

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

A business card has just been found at this office in tints and brown. It is a handsome specimen of the printer's art.

The Utah Central train from the south was an hour and a half late last night, on account of the engine getting out of repair.

Miss Carrie Almond, in company with J. E. Fisher, Esq., returned on Saturday, after a pleasant sojourn of four months in St. Louis.

The friends of Brother and Sister Paul A. Schaefer will deeply sympathize with them on the death of their only son, who expired yesterday.

Brother David Candland came down from Blackfoot to-day, where he has been on a visit to some of his children. He goes south on Wednesday.

Mrs. Bates, the actress, is the possessor of a fine gold watch and chain presented her by President Brigham Young, on the occasion of her farewell appearance here several years ago.

Brother August Wilken has concluded to continue his two Spanish classes in one this month, and will organize a new class immediately after the General Conference. A good chance to learn Spanish.

The famous Red Pocket Book at the theatre last night, the cast is an excellent one, embracing the names of Mr. F. M. Bates, Miss Hinchley, Messrs. Taylor, Maiben, Whitney, Barrett and others.

Today, a couple of men at the Idaho store, got into an altercation over the merits of Murphy, who was lately lynched at Park City. One said he was a gentleman, and the other applied a vile epithet to him, whereat the two engaged in a rough and tumble fight.

Returned.—Presidents John Taylor and George Q. Cannon and party returned from Provo last evening.

The Last Company.—The last company of this season's emigration of the Saints from Europe, will sail from Liverpool on Oct. 27th, on the N. H. Wisconsin.

General Seventies Meeting.—The Seventies will please take notice that their regular meeting will be held at the Social Hall, on Wednesday next, the 6th instant, at 7:30 p. m.

On behalf of the First Presidents of Seventies.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 3, 1902.

In Logan.—We observe by Saturday's Utah Journal that Bishop O. F. Whitney delivered an elaborate and interesting address to the congregation in the Logan Tabernacle a week ago yesterday. We are indebted to him for information concerning various incidents which recently occurred in that city, the relation of which appears in our columns to-day.

Col. Viasher's Lecture.—This gentleman will deliver his lecture "Sixty Minutes in the War," at the Opera House to-morrow evening. The Nebraska State Journal said of it:

"The speaker detailed incident and anecdote with a touch of an artist, eliciting peals of laughter, while here and there interweaving a thread of pathos or poetry that stirred the tenderest emotions. All his listeners were in his thrall, and the Colonel's pleasing talk."

Fatal Accident at Sanpete.—At Marti, on Saturday afternoon as Mrs. N. P. Madson was near the titling office with her little girl, aged about 6 years, a wagon belonging to O. P. Peterson loaded with grain came along and the driver not seeing the little girl, the horses knocked her down and both wheels of the wagon passed over the back of her head. She was taken into the drug store, but died about an hour and a half afterward.

A Fatal Kick.—On Friday evening one of the oxen used for hauling materials on the Temple Block was somewhat drowsy and Brother Frederick Nier, of the 9th Ward, started him with a stick to make him go. The brute made a furious kick at him, striking him on the pit of the stomach. The unfortunate man suffered intense agony from the injury until yesterday morning, when death came to his relief. The deceased was 59 years old, and was a native of Carlsruhe, Germany. The funeral services were to be conducted at the 9th Ward Meeting-house at 4 p. m. to-day.

An Appropriate Gift.—The Deacons of the 15th Ward purchased a handsome set of Church books, consisting of Book of Mormon, Doctrine and Covenants, Key to Theology, Spencer's Letters, Voice of Warning and Hymn Book, all in uniform binding; also a fine, large and elegant Bible, which they quickly placed on the stand of the ward meeting house. Last evening Counselor W. L. Blander, in behalf of the Bishopric and ward, gratefully thanked the donors for their appropriate gift. Bishop Pollard could not refrain from adding a few words of thanks in his original and characteristic style, which to be appreciated should be here reported in full, and we regret the News had no short-hand reporter present.

Releases and Appointments.—President Joseph A. West, of the London Conference, is released to return to his home, the delicate condition of his health rendering it unsafe for him to spend another autumn in this land.

Elder Epizah E. Nye is appointed to succeed Elder Nye as the Presidency of the London Conference.

Elder Hyrum Downup, of the Sheffield Conference, John Jenkins, of the Welch Conference, and John Bluffs, of the Manchester Conference, are released, on account of failing health, to return to their homes with the August 29th company.

Elder W. R. Kingford is also released from his labors in this land, at his own request, to return with the August 29th company.—Advised Star, Aug. 15th.

CIVILIZATION IN LOGAN.

BURGLARY ON THURSDAY AND DEPRIVATION ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY ON FRIDAY.

Logan is already beginning to feel the "civilizing" influence of the licensed liquor saloons, four of which, thanks to the United States Courts, now flourish in that hitherto temperate burg, while others are hourly expected. Apropos of said influence, on Friday night, about 8 o'clock, a man who was a stranger in town entered the store of Goodwin Bros., and commenced negotiating for a suit of underclothes. Having selected what he pretended to desire, he asked and received permission to step into the back office, where the safe was kept, to try on the clothes. There were in the store at the time three men, Mr. Wm. Goodwin, his son Charles, and a Mr. Paine, of the firm of Paine & Mattison. The stranger had no more than disappeared into the back room, than he returned with a pistol in each hand, with which he covered Mr. Paine and the junior Goodwin, at the same time commanding them to go into the back room. Mr. Wm. Goodwin having no weapon leveled at him, sprang to the back door, ran out, notwithstanding the threat of the would-be robber to shoot if he did so, and shouted for the police. The stranger, whose evident intention was to rob the safe, thereupon became frightened and hastily decamped by way of the front door, and though hotly pursued a few moments later he succeeded in making good his escape.

On Thursday night the greengrocer shop of Ballif & Co. was burglarized, but the thieves only found two or three dollars in the till, and so solaced themselves by partaking generously of canned fruit and other articles on the shelves.

The pride and gratitude which swell the bosoms of the law-abiding Loganites at these commendable achievements in the direction of civilization and progress, is such as to render words totally inadequate to their expression.

Logan Lines.—J. H. Martineau, Esq., a highly respected citizen of Logan, arrived home from several months' absence in Arizona, Saturday. He intends returning south and making our neighbor Territory his permanent home.

Apostle Moses Thatcher and President Wm. B. Preston are expected home on Tuesday next. Their party returned from the Yellowstone several days since, but they themselves halted at the Temple mills, Logan Canon, for a short season of rest from their journey. Members of their families went to meet them and share in the jubilation.

Ben. E. Rich, Esq., of Ogden is in Logan, en route for Wood River and the region north. He represents the flourishing firm of L. Parr & Sons, proprietors of the Weber County Woolen Mills. "Ben" is a general favorite and ought to do well in the north country.

The Snake River fever is spreading in Cache Valley. Numbers have gone and others are going with the intention of settling in that (from all reports) delightful region.

A Token of Esteem.—A pleasant affair transpired at the establishment of Mr. H. Dinwoodey, on Saturday evening. The employees assembled in the new workshop, where tables were loaded with good things. Mr. Dinwoodey appeared upon the scene conducting Mr. H. P. Folsom. Mr. E. Hanham, in behalf of the entire staff of employees presented Mr. Folsom with a handsome and massive gold watch, purchased for the purpose, from Mr. Ellsion. The presentation was occasioned by the fact of Mr. Folsom severing his connection with the establishment to engage in other pursuits, after having been Mr. Dinwoodey's bookkeeper and "right hand man," for a period of twelve years. The workmen took this method of evincing their esteem for and confidence in him. He briefly expressed his appreciation of the good feeling thus manifested to him, and a few appropriate remarks were made by Mr. Dinwoodey. A couple of hours were pleasantly spent in discussing the good things on the tables and in genuine sociability.

The affair was conducted by Messrs. A. Isom, Child, Triplett and others.

Tabernacle Services.—The congregation was addressed yesterday afternoon by Elder T. B. Lewis. He said that while religious people of the world generally professed to believe in God and what He did anciently, they refused to accept of the same conditions and principles as applied to the present time. This they evinced by their rejection of the doctrine of immediate revelation and the Church as organized with Apostles, Prophets and other inspired officers. He spoke of the work done by reformers who were good and useful men, but claimed no direct heavenly authority. With Joseph Smith it was different, he having been raised up and commissioned by divine authority to set up the true Church of Christ, with all its powers and gifts. The speaker dwelt for some time upon the Almighty being a God of revelation, and the comprehensive saving power of the Gospel, which extended to the living and the dead. All who obeyed His doctrines were promised a knowledge of His truth. The concluding portion of the discourse was devoted to showing the practical requirements of the Gospel and the fruits of obedience to its divine laws.

The "Red Pocket-Book."—The arrangement to put the "Red Pocket-Book" upon the boards of the Salt Lake Theatre is entirely between Miss Hinchley and our enterprising Home Dramatic Club, the management not being a party in the matter, further than renting the theatre to the parties who put the play upon the boards. Doubtless many will wish to see the Home Club in this dramatic novelty, and encourage their enterprise with their presence.

Left for the South.—This afternoon Hon. L. John Nuttall left the city for a trip through Southern Utah, in his capacity of Territorial Superintendent of District schools. He will go as far as St. George and thence around through the Kanab County. We wish him a prosperous and successful tour.

Nephi Excursion.—The Tenth Ward Brass Band excursion to Nephi will leave at 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Tickets are good for three days. By paying half the regular fare extra the time can be extended seven days more, or ten in all. Tickets are selling rapidly, and those who intend going should obtain them without delay.

The Stove Trade.—An impression has obtained to some extent that Messrs. W. Jennings & Sons had gone out of the retail business in stoves, ranges, etc. This is a mistake; the only difference that has occurred in this line is that class of goods is sold at wholesale prices to all purchasers. Several car loads have lately been received. For a statement as to the varieties, see advt.

An Unsavory Case.—This morning a couple of women who live in the notorious Benites building, were before Justice Spiers charged with stealing $20 from Patrick McCormick, who was the complaining witness. This statement was to the effect that he entered the bedroom of one of the women, and while he was engaged with her the other one took the money. The allegation was stoutly denied by the other side, and as Paddy's evidence was entirely unsupported the Justice discharged the accused and decided that he should pay the costs. He made a speech, and is evidently an "excellent man," for he said so himself. He is a regenerator of the first water.

JOSEPH E. TAYLOR, City Sexton.

Rumors About the Late Murders.—The theory that Joseph Samuels, the colored man who murdered Marshal Burt, was the person who murdered Marshal Mat. Brennan at Park City, has a reasonable appearance on its face. Report has it that Murphy, who was lynched a week ago last Saturday, stated to the vigilantes that he did not kill Brennan, but gave a "nigger" two hundred dollars to do it. This agrees with the fact of Samuels going north from this city a few days before the murder of Brennan, and of his returning to this city on the morning of the day he murdered Marshal Burt. It also corresponds with the fact of his pretending to have no money on the day he arrived in town from the north, notwithstanding that $165.00 was on his person at the time of his arrest. The amount he paid for the rifle and cartridges, his fare from the Park and a few incidental expenses would just about reach the sum said to have been paid him for killing Brennan. Mr. Carter, from whom Samuels bought the gun with which he killed Marshal Burt, intimated in his evidence before the coroner's jury that he believed the negro had committed a robbery and thus obtained the money he had, and thought he was being arrested for that crime when he shot the Marshal. If there is any truth in his connection with the Park City murder then he doubtless believed the officers were after him for that deed. It would be interesting to trace this matter and ascertain its truth or falsity. If correct it was the accessory before the fact or instigator who was lynched at the Park, and the double murderer who met a similar fate here. If Samuels did both deeds it may constitute a new impetus to his champions in this city.
