SOME CROWING AT POULTRY SHOW

Blue Ribbons Were Tacked Up On Prize Winning Coops This Morning.

SOME WHO SECURED SPECIALS.

List of Chicken Fanciers Who Have Feen Recognized by the Judge To Date.

The crowing match at the soultry show continues apace. This morning quite a number of the roosters had something to crow about, for a young man came around armed with a mouthful of tacks, a hammer and a handful of blue ribbons. These last named were the special prize tokens and each ribbon bord the legend, best colored or shaped male or female, as the case might be, Some coops were honored to the extent of as many as four ribbons being tacked up, and when there were only two birds inside the gentleman surely had license to crow! Even the aimable duck who runs to avoirdupois so aggressively woke up and outquacked the quack who rooms upstairs. When the lad with the blue ribbons passed, like the Pharithe blue ribbons passed, like the Phari-see of ancient fore, on the other side, one apparently disgusted Plymouth Rock turned hisback on the boy with the tack hammer and gracefully filled the youth's eyes full of sawdust and chaff which he scratched from the bottom of his toop with a pair of vicious swings of his claws. "And yet they say that fowls are devoid of intelligence," mur-mured Emma J. Mellette, editor of the Western Poulity World, as she tackled a poor defenseless man drove him into a poor defenseless man, drove him into a corner and wrote him up for an an-nual subscription before he could escape.

The prizes are nearly all awarded and tomorrow will see the Poultry Show close in a blaze of glory, much to the relief of the roomers upstalrs and the added peace and dignity of State street. Among those who secured the much coveted blue ribbon this morning, which means they are entitled to special prizes, are the following:

William H. Emms, Silver Laced Wyandottes, best shaped male and female; D. Duncan, Barred Plymouth Rocks, best colored and best shaped male: Thomas Nelson, white Wyandottes, best shaped female; J. W. Bird & Son., white Leghorn, best colored female; C. G. Rustedt, light Brahmas, best colored and shaped male and female; J. CANNON HOUSE FIRE.

Handsome Residence Near the Jordan River Being Destroyed.

At the hour of going to press the esidence of Sarah A. J. Cannon, widow of Abraham H. Cannon, is reported to be in flames and in course of complete destruction. It is located on Eighth West and Tenth South, near the banks f the Jordan river. The house is a large and handsome one. The alarm came in by telephone and department. No. 2 responded, while the steamer from No. 1 also started for the scene of the clerk's office today. blaze.

BARGAIN SALES.

The rage for marking down goods and running bargain sales has spread beyond the drygoods and shoe trades, and caught on among the marketmen. One butcher has started out with "marked down goods," and is doing also a rushing bargain counter business. Store worn eggs, slightly soiled cabbages, odds and ends of other vegetables, mismated groceries, and broken lots of overmature fruits and shelfstained canned goods, are going at bar. gain and knock down prices. The un-dertakers are thinking of likewise go-ing into this line of commercial endeavor, and doing a big business in bargain counter sales of mortuary haberda hery and post mortem gear generally.

IN LIBERIA.

Arthur Barelay Inaugurated as President.

London, Jan. 29 .- Advices received from Liberia say that the new president, Arthur Barclay, was successfully inaugurated at Monrovla, the capital, Jan. 4. The keynotes of his address to few weeks ago, in Salt Lake City with-the people were commercial freedom out damage to any one. the people were commercial freedom and the conciliation of the aboriginal population of Liberia, to which little attention has been paid for many years. The president dwelt on the advantages the Liberians derive from Europeans and white Americans. He urgently advocated closer commercial alliances and recommended granting greater facilities to all foreigners for trading and farming.

HAY FOR HOBOES.

Saloonkeeper Cuts Out the Free Lunch At His Bar.

A west First South street saloonkeeper who has been giving rather extensive free lunches of late, found that the patronage of the lunch table was considerably exceeding that of the drink counter. Men were flocking in at noon to the generous feed, but seemed to forget all about any obligation to patronize the bar. They were men out of employment, and had no money. The saloon man had no objection to helping the worthy indigent, but the brevity of his purse did not admit of feeding the town. So yesterday he set the table as usual with nice table cloth, knives, forks and spoens; but instead of the regular edibles, he placed on the table

The new city of Murray has another municipal scandal on its hands, which involves the mayor, marshal, city justice and the five councilmen, all of whom went out of office on the first of January. It seems that the councilmen just before they retired from office, passed a resolution appropriating the sum of $25 to each of the councilmen, the mayor, the marshal and the city justice for contingent expenses, and the money was paid to them. It is claimed as a matter of law that they had no authority to do such an act and an attempt is being mde to com-pel them to refund the money. It is stated that City Attorney Haigh has been instructed to bring suit to recover the money.

JANUARY 30th, at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

And to Continue Daily Until the Desired Amount is Raised. Stock Consists of HIGH CRADE DIAMONDS, WATCHES, JEWELRY, SILVERWARE, RICH CUT CLASS, CLOCKS, UM-BRELLAS, LEATHER COODS, Etc., and is considered one of the Choicest Selected Stocks in the West.

HIS SALE is made necessarry owing to the very overcrowded condition of the stock, caused by a big falling off in the Holiday Trade, and Mr. Hall desires to assure his many friends and patrons that he will personally guarantee each article offered to be exactly as represented-that everything will be sold regardless of cost, and nothing in the entire stock will be reserved.

As a special inducement for a prompt attendance at the opening of each sale, eight elegant presents will be given away free at every sale.

Ladies are especially invited to attend, and chairs will be provided for their convenience.
