PIRATES FAIL TO GET FIRST PLACE.

Lost to Cincinnati at a Most Critical Time.

BROOKLYNITES ARE SAFE.

Their Lead is Greatly Increased by Whitewashing the Quakers-Boston Takes Three Straight.

In the National league games yesterday the pirates lost at a most critical time. The day previous Brooklyn was first with a standing of 115 to Pittsburgh's 53. The latter had a chance yesterday to go up to the top but failed and Brooklyn still leads with several points to spare.

The Pirates' downfall was caused by Cincinnati's superior all around playing which seems strange in view of the fact that Pittsburgh has defeated Cincinnati with ease so many times. The Brooklynites increased their lead by winning a nice large goose egg to the visiting Quakers while they devoured twelve healthy runs. Burns upped the game and there were no batic exhibitions either. For the third time the Giants lost to the Beaneaters. New York would have won but Matthews was substituted for Seymour in the fifth and Boston bounded him unmercifully. Mercer tried to save the game in the eighth but as usual in such cases he was too late. The club stands as follows:

	P. W.	L.	P.C.
Brooklyn	115	74	51
Pittsburgh	115	73	53
Philadelphia	124	66	48
Boston	125	64	51
Cincinnati	126	59	67
Chicago	127	57	69
St. Louis	128	57	69
New York	128	57	69
Cincinnati	128	63	73
Brooklyn	128	63	73
