

SOCIETY

But for the sweltering heat of the early part of the week there would have been many mountain and pleasure-seeking pilgrims of this city return home during the past few days. But the rising, raging temperature was too much for them and they will remain considerably longer now. Not only that but there will be new accessions to the summer resort colonies of those who have been fleeing from the valleys for relief from an atmospheric oppression that has been well nigh intolerable. Notable social functions have not been numerous this week. The gatherings and parties that have been held have been delightfully informal—just "the thing" for this season of the year. Lake dinners and luncheons have easily led all other forms of social entertainment. In fact they have become quite a fad and promise to remain so for the rest of the season.

Two of the largest events of the week were the parties given by Mrs. Sinclair and her daughter, Miss Sinclair, at their home on Second East street. The first event was something novel in the form of a morning square party, the guests being invited to be present at 10 a. m. Refreshments were served at 12:30. The parlor and library were decorated in pink and white sweet peas and the dining room was done in nasturtiums, while the hall was arranged with Nasturtium bouquets, Indian relics and sunflowers. Prizes were won by Miss Luce, Mrs. Dintz and Mrs. Keil. Assisting the hostesses were Miss Fugate of New Jersey, and the Misses Bird, Little, Driscoll and Anderson. About 40 guests were present.

The second event given by Mrs. Sinclair and her daughter, Miss Sinclair, occurred Thursday evening. The room was tastefully decorated with pink and white sweet peas, sunflowers and nasturtiums. Eachere was the game played and about 40 guests enjoyed the evening's offerings.

Probably the largest affair of the week was a dancing party given by Clarence Dambarger on Tuesday evening last. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dambarger was thrown open for the occasion and about 80 of the younger set participated. Refreshments were served on the lawn.

The dinner given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Von Krosch in honor of her guest, Mrs. Alexander Ramsey Thompson of New York, was one of the prettiest events of the week. Those invited to meet Mrs. Thompson were Mr. and Mrs. Delano, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Vigus, Dr. Landenberg, Miss Florence Paine, Roscoe Vigus and Austin Landenberg.

Mrs. Archer gave a charming musicale on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. Edie of Denver. Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Morahan took prominent part in the program, which was a delightful one in all respects.

Dr. and Mrs. Reed entertained a party of friends at their home on Wednesday evening and succeeded in making the occasion a decidedly pleasant one.

Miss Nora Gleason, the well known local musician, was hostess at an informal musicale at her home on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George R. Hancock, who has been visiting with her parents in Park City, returned here several days ago.

Capt. and Mrs. Syer entertained a party of friends at the post on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. F. E. Parker and her sister, Miss Lola Bishop of Bay City, Michigan, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Riving.

Miss Nellie Cullen entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon this afternoon in honor of three young Salt Lake visitors, Miss McMillan, of Cleveland, Ohio, Miss Edna Jacobs of Seattle, and Miss Ryan of St. Paul. The table was prettily decorated, an immense bowl of sweet peas standing in the center with streamers of pink ribbon running to each, and bunches of sweet peas were used instead of place cards. Twenty-four young ladies were invited to meet the guests of honor.

Mrs. Jacobs of Seattle was guest of honor at a delightful Kensington given Thursday by Mrs. Hal Brown. A musical program was given during the afternoon by Mrs. John Reed, Miss Edna Jacobs and Miss Butler. Mrs. Brown was assisted in entertaining her 30 guests by Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. George Peterson, Mrs. E. Lincoln Briggs and Mrs. Jacobs.

Miss Gertrude Mager was business lady at a Kensington given in honor of her cousin, Miss Lillian Kiser, of Chicago. About 20 girls were invited to meet Miss Mager. A musical program was given during the afternoon. The home was very prettily decorated with palms and flowers. Stained lights were used.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Taylor gave a delightful lake party last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Wilson of Colorado Springs. Besides the guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham, Miss Wetzell, Miss Leona Taylor, Villette Eardley and Thomas Giles.

Miss Edythe Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ed. A. Hale, of this city, left yesterday for Palo Alto, to begin her senior year in Stanford university.

Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery, Miss M. B. Connel and Miss Lou Paden returned during the week from a month's outing at Mountain Park near Silver Lake.

Miss Pearl Chalmers charmingly entertained the members of the M. S. S. O. U. at her home on Thursday of this week. The parlor was arranged in red and white and the dining room in pink and green. Punch was served during the evening by Miss Nellie Bull and Miss Tillie Thomas. The members of the club presented the hostess with a handsome piece of needle work before adjourning. Miss Thomas will entertain the club next month.

WEDDING BELLS

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season was that of Miss Kate Evershine and Mr. Walter Hurd. The ceremony was performed Wednesday evening by Bishop Woolley at the home of the bride's parents on First street, and was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives. Later a large reception was held. The young couple are well known in this city. Mr. Hurd was at one time private secretary to Senator Rayburn. They will make their home in Washington until Mr. Hurd completes his course in law.

A quiet home wedding of the week was that of Miss Fannie H. Wilson and Mr. B. M. Pierce. The young couple will make their home in this city.

OGDEN SOCIAL

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 2.—One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred Wednesday morning at the elegant home of Mrs. J. C. Armstrong on Adams avenue, when her daughter, Miss Edna V. Armstrong, was married to George L. Erhard of Omaha. At 11 o'clock the wedding party entered the beautiful parlor where a stringed orchestra played softly the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride and groom took their place under a beautiful floral creation and Rev. Alfred Brown of the Episcopal church performed the ceremony. After the extending of congratulations the wedding guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast. The bride is one of Ogden's most charming and accomplished young ladies, also a member of the S. C. O. B. society and a leading society belle. The groom is a promising young business man of Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Erhard left Ogden on an extended holiday trip. They will make Omaha their home.

WOMEN'S WOES.

The woes of womankind; few are they who do not suffer from many aches and pains.

A woman's kidneys are greatly overtaxed; household duties and other cares constantly put a strain on the kidneys.

When the kidneys are overworked they rebel; they cry out through the back, and most backache pains are kidney pains.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

cure every form of kidney ills; cure a bad back, whether lame, weak or aching, cure diabetes, urinary troubles down to the borderland of Bright's disease.

Mrs. H. Haynes, retired, residence 2124 So. State St., says: "For twelve or thirteen years I knew that my kidneys were not in the best shape and after an attack of the grip in the winter of 1901 my suffering proved to be true for the sharp pain across the loins became so pronounced that I could neither stoop nor straighten after stooping. I noticed that my head ached very severely and that when in the violent stage dimness of vision occurred. I tried everything in my power to check the cause and spent a lot of money for physicians' treatment, but all my attempts were futile. I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and went to the F. J. Hill Drug Co.'s store for a box. To say that the treatment surprised me is putting it very mildly. Relief came in a few days, and a short time afterwards the last attack stopped."
