LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Methodist will have baptism tomorrow morning at the regular service.

Our local newsmen under the lead of Frank Hutchinson, have organized to sell foreign newspapers on the streets of this city.

The agricultural implement men report a heavier sale than ever before in mowers and rakes, as the farmers are cutting great crops of hay.

A thousand old folks are expected to participate in the excursion of next Thursday. Everybody of 50 years or over is invited to "go home."

Daniel Hughey of the Short Line was this morning in the hospital, recently so badly bruised up that he had to be taken to St. Mark's hospital.

A company, First Infantry has a committee of eight out mustering for enough members to enable the command to be mustered into the service of the state.

An exchange is to be established at Fifth East and Twelfth South streets by the Bell Telephone company, to relieve the pressure of business in the main office.

Owing to the public desire to see the elegant paintings in Col. Holmgren's art gallery, the exhibition will remain open throughout tomorrow. There is a regular rush on to visit the gallery.

Daniel J. Atherton of Bingham has filed a petition of voluntary bankruptcy in the federal court, naming his liabilities at $1,141,43, with assets of $10, which of which $865 is claimed as exempt.

Jay D. Johnson and Harold Goff fought with four rattlesnakes yesterday in Farmington canyon, and killed two and captured one in inches long with five rattles. The captive was brought to this city last evening.

President Joseph F. Smith will address the Sunday school workers of Ensign Stake at their regular monthly Union meeting Monday night. The meeting will be held in the Twenty-first ward chapel and all parents are cordially invited to be present.

Over 100 people en route to San Francisco, according to the information, Paganini's companion spent yesterday afternoon in this city. They were shown about the city by members of the local union, and attended the afternoon organ recital in the Tabernacle this noon, and they are enjoying the afternoon at Saltair. The party leaves for Portland tonight.

Charles Spencer Mann, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Mann of Los Angeles and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Porter of this city, died yesterday from heart trouble. His funeral service was held this morning at Mt. Olivet, where the body was placed in a tomb preparatory to removal to Los Angeles for interment.

C. R. Savage arrived this morning from American Falls, where he has been on a business trip. He reports that the amount of travel is something astonishing, so that the Short Line company is at the head of the pack to supply a number of cars necessary to carry the people. Trains are packed solid both ways, and mostly by through passengers.

The Fourth ward Sunday school will hold its annual conference tomorrow, when exercises of a pleasing and varied character will be carried out. At the morning session, commencement at 10 o'clock, the different departments will give a short series of exercises, while in the evening, commencing at 6:30, reports will be heard and musical numbers rendered by school members. The public is invited.

The conductors and matormen of a Third street and a South Temple street car found themselves unable to pass on the same track last evening near Third East street, because the service was held this morning at Mt. Olivet, where the body was placed in a tomb preparatory to removal to Los Angeles for interment.

Sunday evening during the devotional exercises in the Twenty-first ward chapel of this city, a program of original music will be rendered by the choir under the direction of David J. Wattis. While perhaps there is no greater concern among the young people than the clings that is often expressed in new religious songs, Utah has already known enough of these songs of the soul to forecast the centering of art and musical interests here, such as are seldom grouped in single evenings as to offer Sunday evenings. The organist is J. G. Jones, a fine musician who is now in his second year of study. The program includes: "My God, the Spring of All My Joys," "I Praise My Maker," sacramental hymn, "For Our Devotions," "God is Love" and an anthem, "Wonderful Counselor."

Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Co. has on deposit over three and one half million dollars. You have not an account, open one at any time. "H. or more." Mr. E. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.
