate steps to restore order and have the remnants of their governments would hold him responsible for any unfortunate incident that might occur. The shah in reply, has given full assurance that everything will be done to prevent further disturbances.

FIGHTING HAS CEASED.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—The foreign office this morning received dispatches sent from Tehran at nightfall yesterday, stating that the fighting around the parliament building had ceased and that the town was quiet, and confirming generally the news already received here by way of London and Berlin. The dispatches contained no additional details and the number of dead and wounded was not given, the writer adding that it was difficult even to approximate the casualties.

The liberal press of St. Petersburg which throughout the Persian troubles has sympathized with the Persian parliament, regards the attack upon the Cossacks as the initiation of a pure coup d'etat and is confident that it will be followed by the dissolution of the national assembly and by the revocation of the constitution.

The St. Petersburg press declares that a civil war has broken out and that the horrors have begun in Persia. The shah, the paper says, has been successful, but the final outcome is doubtful as the shah's hand is weak and the army is defeated. The armed forces of the revolutionists arrive from the north.

REASON FOR BOMBARDMENT.

Berlin, June 24.—A dispatch received here from Tehran today says the bombardment of a portion of that city yesterday was not conducted with the idea of abolishing the constitution, but to bring about the arrest of a group of politicians personally hostile to the shah and who intended to depose him. It is also said that the shah has crushed his opponents in the provinces. The functions of parliament have not been abolished and it is even declared that a part of parliament is in favor of the course pursued by the shah. Europeans in Tehran are not in danger but this is not the fact in the case of European residents in Aaris and Burumlah. In Burumlah the danger arises from the activities of Kurdish tribesmen and Turkish troops.

PRESIDENT WILL NOT ATTEND YALE-HARVARD RACE

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 24.—President Roosevelt will not attend the Yale-Harvard boat races at New London tomorrow owing to the death of Former President Grover Cleveland.

President Roosevelt sent a message of condolence to Mrs. Cleveland and expressed his intention of attending the funeral if it takes place on any other day than Saturday, when he has an important conference.

CHOLERA BREAKS OUT.

Among the Troops at Camp Gregg in The Philippines.

Manila, June 24.—Cholera has broken out among the troops at Camp Gregg. Three soldiers and one civilian have died from the disease and the camp has been placed under quarantine regulations. Lieut. Jones of the First Cavalry, and Lieut. Muldon of the Philippine scouts have been stricken. The situation with regard to the cholera outbreak in the province of Pangasinan on the island of Luzon is very serious. Ninety-three cases have been reported in the last 24 hours, 40 of which have proved fatal. The collier Caesar has arrived with the submarine which are intended for this station on board.
