JUAB STAKE CONFERENCE.

On Friday April 15th, 1881, the Juab Stake Conference commenced. At 10 a. m. the Primaries assembled at the Nephri Tabernacle. The Nephri North and South Wards were fully represented. The Levan and Mona parishes. The children sang very sweetly.

After prayer the presidents of the wards reported the condition of their ward primaries which was very satisfactory.

A prepared programme demonstrated the improvement in the children's reports. The Primary authorities were presented by Pres. Geo. Tensdale, both of the Stake and the Levan which were fully sustained. The programme was a very enjoyable time.

In the afternoon our good sisters held their quarterly conference, the tabernacle choir being in attendance under the able leadership of Prof. J. R. Dalton.

After opening services very interesting reports and remarks were made showing that our sisters take great interest in the latter-day work. The relief authorities were sustained for the Stake and Wards.

In the evening the quarterly Priesthood meeting was held. Reports from the various groups were received, good instructions given, a profitable time.

On Saturday morning at 10 a. m. there was a very good attendance of the people. After opening services the Bishops reported their wards and themselves in the enjoyment of the spirit of the gospel.

Elder Edward Kay, recently returned from a mission to England, gave an interesting report in a graphic account of his labors and mission, closing with an earnest testimony.

At 2 p. m. after devotional services President Joseph F. Smith read the statistical report.

Elder John Kinkie, Presidents Joel Grover and K. H. Brown occupied the afternoon preaching the gospel and exhorting to faithfulness and good works.

President Tensdale made a few closing remarks on the philosophy of the Mormon religion.

In the evening there was a crowded attendance. The Young Men's and Ladies' Mutual Improvement held their conference in the afternoon. Very satisfactory reports were given by the superintendents of Stake and Wards.

President Howard Spencer of Kanab, and Elder G. H. Cannon of Orderville, made some very encouraging remarks, and the Stake and Ward authorities of the U. T. M. and Y. L. A. were presented and sustained.

On Sunday morning at 10, the Sabbath schools held their conference. The teachers reported a very good attendance. The children were very bright, joyous countenances assembled together in conference. The teachers occupied the end of the forenoon in the choir, under the guidance of the worthy friend, Charles Kinkie, charmed us with their sweet music. Reports were given by the County and Ward superintendents showing a very interesting being taken by earnest men and women in this laudable work.

Superintendent Tensdale was delighted to meet President George Q. Cannon at the depot, and escort him to the meeting. He arrived at the choir were singing one of their most harmonious hymns, and were introduced to them, addressed them in a most affectionate and fatherly manner. It was a time long to be remembered.

At 2 p. m. there was not room for the congregation in the Tabernacle, the doors of the vestry were thrown open and it was soon filled. After the usual exercises, Bishop Hunter's singing school reported. It showed an increase of receipts for the past year of $1,800. The financial report was given.

President George Q. Cannon occupied the rest of the time in a very powerful and interesting manner.

It was resolved to continue our Conference until Monday noon.

In the evening President Cannon addressed the young people. The meeting was under the auspices of the Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. Associations, Stake Superintendent Thos. Crawley presiding. The Sabbath school choir was in attendance, the house was again crowded, and all were deeply interested.

Monday morning, at 9 o'clock, President Cannon, upon invitation met with the presiding authorities of the Stake, at which meeting much valuable instruction was imparted.

Elder Thomas Crawley was ordained to the High Priesthood.

At 10:30 a. m. Conference continued. After devotional exercises the Church and Stake authorities were presented and sustained.

Presidents George Q. Cannon and George Tensdale occupied the time in general instructions and exhortations.

W. A. C. BRYAN, Clerk.
