There will be several bills ap-proved by them which the incoming Congress will be asked in no uncertain tones, to pass. Says He Has Been in Jall Forty-six Times on Account of Salvation Army Work.

J. Garabad, or as he is known, "Joe the Turk," arrived in this city last evening over the Rio Grande Western. This interesting man is a native of Syria and is now an adjutant in the Salvation Army. He will stay in this city for a few days as the guest of Staff Captain Wood, and while here he will deliver a number of addresses commencing with an exhortation at the Salvation Army hall on Commercial street, to be followed by an address at the First Congregational church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Adjutant Garabad arrived from Chi-cago along with his famous "gospel umbrella" and a number of rich ori-ental curios and costumes. On this umbrella are painted General Booth's picture and various sentiments which exhort the sinner to repentance. This parasol, which is richly trimmed, is surmounted by a small American eagle and the Stars and Stripes. There is also a gong bell attached to the frame, There is which is rung to keep time with the singing. There is also a dry battery electric lamp on the umbrella which assits him to read on the streets at ight, while preaching. Adjutant Garabad was born in Asi-tic Turkey, but has been a citizen of the United States for the past twenty years. He first settled in Worcester, Mass., but later went to San Francisco where he took out his papers. About two years later the Salvation Army commenced operations in San Franciscommenced operations in san Francis-co, and in a very short space of time "Joe the Turk" identified himself with that body. Since that time he has traveled extensively and met with many adventures, not the least among which was a number of mobbings, the mo-mentoes of which he carries to this day

MAY CHOOSE CALDER'S.

Directors of D. A. & M. Society Meet This Afternoon.

The directors of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing society met in the office of Secretary Sears at 2 o'clock this afternoon to hear the report of their committee on the various sites offered for permanent fair grounds to consider and discuss the same, and finally to decide which of the several sites to purchase. The sites which have been under discussion are the Burton farm, Calder's Fark, the Agricultural Park, which is now owned by the society. The meeting of the directors is still in session as the paper goes to press and the site has not yet been decided upon. However, it has been learned upon good authority that Calder's Park will probably be chosen as that is considered to be the best site for the fair grounds and it can readily be obtained upon most advantageous terms. Notwithstanding this fact much pressure is being brought upon the directors to decide in favor of the Agri-cultural park, which the society now owns and threats have been made that the $20,000 city appropriation for per-manet buildings will be cancelled it any other site is chosen. The ques-

Scrofula Is commonly inherited. Pale, weak, puny children are afflicted with it in nine cases out of ten.

And yet it may develop so slowly as to cause little, if any, disturbance during the whole period of childhood.

It may then produce dyspepsia, catarrh and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in much cutaneous eruption or glandular swelling.

Common indications of it are: bunches in the neck, abscesses, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, wasting and general debility.

Many medicines are said to eradicate scrofula but

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Opal Club will be held next Tues. day evening in the Ladjes' Literary address that the saying "There are no men like English men, So true, so brave, so free; There are no maids like English maids, So beautiful to see." had a good application in this brilliant ompany. He then proceeded to warn the young ladies of the danger they were in because they were fair; "for how hardly," said the speaker, "shall they which the beautiful enter the kingdom of the truly educated." The speaker went on to say that a lady tudent who happens to have a pretty face is likely to be petted at home and flattered in society, till she becomes giddy, dizzy, intoxicated with the praise of persons as light-headed as herself; and she barters away all her glorious opportunities as a student at the only time in which she can prepare herself for life here and here-after, merely in order to be a leader in a little social set. There certainly could not be any society, however, more delightful than the present company; and the speaker hoped that guests would enjoy the festivities of the occasion and banish every thought save that of pleasure.

THE BANQUET.

The lunch served in the book-keeping cooms was an arttistic and well managed banquet. The tables were ar-ranged to seat 250 and there were three different slitings. Flowers and colored ights made a picturesque effect in the banquet hall, and the lunch was a very dainty one. At the first table grace said by Prest, Angus M. Cannon. Miss

Summerhays presided and introduced the toasts, which were given by A. H. Derbyshire, John Astin, Heming Mor-tensen and J. P. Dalley. At the second table "the boys" pre-sided and kept up a continuous hur-rah, furnishing the kind of program which they preferred. The third table was over by midnight. During the banquet continuous go-as. ou-please affairs were held in the other rooms, and in the assembly room singing, speeches, and recitations were had throughout the evening.
