OUESTIONS MAHER CONTEST.

Champion Thinks it Was Not Strictly On its Merits-Jack Must Defeat Good Ones.

It seems that the only procedure now open to Jack Munroe is "back, back to the mines." If the Butte miner thinks, or thought, that, by defeating poor old Peter Maher he could force Jeffries into a match, he is badly mistaken. Although Peter was "stopped" there are many who saw the fight who unhesitatingly pronounced it "fixed for Jack." Jeffries also views the bout with suspicion and says Munroe is no nearer a fight with him now than he was months ago. Jeff, does not believe that the fight was decided strictly upon its merits.

Jeffries does not intend to give Munroe any consideration until he has disposed

Three games were bowled in the first series, and a large crowd of entauslasts witnessed the contest. The State Street aggregation had little trouble in carrying off the hon-ors. They took two out of the three games, and when the points were summed up it was found that they had won by a total of 237. Evans of the Bismarcks, and Brown of the opposing team, had a close fight for individual honors: the former making 202 for the first game and the latter next with only one point to the bad.

The next series will be played this even-ing by the Collender team at their alleys against the Elks. The scores of last night's games follow:

Race at Armory. A number of the battery boys of the National Guard got together at the Ar-mory last evening and pulled off an in-teresting event called an equipment race. The equipment, ecnsisting of calbine, belt, cap, blouse shoes and other articles, were laid out on the hall floor us far apart as possible and at a given signal the competitors dashed for their things, picked up one article at a time, put it of and ran to the next and so on until ev-ery article was in its place. They then had to load their carbines with blank cartridges, fire two shots and salute. The successful contestant in hast night's race was Private Charles Adams. Ed Dono-van won second, and L. M. Earl, Jr., third. One minute and a half was the time made by Adams.

Is it not tempting fate on Fitzsim-mons' part to go against a young, strong fellow like Gardner? The New England man is a hard hitter. Suppose that he should hammer Fitz around the body as he has done others. Do you think a man of nearly 50 years can stand ten rounds of fast fighting and body punches?"
