

PROMOTION ON THE SHORT LINE.

Frank H. Plaisted Goes to Boise As District Freight Agent For Idaho.

BUTTE MAN COMES TO OGDEN.

A. B. Mosley Appointed Traveling Freight and Passenger Agent for the Junction City.

Announcement will be made from the office of General Traffic Manager T. M. Schumacher within the next few days of several changes in the traffic department of the Oregon Short Line. Among those decided upon and effect of this week will be the appointment of F. H. Plaisted as district freight and passenger agent for Idaho with headquarters at Boise. G. H. Curran, agent for the Union Pacific at Ogden, resigns and A. B. Mosley, traveling freight and passenger agent at Butte comes to Ogden with the same title, succeeding T. W. Collings, who was traveling passenger agent for the Union Pacific prior to the recent changes in the short line territory. No one will succeed Mr. Mosley at Butte. Mr. Cook remains in Ogden as heretofore.

The promotion of Mr. Plaisted from Salt Lake to Boise will be decidedly popular among the Idahoans who look upon Frank H. as being the same among freight men. For months past he has made Boise practically his headquarters consequently his promotion does not come as a great surprise. He will be greatly missed, however, in local railroad circles.

A. J. GREGORY INSANE.

Traveling Live Stock Agent Loses Mind Following Traveling.

A. J. Gregory, traveling livestock agent for the Denver & Rio Grande who was so brutally slapped by thugs in Denver last week, was brought in from Denver on No. 3 last night.

"Poor old Greg," as the railroad boys now call him, is a pitiable mental wreck from the effects of the beating he received. Denver surgeons going as far as to assert that he is hopelessly insane and will never recover. Upon his arrival here he was taken by H. H. Lawson to St. Mark's hospital where he is receiving the best of care in the hopes that his mind may be ultimately saved. His affliction is not of the violent order; he is simply imbecile at present. This is the second case within the past three weeks in the Salt Lake hospital where a man has lost his reason as the result of being beaten on the head.

HORSES FOR RUSSIA.

Harrison Roads Expecting to Handle Some Heavy Shipments to Coast.

Local livestock agents are taking considerable interest in the announcement that agents of the Japanese and Russian governments are at present on the coast for the purpose of purchasing military remounts for their respective armies.

While there are not too many horses at present in the state the prospects of extensive shipments from Idaho, Nevada and the Pacific slope are very good. The horses asked for are similar to those shipped out of here to New Orleans during the war.

WOOL SALES.

Two Big Consignments in Wyoming Change Hands at Very Good Prices.

Special Correspondence.

Casper, Wyo., May 15.—The wool clip of B. B. Brooks, weighing in excess of 10,000 pounds, the highest price that has yet been paid for central Wyoming wool. It was purchased by Hecht, Liebman & Co., who paid 14 1/2 cents per pound. Patrick Sullivan last week sold his clip of 11,000 pounds for 14 1/2 cents per pound.

THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE

Judge Henderson Tells Unity Club How We Bought from France.

Judge Henderson lectured last night in Unity hall before an appreciative audience on the history of the Louisiana purchase. In the course of his remarks, the judge described European conditions at the dawn of the last century as accountable for the sale to this government by France of the territory known as the Louisiana purchase. The direct causes were the necessity on the part of Americans to navigate the Mississippi river, and an attempt by Spain to exercise control over it. To avoid trouble on the frontier, President Jefferson authorized Charles Pickens, minister to Spain, to buy the Spanish claims for two million dollars. Presently it was learned that Spain had ceded to France the territory of Louisiana, and Commissioners Livingston and Monroe were sent to France to negotiate for the possession of the river.

An offer was made to the United States representatives on April 30, 1803, for the entire Louisiana strip for $8,000,000 francs, one-quarter to be deducted as the apportionment claim, which the government had recognized. After some hesitation, the bargain was closed, and the treaty was ratified by Congress Oct. 3, 1803. Judge Henderson explained that had it not been for this treaty, the United States would not have secured the great territory to the westward, included in the exploration of Lewis and Clark in 1805, the Astoria settlement of 1811, the Florida treaty of 1819, and annexation of Texas in 1845, the Mexican cession of 1848 and the Gadsden purchase of 1853. But for this treaty with France the chances are that England would have secured through conquest the country ceded by France, and the western boundary of the United States today, would be the Mississippi river. By the French treaty, the United States secured 828,000 square miles, and a population now of 1,000,000, and the acquisition of this great tract is the greatest event in the nation's history, with the exception of the Revolutionary war.

BEFORE JUDGE ROLAPP.

Several Burglars Plead Guilty and Will be Sentenced Wednesday.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Utah, May 16.—In the district court today Judge Rolapp considered the following cases:

Walter Bunney and J. G. Wilkinson pleaded guilty to burglarizing Richardson's second-hand store. They will be sentenced Wednesday.

Frank Smara pleaded guilty to burglarizing the Troy laundry. He also will be sentenced Wednesday.

William Miles entered a plea of not guilty to grand larceny, that of robbing an old man of $35. His hearing was set for June 1.

for June 1, as were also those of James St. Thomas, who needed not guilty to burglary, and William Moore and James Murphy, alias Hale and Morley, respectively, who pleaded not guilty to burglarizing Reiter's jewelry store.

This morning a man giving the name of S. C. Borgen entered the State bank and signed a check for $200 payable to George Washington. It was evident that the man was demented and he was turned over to the sheriff who had a hard time placing him in the padded cell.

John Lewis died 25 years, died last night at the family residence, 214 Pacific avenue, of cancer, with which he had been afflicted for one year. He leaves a wife and several children. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence.

THE HAM SHOW PARADE.

Members of the Cast Make a Spectacle Of Themselves Today.

"By the strap on Caesar's left hand, what is it?" murmured a boy horse in an excited manner as he stood on two legs and scattered the crowd. "Look out, here come the Hams," plainly said a big team while it backed a heavy van into a delivery wagon of the American Linen & Supply company and reduced the vehicle into kicking wood.

Every horse along the line of march was panic stricken when the Ham Show parade traversed the streets at high noon. Dick Whittemore's voice in the speaking stand alone was responsible for a dozen ineffectual runaways.

It was a grand parade. Thanks to Hold's hand and a number of automobiles kindly loaned by Col. Holmes, Messrs. Houston, Geo. H. Robinson, D. Jackling, Henry McCormick, Henry M. Crockett, Sam Seashouse, and the Utah Automobile company. The principals in the big Shakespearean production lolled luxuriously in the cushions of the red devil, while the famous Shakespearean actress Bess was the center of attraction and disdainfully ignored the hordes of envious carriages that swarmed around the Jackling stage.

First came Hold's hand in their bright new uniforms, then followed the patrol wagon loaded down with many members of the mob as could be crowded into that famous vehicle that never before has hauled such a distinguished and reputable aggregation of citizens. Immediately behind followed the big new hook and ladder truck, the autos bearing the principals, three wagon loads of scenery and the hot-pot in the rear.

In the order they marched and counter-marched through the business section, while the populace lined the routes and applauded or threw out choice epithets as the parade passed.

There was no need for a parade, as the horse was to all intents and purposes sold out this morning, but the public was entitled to the first two rows of the program. The sale for tonight's performance is one composed of members of the Billie club, 19 strong, which has engaged the first two rows of the program. The sale for tomorrow night also promises to be a heavy one.

LATE LOCALS.

Today's local bank clearings amounted to $614,196.38, as against $613,347.70 for the same day last year.

Two cases of smallpox were reported to the board of health today. They are Baby Archer, residing at 141 West Fourth North street, and Leila Baker, residing at 4 Pleasant avenue.

The board of regents of the state university has chosen W. W. Hiler as president in place of the late John S. Sharp. The vacancy created in the board will be filled by the governor.

A meeting is scheduled to be held tomorrow, in the office of the Utah state engineer, by state engineers from Colorado, Nebraska, North Dakota, Wyoming and Idaho. The meeting is called by the instance of the Wyoming state engineer for consultation on plans for arid lands reclamation.

The local bank clerks will meet next Thursday evening, in the clearing house rooms to listen to Atty. Waldemar Van Cott lecture on commercial law.

Quarters are being prepared at Fort Douglas for the reception of the Twenty-ninth Infantry on its arrival from the Philippines.

The funeral of Andrew Newcalk, the Finnish miner fatally injured at the Highland Boy mine, was held this afternoon, from Evans' undertaking parlors, at 10th and Main.

Health Commissioner Wilcox notified Sanitary Inspector W. C. Margetts on Saturday afternoon that his services were no longer needed in the department. Who will succeed Mr. Margetts has not yet become known, but successor will probably be sent to the county tonight for confirmation.

The Troy laundry and the Am Cita baseball teams met in battle array at Colgate's track, on the corner of 12th and Main, at 12 o'clock today. The battery consisted of Drew and Dunn for the Troy and O'Brien and Olsen for the Am Cita.

The state feature of the game was a home run by Leonard. The game was a 1-0 victory for the Troy.

Real estate men say that for the last three days, the local market has been exceptionally busy in small deals. At one location, J and Third streets, seven houses are going up within 20 rods of each other. Angus McKellar has started to build at the northeast corner of 12th and Main, a three-story building to cost $5,000, and a $5,000 dwelling is in process of erection close by there.

The policy of Utah wheat growers in refusing to part with their wheat at less than $1.25 a bushel has resulted in the ordering of 3,000 bushels of Oregon wheat, and which is now in transit. This wheat will cost the Salt Lake handlers from 84 cents to $1.02 per bushel, which they figure is something of an improvement over the price demanded by home growers.

There will be no Tabernacle organ recital tomorrow afternoon, and at date of writing, it is uncertain just when the recitals will be resumed.

Beginning at midnight, Saturday, the work of changing over the transmission lines of the Light & Railway company leading to the Ogden power house and the Bear River power house, was completed without any interruption of service, from 18,000 to 28,000 volts. This means a valuable improvement in the service, particularly from the Bear River station.

Colonel Henry Page has been notified at Spokane of the action of the postmaster general in authorizing the removal of the mail train to Ogden, the much desired appointment of cashier in his office, and the same will be made as soon as the colonel is heard from. Postmaster Thomas said this morning that the attention to one of the Sunday papers that he had thrown out M. H. Daugherty is untrue. It is the report of the inspectors that cost Daugherty his job.

Master A. S. Zimmerman of Held's band returned from St. Louis last night. He says Sousa's band is the only one drawing the crowds at the fair; and that Arthur Pryor's place in Sousa's trombone section has been filled by an eastern player named Zimmerman. The latter is just as good as Pryor for band work, but is not quite so fine for solo performance. The general condition of affairs at the great exposition is still incomplete, and is likely to continue so for some weeks yet. There is a delay in installing the big organ, so that organists are being used for performance, have been let out and will become superfluous.

GOV. BLANCHARD ON RACE QUESTION.

Says No Approach Toward Social Equality for Negro Will Be Tolerated in Louisiana.

TO BE NO COMMINGLING AT ALL.

Separate Schools, Separate Churches, Separate Cars, Separate Places Of Entertainment.

Baton Rouge, La., May 16.—In the presence of a multitude gathered in the grounds of the state capital today Newt C. Blanchard was inaugurated as governor.

In his inaugural address Gov. Blanchard said:

"The negro is here. He is a man and a citizen. He is useful and valuable within his sphere. Within that sphere he must be guaranteed the equal protection of the law and his education and proper lines—mainly agricultural and industrial—is at once a duty and a necessity. He must be protected in his right to labor and enjoy the fruits of his labor. He must be encouraged in industry and taught the habits of thrift.

"No approach toward social equality or social recognition will be ever tolerated in Louisiana. Separate schools, separate churches, separate cars, separate places of entertainment will be enforced. Racial distinction and integrity must be preserved. But there is room enough in this broad southland, with proper lines of limitation and demarcation, for the two races to live on terms of mutual trust, mutual help, good understanding and concord. The south asserts its ability to handle and solve the negro question on humanitarian lines—those of justice and of right. We brook no interference from without."

EFFORTS TO HAVE YATE WITHDRAW ARE UNAVAILING

Springfield, Ill., May 16.—Expectations were strong today that the gubernatorial deadlock in the Republican state convention would be broken this afternoon. The battle was an alleged combination between followers of Governor Yates and those of State Attorney Dineen.

The failure of the adherents of Frank O. Lowden to combine with the forces of Governor Yates was said to be mainly responsible for the expected turn in the situation. John S. Hapman, who went to Chicago to confer with a number of the political leaders back of Dineen, returned today, and it was said that as a result about 150 Dineen votes would be given to Yates on the first ballot. If, after a reasonable number of ballots, Yates should fail to gather enough strength to nominate him, he is expected to transfer his following to Dineen.

All efforts to induce Yates to withdraw in the interest of Lowden were today said to have failed. A story that last Saturday morning Hopkins, Speaker Cannon and Congressman Lorimer offered to make Gov. Yates minister to Mexico if the governor withdrew, and that Yates indignantly declined the offer, was one of the sensational rumors abroad. Today Gov. Yates and his followers were jubilant and said that all talk of the withdrawal of the governor was without foundation.

Shortly before the convention reconvened, Gov. Yates received the following message from Mrs. Richard Yates, Sr., at Jacksonville:

"Stand firm and be of good courage. (Signed) 'MOTHER'."

Soon after the convention was called to order the 26th ballot was taken. The list of names with their respective votes was as follows:

There was a burst of applause during the progress of the ballot when Adams county announced "20 votes for Yates last week, 20 for Lowden."

As the roll progressed it became evident that the expected break would not come on the first ballot taken today and the delegates settled back in their seats for another prolonged session.

The result of the 25th ballot was as follows: Yates, 439; Lowden, 467; Dineen, 581; Hamilton, 111; Warner, 39; Sherman, 60; Flores, 21.

RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR.

It Was Not Begun Because of Racial Prejudices.

Tokio, May 16.—(O. P. M.) In refutation of the claim that racial and religious prejudices inspired the Japanese to engage in the war with Russia, the Japanese government today held a joint meeting here at which addresses denying the charge were delivered by several leading Japanese ministers. A resolution was adopted declaring that the war was not connected with racial or religious questions but was being carried on to ensure the security of the empire of Japan and permanent peace in the far east. It was further asserted that this was distinctly in the interest of justice and the civilization of the world.

WISCONSIN DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Milwaukee, May 16.—The Democratic state convention will meet here tomorrow for the purpose of selecting four delegates at large to the national convention at St. Louis, also to ratify the selections in the congressional district caucuses, choose a national committee and name presidential electors. From the returns of the delegates throughout the state Edward G. Wall of Fong city, candidate for the presidential nomination, will undoubtedly win the convention over William Hart. The only other candidate who has been seeking the control of the state delegates according to estimates of the Wall managers, the candidate will have close to 50 of the delegates to the convention. The Wall supporters say this claim is preposterous, but says not given.
