OCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Incatur -Last night Mr. Wheatleigh's "Saam Scudder" was a very artistic and natural siece of seving. Mr. Wheatle gh is not one of demonstrative, noisy, bolaterous, irrepresunit vigorous, sensational modern class of score, but he belongs to another-the quick, careful, thurough, siways astuarying, but selum or never elec raying. White he is guiltuss of sweeping the stage with n agnificent c taking the house by irresistable he shows houself capable of exerting a satisfying influence and leaving a very favoratle impired in. His subduced but . fotive Darad at a study is worthy of study, for while it that at a rike many chords of entousiasm in Thisevening is a comedy night, and a promising programme is put forth-dret, "A Victim of Groumstances,"Mr. Wheatleig has "Bonnefol," str. trarite as "Delaroche"; and next "Bagshot.

Messis, Thorne, Marden and Harris appear in he last place.

To-morrow, Friday, Mr. Wheatleigh takes a penelli, when his almirers should muster in ree. There will be an attractive bill.

Campbell was arrested last night, and was before Justice Clinton this morning, charged with going to the room of Louisa Morgan, making threats against the latter's the smashing the door of the room, burstng it open and making a general row and disinchance, to the great alarm and bodily fear of the aforesaid Louisa Morgan. Among other things stucidated in the evileace was that Campbell drew a pistol and threatened to shoot the woman in question, but fortunately she managed to escape from

It was a clear case against Campbell and he court decided that he should give ords in $1000 for his appearance before the rand Jury, or in default be committed to al. Campbell left the court in company with an officer for the purpose of procuring bonds, so we presume they would be forth-

This is the second time that Campbell has been before the court for an assault on Lou-in Morgan, having been arrested and fined on a similar charge last winter. Nuns REGULATING .- For several days ut the water in the sects cast the Eagle Gate has been very unqually distributed, some of the courses sing dry and others inconveniently flood-These are things which need the roupt and efficient attention of the water suthorities, in order that damage and loss may be prevented, equal water rights be enjoyed, and good feeling be entertained, among the citizens and residents conwraed. After any of the courses have seen dry for any length of time, and the vater is turned in again, there is a natural at unpleasant and unaccommodating rush the fluid for irrigation, which is not ikely to excite the most agreeable feelings

Too MANY OF THEM.-Sait Lake City a at present flooded with more than her roportion of low grade lawyers, and no ne acquainted with that class of profess ionals would do otherwise than admit halthey are anything else than a bless at to any community. They"must live," and their way of obtaining a livelihood a not always what might be termed leg Tusta Suppose we give an instance: A "ansient gentleman some time since pursels suit of clothes from a party in 1183 promising to pay when he received a sign of money from a certain source. The money was received, after bank bours, in the form of a draft, and payment for the clothing was postponed till the fol-lowing day. A limb of the law, being aware of the facts, in the meantime thought he could make a few dollars by getting up a case. He "persuaded the soutisman from whom the clothing was purchased that the purchaser intended to put out for other quarters immediately out for other quarters immediately. and, on these grounds, a charge of at-sampting to defraud, &c., was entered and the genuleman in question was arrested.
