AUTOGRAPH EDITION DE LUXE Beautiful, in Green and Gold, is Being Distributed-Other Editions The long looked for and much talked of poem, "Elias-An Epic of the Ages," Bishop Whitney's sublime masterwork, has at last arrived and is on sale at Salt Lake City. The distribution of the Edition de Luxe, limited to 150 copies, each copy numbered and containing the author's autograph, has begun, and this splendid and costly work, issued by the noted Knickerbocker Press of New York City, may now be seen in the display window of the Deseret News book store. It is bound in full crushed levant, green and bound in full crushed levant, green and gold, with silk paddings, special paper linings, all edges gilt, and paper of finest quality. The type is new and beautifully clear, and the illustrations, six in number, including a vignette por-trait of the author, are photogravures of originals by Utah artists, namely, H. L. A. Culmer, Lee Greene Richards and John S. Sears. The reading mat-ter, including frontal leaves, comprises close to 175 pages. This autograph edition is said to be the handsomest book ever turned out by the Knicker-Gives Health, Vigor and Tone. Herbine is a boon for sufferers from aneamia. By its use the blood is guickly regenerated and the color becomes nor-mal. The drooping strength is revived. The langor is diminished. Health, vig-or and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. Bhirel. Middlesborough. Ills., Writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint and poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's life-time." Sec. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. B book ever turned out by the Knicker-booker Press (G. F. Putnam Sons) and in fact was declared so to be by the proprietors of that famous printing house, to a representative of this paper, during a recent visit to the metropolis. All the copies of the Edition de Luxe that have reached Sait Lake, about 135 that have reached Sait Lake, about 135 in number, have been sold, and will soon be in the hands of the subscribers, the remaining 15, with which the edi-tion ends, being still unbound and with the publishers in the east. These may be ordered at the "News" book store, by those desiring to purchase them. The price is $25 a copy. In addition to these volumes, another 150 have been issued from the same press, to be known as the Author's Jublee Edition, and to be sold at $10 a copy. This is also a handsome book, the binding three-quarters morocco, TEMPLE NOTICES. The Salt Lake Temple will close on Wednesday evening, April 5, and ne-open on Tuesday morning, April 11. The St. George Temple will close on the evening of Friday, March 31, 1905, and reopen on Tuesday, April 11, 1905, at 9 a. m. copy. This is also a handsome book, the binding three-quarters morocco, paper of excellent quality, glit and deckel edge, the type and illustrations precisely the same as in the Edition de Luxe. A goodly number of the Jubi-lee Edition have already been disposed of by subscription, and the remainder, will be on sale at the "News" book store. There is also a still cheaper edi-tion, bound in cloth, which sells at $3 a copy. This is limited to an even 100 copies. The Manti Temple will close the evening of April

Sad Case of Destitution and Death in This City.

A sad case of destitution and death occurred at the L. D. S. hospital Sunday. Mrs. Alice Temple, daughter of Mrs. Alice C. Fischer of Seattle, died at the hospital from an operation for cancer, after having suffered for some months after having suffered for some months. Mrs. Temple lost two husbands by death, and was left a fortune, but she spent the same, and finally landed in this city with three little children. She did menial work wherever she could secure it, until forced to stop because of her disease, and attempted to go to the hospital in a street ear. But the poor woman fainted, and was afterward taken to the hospital in a carriage. She had destroyed all her letters, so that ascertaining her ante-cedents was no easy matter. A son was located at Pueblo, and he has come on to bury his mother.

A WARM GREETING.

That is What is Promised for New Mystic Shriners This Evening.

The El Kalah Temple of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in this city will make a pilgrimage over the local hypothetical burning sands this evening, at Masonic hall. Grand Potentate and Hieronymus Grandissimus J. M. Ma~riott will lead the hot foot stunt across the desert, and Mighty Recorder T. W. Pinkerton will bring up the rear with the water wagon. An interesting feat-ure of the event is to be an initiation. in which college freshman societies will be left far in the back ground. A fine assortment of rib rousters, cervical vertebrae brollers, sweat boxes, pitchforks, bolos, spiked cylinders, tubs of liquid air, bombs, executioners' axes, bass drums, Chinese gongs, cannon crackers, squirt guns, sky rockets, guillotines, coffins, and a wide and assorted variety of many and various instruments of torture and death, have been gathered and are ready for the proper and year torture and death, have been gathered and are ready for the proper and very formal ceremonies of initiation into the Elusinian and Delphic mysteries of the Noble Order of the Mystic Shrine, Grand Potentate Marriott will sit as Rhada-manthus on the throne of Plutonian judgment, and with every nod of his raven mane, the thumb screws will be tightened on the unfortunate poviliates tightened on the unfortunate novitiates until their shrieks threaten to bring in the entire city police force.

While all these gentlemen have been profoundly interested in the work, and have cheerfully done what lay in their power to bring it out, thus displaying a commendable pride in the achievement of a fellow citizen, it is upon Maj. Young and Mr. Culmer that the main burden has necessarily fallen. To all, however, as well as to the subscribers, whose public-spirited generosity has made it possible to publish the poem, the credit is due for its appearance at the present lime in a style and manner worthy of the great theme and the no-ble treatment it has received from the pen of the gifted author.
