

Itself the slightest in Manchuria, but that it positively defies the entire undertaking and ardently desires the railroad to be disposed of, if possible.

M. Souvorin, publisher of the Novos Vremya, who formerly advocated a return to the neglected tasks in the near and middle east undertakes in a signed article, to prove that the distance of Manchuria does not argue against the possibility of holding and developing in its vastness the distant possessions of other powers.

What success will attend his campaign of education remains to be seen. It is acknowledged, however, that 99 per cent of the public think the circumstances have led Russia too far afield.

Another method of arousing public sentiment has been employed by some newspapers, notably the far east. They have begun calling the Japanese "the Jews of the Orient." Moreover, the whole press in chorus, at Vladivostok and in Manchuria, is daily emphasizing the existence of the "yellow danger." But this seems designed to cause Europe to pause and reflect, rather than in inflaming the racial feelings of the Russians.

It is pointed out here that the stability of the Russian state hangs throughout the crisis cannot be accepted as a trustworthy index of the business world, since it is well known that the government negotiates on the basis of preventing fluctuations of its loans. The house, otherwise has been weak. Many stocks have fallen considerably.

KOMURO'S NOTE TO BARON DE ROSEN.

Tokio, Jan. 11.—The note delivered by Foreign Minister Komuro to Baron de Rosen, the Russian minister, is merely preliminary to Japan's formal response, which has not yet been delivered.

The questions at issue were discussed at today's conference of the cabinet and elder statesmen, and a final decision is expected tomorrow. When this has been reached the conference will appear before the throne and submit the answer signed by the emperor. If this has been done, the final proposals of Japan will be handed to Baron de Rosen.

IROQUOIS THEATER.

Coroner Traeger Says He Is Determined to Fix the Guilt.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—"We are now ready to make a searching investigation to find out just who was responsible for the Iroquois fire. We will spare no one, for we are determined to fix the guilt."

With this statement, Coroner Traeger began the second week of the Iroquois theater fire inquiry today. For a few days the coroner will be forced to put the general public on the stand, when he gets through with it he intends to start one of the closest inquiries into the workings of the building, police, fire and electrical departments of the city that they have ever known.

After an investigation of 10 days Attorney Fulkerson, of the fire department, has practically established all the points necessary to make his report on the causes of the disaster. These, Traeger, "tend to show there was wilful neglect of the safety of the patrons of the house."

Machen Et Al Put on Trial.

Washington, Jan. 11.—August W. Machen, Diller B. Groff, Samuel A. Groff, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. and Mrs. George E. Lorenz of Toledo, Ohio, indicted in connection with the postoffice investigation, were placed on trial today in criminal court No. 1, Justice Pritchard presiding. All the defendants were present but the attendance of spectators was small. The defendants were arraigned on an indictment charging conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the sale of letterbox fasteners and after formal denunciations to the indictment were entered and overruled they pleaded not guilty. The work of securing a jury was then begun.

A subpoena had been issued for Geo. W. Beavers, who is wanted as a witness for the government in connection with the trial of this case.

After an hour spent in selecting a jury, the panel was called and the court adjourned until tomorrow. Eleven jurors have been elected.

Umbria Had a Rough Voyage.

New York, Jan. 11.—The steamer Umbria arrived today from Liverpool and Queenstown, showing the effects of her encounter with the westerly gales and heavy seas. The forward bulkhead under the bridge was stove in and had been repaired with canvas and battens. The steamer had violent gales and very heavy head seas throughout the passage. The greatest force of the gale was on January 6 and 7. Among the passengers was Melton Prior, artist, of the London Illustrated News, who is on his way to Japan.

Japan Buys Krupp Howitzers.

Berlin, Jan. 11.—A commission composed of six Japanese officers, is according to a special dispatch from Meppen, Hanover, testifying that the howitzers on the Krupp company's grounds here. One hundred of these howitzers, it is added, have been bought by Japan for immediate delivery.

More Iroquois Fire Victims.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Today another person injured in the Iroquois theater fire died. Mrs. A. C. Widfall. The body of Leroy Greenwald was identified by his father today. The body had been previously identified and claimed as that of Norman Corbin. Having heard the testimony of the seven chorus men and eight chorus girls of the "Mr. Bluebeard" company, with regard to the Iroquois fire, Assistant State's Atty. Barnes took a non-suit in the cases against them today. They had been held on technical charges to insure their appearance at the inquest.

Ten men connected with the theater were arraigned before Justice Caverly and their cases continued until Jan. 21. Justice Caverly said that those who are being held to testify at the inquest would be released immediately after such testimony was given.

A diamond ring, valued at $25, is the first important find in the "placard mine" operated in the debris of the Iroquois theater fire.

Revolution is Still On.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Commander Merz, commanding the gunboat Newport, cables the navy department from San Domingo, under date of yesterday, as follows:

"Revolution continues. Nothing menacing Americans. Legation guard withdrawn today."

EX-GOV. J. Y. BROWN DEAD.

He Became Widely Known for His Denunciation of Gen. Butler.

Henderson, Ky., Jan. 11.—Former Gov. John Young Brown died today. He was prominent as a statesman and soldier. In 1875, when congressman, he became widely known through a denunciation of Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, who as military governor of New Orleans, was distasteful to the southern people. For this speech Gov. Brown received a vote of censure. He was the first man to take a stand against the merger of competing railroads.

Funeral of Gen. J. B. Gordon.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 11.—Funeral exercises, which will be participated in by distinguished men of the south, will be held here over the remains of Gen. John B. Gordon on next Thursday in the house of representatives, to which the body will be escorted by state militia.

The body will be escorted to the Georgia state line on Tuesday morning by the Florida militia. Gov. Terrell issued a proclamation today ordering that the day of the funeral be observed throughout Georgia.

KRATZ IN ST. LOUIS.

Was Brought Back from Mexico to Stand Trial for Bribery.

St. Louis, Jan. 11.—Charles Kratz, former member of the city council, indicted on a charge of bribery, who jumped a bond of $20,000 in March 1902 and went to Mexico, returned to St. Louis today in charge of Chief of Detectives William Desmond and Sheriff Dickmann. It is alleged that Kratz held one or two keys to a safe deposit vault where it is said $50,000 has been deposited by the Suburban Street Railway company for alleged distribution among the combine members of the council to secure the passage of a bill granting the company the right to extend its tracks.

TREATY WITH CHINA.

Only Certain Portions Become Effective on Exchange of Ratification.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Only that portion of the Chinese treaty which relates to the opening of the new ports at Mukden and An Tung and which in general terms for privileges of American shipping will become effective upon the exchange of ratifications of the treaty which will take place within six weeks. There is a possibility that the Chinese government will authorize its minister here, Sir Chen Tung Chang, by cable to effect an earlier exchange, but Mr. Conger has not made this request.

The other features of the treaty, abolishing the likin taxes and increasing the average customs duties on goods coming from the United States into China will not become effective until similar treaties containing similar provisions have been concluded between China and the other powers signatory to the treaty of Peking. Beside the United States, England, Japan have so far negotiated such treaties leaving Germany, France, Italy, Austria and Belgium to effect like arrangements before the new duties will go into effect.

WHITAKER WRIGHT'S TRIAL.

Thinner and Greyer Than When He Last Appeared in Court.

London, Jan. 11.—The trial of Whitaker Wright, the company promoter, on the charge of making and circulating false statements of accounts while director of the London & Globe corporation, commenced today in the king's bench division of the high court of justice before Justice Bigham and a special jury. The court was crowded. The defendant arrived early. He was thinner and greyer than when he last appeared in court and had trimmed his side whiskers. His hair was almost white, thus altering his appearance considerably. The trial is expected to last a week longer if Wright goes into the witness box.

COL. MYRON T. HERRICK INAUGURATED AS GOVERNOR.

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—The inauguration of Col. Myron T. Herrick as governor of Ohio today was witnessed by an unusual number of people. Shortly before noon Gov. Nash and the joint legislative committee with troops and a band, which the new governor was formerly a member, escorted Col. Herrick to the capitol, where he took the oath of office.

After being congratulated by ex-Gov. Nash and the chief justice, Gov. Herrick delivered his inaugural address to a large assemblage. He recommended the enactment of a state depository law in order that the business and industry of the world need not be deprived of the use of the large amount of money at times in the state treasury and that the state may have the benefit of the interest which, under proper care and safeguards, it might use and enjoy.

The governor said in part:

"The constitutional amendment doing away with the double liability of stockholders of various corporations given to the state of Ohio affords an opportunity to revise and codify its laws with reference to the organization and control of corporations so that our citizens will be relieved from the burden of a system of laws which is antiquated and cumbersome and which is so simple and comprehensive as possible, protecting alike all of our citizens, or those doing business within our state who seek to invest their money in our corporate enterprises, and at the same time safeguarding the public in their dealings with such corporations."

Under the provisions of the national banking law, frequent examinations are made by competent examiners of the conditions and soundness of the banks established under the laws of the United States.

These examinations after a trial of 40 years seem to amply justify the supervision over banking institutions."

Gov. Herrick recommended a revision of the laws governing primaries and elections and the codifying of all statutes in connection therewith.

At the conclusion of the address Gov. Herrick, accompanied by ex-Gov. Nash and the state officials, took his place in the inaugural parade. There were fully 15,000 men in line.

RABBITS FROM IDAHO.

A Carload Sent Here for Distribution Among the Poor.

A carload of rabbits, intended for the poor of this city, was yesterday received at the Short Line depot from some unknown but goodhearted nimrods of Idaho. The bunnies were immediately turned over to Staff-Captain Wood of the Salvation army, who saw to their distribution among the needy this morning and afternoon.

ERUPTIONS

Dry, moist, scaly, tetter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous.

The thing to do is to take

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Which thoroughly cleanse the blood, expelling all humors and building up the whole system. They cure

Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured J. G. Hines, Franks, Ill., of eczema, from which he had suffered for some time; and Miss Alvina Walter, Box 212, Algona, Wis., of pimples on her face and back and chafed skin on her body, by which she had been greatly troubled. There are more testimonials in favor of Hood's than can be published.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

CONVENTION OF WOOL GROWERS.

Called to Order in Portland, Attendance From All Parts of the Country, Being Large.

PRESIDENT WARREN'S ADDRESS

Interests of Wool Growers and Wool Manufacturers Mutual—Protective Tariff Will Not Be Disturbed.

Portland, Or., Jan. 11.—The convention of the National Wool Growers' association was called to order in the Baker theater this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The theater was filled with sheepmen from the western states and with representatives of allied interests from various parts of the country. Among those in attendance were two of President Roosevelt's commissioners to investigate the public land question, which will be one of the important matters presented for consideration by the wool growers.

United States Senator Warren of Wyoming, president of the Wool Growers' association, presided at the opening session, and the business of the convention was inaugurated with the reading of its annual address.

SENATOR WARREN'S ADDRESS.

"The changes since 1865 in the wool growing industry have brought about new problems. Among them is the adaptation of the industry to the public land laws with a view of fostering to the greatest degree the most important industry affected."

"In forest reservation matters there has been friction, and the patience of stockmasters has been sorely tried. But there is a prospect of forestry matters being consolidated in the department of agriculture and for a satisfactory adjustment of many of the troubles which have heretofore attended forestry administration."

"The interests of the wool growers and wool manufacturers are in the main mutual. There is very little that the two can or should differ about, and a great deal upon which both should agree. In the matter of protection by means of tariff for both there should be no differences. In the legislation last made upon the subject and in considering dangers by way of legislation or through treaties offered since, both associations have been a unit. In the matter of range differences there is nothing needed by the wool growers that should be prohibited by the wool manufacturers."

"One matter in which there is an apparent difference of opinion is in the prevention of alleged fraudulent sales of woolen goods. The wool manufacturers while not taking open issue are yet known to be fearful that the proposed 'shoddy bill' might limit hardships and perhaps impossibilities upon the manufacturers without, as they think, reaching the desired remedy."

"We are reasonably certain that the present protective tariff legislation will not be disturbed and therefore we apprehend no violent or sudden change in industry. With comparative freedom from apprehension on this score, we have time and inclination to seek better methods of preparing the wool for market, and more satisfactory methods of marketing—in fact, we enter the year 1904 in condition and with sentiment to improve and build up and make permanently prosperous this great industry."

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

In the absence of Secy. Mortimer Levering the report of that official was read by Asst. Secy. Fred P. Johnson. The report dealt principally with the efforts to reorganize the association under a revised constitution.

Attention was called to the fact that the amendment, permitting organizations of sheepmen to membership in the Wool Growers' association. The suggestion was made by the secretary that the change in the constitution be ratified.

The crowded condition of public lands and the encroachment upon ranges by government forest reserves, was referred to. The report stated that this condition had resulted in the past year in a large number of sheep raisers being forced to go out of business.

The secretary noted with pleasure that the government is beginning to take note of the western sheep and cattle ranges relative to their condition and proposes to take steps towards a better management of the public lands with the proposed change in method of handling wool so that the producer may be enabled to deal directly with the manufacturer.

The report of expenses of the secretary's department showed a deficit of a little more than $500 owing to delays in collecting dues.

The adoption of a well defined policy to the effect that the secretary was urged as necessary to ensure the success of the organization.

JOSEPH NICHOLSON DEAD.

Well Known Young Man Passes Away After a Prolonged Illness.

Joseph Nicholson, son of John and Miranda C. Nicholson, died at 6:30 this morning after a prolonged illness at the family residence, 252 West North Temple street.

Mr. Nicholson was known to a great host of Salt Lake and without exception he numbered his acquaintances as friends, chiefly for his kindly disposition. He was an expert printer, a man of artistic temperament, and it was often said that in the matter of composing novelties in advertising he was unequalled.

"Joe," as he was familiarly known, was the brother of Helen, now a young man whose career was cut short some years ago as the result of an accident on the foot-ball field. He was a great reader and scholar to a degree. The funeral will be held at the residence, the time to be announced later.

REMINISCENCES OF LINCOLN.

Judge Charles S. Zane last night delivered a lecture in Unity hall on "Personal Reminiscences of Lincoln," on which occasion the hall was well filled. The speaker recalled many incidents of Lincoln's life which had come under his personal observation, they having been fast friends, and paid glowing tribute to the martyred president, whose life, he said, would continue to be an inspiration to his countrymen. During the evening music was given by Miss Irma Watson, pianist, and Miss Emily Larsen, soprano soloist.

FOUR HURT ON RUNAWAY TRAIN.

Copper Belt Engine and Seven Cars Plunge Into Bingham With Disastrous Results.

ALL JUMPED EXCEPT ONE MAN.

Three of the Crew Were Brought Into Salt Lake for Surgical Attendance Last Night.

Three men who jumped from a runaway train on the Copper Belt Railway at Bingham yesterday morning are lying at Keogh-Wright hospital. Another was injured, but he was not brought into Salt Lake City. The names of the men hurt in the wreck are John Murray, sprained ankle, bruised leg and scalp wounds; Henry Koolman, fractured ankle and bruises; Mike Mathews, injury to back. These three are in the hospital, while Engineer Parley Jones is suffering from scalp wounds.

The accident happened yesterday morning at 11:30 as a train, consisting of an engine and seven cars, was coming down from the Yampa and Bostor Co. mines with ore for the smelters. The engine left the track and five of the cars piled up on the bank. The scene of the wreck was at the rear of the Opera House hall, Bingham.

Just what was the cause of the wreck remains to be settled at the investigation today. It is usual for the trains to stop prior to coming to the bridge near the main line. Yesterday, however, no stop was made and at this point the engine and the first two cars of the train were thrown off the track. The cars ran at increasing speed for a distance of 500 feet and then piled up on the bank.

The engine left the track and plowed along for a distance of about 500 feet ere it came to a standstill. Fortunately the steam dome went by the board. The accident, which was a serious one, stayed with the train until it piled up. That he was not killed was a miracle.

Those who participated in the ride and jumped were Engineer Parley Jones, Fireman Jones, Brakeman Tibble, Conductor L. B. Jenkins and a man named Woods. All of them today say that they would not go through the experience again for anything.

The accident has had the effect of tying up the ore supply from the Bostor Co. (200 tons daily) Yampa, (250 tons), Utah Copper, Ohio Copper and the Bingham Consolidated's commercial mines, temporarily as there was but one engine operating until the arrival of another, which has been ordered.

The Copper Belt Road is one of the engineering feats of the west and is the possession of an aggregation of grades and curves calculated to make a train crew turn gray in a single day. Yesterday's accident was the first wreck in the life of the road.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Grand tonight the farce comedy of "Maloney's Wedding" opens an engagement of three nights and a Wednesday matinee.

Hold's band had a successful concert at the Grand, the program being endorsed by Mr. Held for his selection, and Mr. Kent for his always excellent rendition of "The Lost Chord." The band did some of its best work in "The Pilgrims' Song of Hope."

BIG BUSINESS DEAL.

Former New Yorker Buys Part of Constitution Building.

William T. Baker, formerly of New York City, but at present residing in this city, has bought 33 feet front of the Constitution building, on East Temple street, the section whose front store apartments are at present occupied by the Van Sant & Chamberlain Piano company, and the millinery store adjoining. The price paid was $50,000, and the new owner will expend $15,000 in making improvements and remodeling. The purchase gave Mr. Baker an interest in the management of the elevator.

A prominent local investment and banking firm will occupy the ground floor which will be handsomely fitted up with all of the latest styles of banking room fixtures and furnishings, and a strong vault is to be put in. Moreover, it is interesting to note that the diminutive main entrance which has attracted unfavorable comment in the past, is to be rebuilt on a much enlarged scale. This will greatly add to the appearance of the structure, it is intimated that the above transfer will eventually result in a general overhauling and remodeling of the entire Constitution building.

PUBLIC BIRTH RATE.

Twelve Year Volume is Completed By Clerk Horace Smith.

Clerk Horace H. Smith of the board of health has closed up the old birth record which has been in use in the health office since 1891, and has opened a new one. The old record contains the reports of 15,24 births, which have occurred in this city since the year above named. The average number of births per year reported during the 11 years is 1,174, which is about 58 per month. The new record will date from Jan. 1, 1904.

DOWN WITH SMALLPOX.

Three Cases of the Loathsome Disease In One Family—All Ailments.

Three cases of smallpox in one family were reported to the board of health today. Those afflicted with the disease are Clara, Roy and Elmond McDonald, ages 13 and 8 years and 15 months, respectively, children of J. A. McDonald, residing at 564 West Third South.

Other cases of contagious disease reported today are: Nina Wood, aged nine years, residing at 421 East Sixth South; Chikangany, Esther Moke, aged 10, 594 West First South; diphtheria, Lillian Duncombe, aged 15, 128 West Third South; scarlet fever.

A PROXY PLEA OF NOT GUILTY.

Judge Morse Orders it in Case of Frank Rose Who Killed His Wife.

TRIAL WILL BEGIN FEB. 8.

Plans of Other Prisoners in Criminal Division of District Court—Setting of Cases.

Acting upon the advice of his attorneys, Frank Rose, the confessed wife murderer, this morning refused to enter a plea to the information charging him with murder in the first degree, whereupon Judge Morse ordered the clerk of the court to enter a plea of not guilty in Rose's behalf. Rose was brought in court handcuffed to Thomas R. Fuller, charged with rape, and appeared as cool and indifferent as usual. When, at the request of District Attorney Elchnor, his case was called, Rose advanced toward the judge's bench.

"Mr. Rose, you have listened to the information charging you with murder in the first degree, what plea do you desire to enter to that charge?" asked Judge Morse.

"I have no plea to make," replied the man in such a quick manner that the court was unable to understand him.

"Sir?" inquired the court.

"I don't want to make any plea," was the more audible response of Mr. Rose.

"Mr. Clerk, you may enter a plea of not guilty," the charge, as defendant refused to plead, "was the order of the court."

Rose resumed his seat, but before he was taken from the courtroom his case was set for trial on Tuesday, Feb. 8. One of his attorneys, Soren X. Christensen, was present in court but Atty. Straup, who is associated in the defense of the man, was not present.

OTHER CRIMINAL CASES.

Thomas R. Fuller entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of rape. Judge Morse stated that he would appoint an attorney to defend Fuller this afternoon.

Thomas Burns pleaded guilty to burglarizing the saloon at 50 West First South street and was sentenced to one year in the state prison.

A plea of not guilty to the charge of housebreaking was entered by Bud Holman, a negro. Holman wanted to plead guilty to a lesser offense but Dist. Atty. Elchnor refused to reduce the charge or accept any such plea.

H. W. Engler pleaded not guilty to the charges of forgery and uttering a forged instrument. He was represented by Atty. Will F. Wanless.

The time for entering a plea in the case of the state vs Arthur Brown was continued for one week. The case is upon motion of Dist. Atty. Elchnor. Judge Morse made the following setting of criminal cases:

MONDAY, JAN. 18.

State vs Tom O'Donnell, burglary.

TUESDAY, JAN. 19.

State vs Bud Holman, housebreaking.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 20.

State vs H. W. Engler, forgery and uttering a forged instrument.

MONDAY, JAN. 25.

State vs Thomas R. Fuller, rape.

TUESDAY, FEB. 2.

State vs Frank Rose, murder in the first degree.

PETITION TO CARNEGIE.

Salt Lake Ask That Philanthropist Remember Rural Districts.

The following petition is being circulated and extensively signed in this city: Mr. Andrew Carnegie, New York City, N. Y.: Appreciating the great work that you have done and are doing for the cities of the United States, we most earnestly ask that you take steps, at your earliest convenience, to inaugurate the crying need of more than 50,000 people who live in rural districts and small towns beyond the reach of city libraries. From these country communities have come most of the great men of our nation; the young people who live in such communities appreciate fully what is done for them. They have time to read and build into their minds the contents of good books that are placed in their hands. We, the undersigned, believe that the results of an investigation along this line by you will demonstrate that, in this field the maximum return may be reasonably expected from a minimum investment.

AS TEMPORARY MEMBERS.

Changes Made in the By-Laws of The Commercial Club.

The following changes were made at the Saturday night meeting of the Commercial club relative to membership: Officers of the army and navy of every nation, officers of the coast geodetic surveys of the United States and members of any scientific corps engaged in the service of any government, not permanent residents of Utah, may, after having been duly proposed and seconded be elected as temporary members during the pleasure of the board of governors. Such temporary members shall pay the regular non resident dues, and shall be entitled to all the privileges of membership, excepting the right to be elected to the board of governors and voting, and proposing or seconding any candidate for membership.

REAVIS METHODS STAND TEST OF INSPECTION.

Find His Claims Proven Beyond Doubt.

Conducts a Reliable and Safe Home-Building Business.

In order that the readers of the Deseret News may be apprised of the business methods of J. Donnan Reavis, who conducts the largest home building business in Salt Lake City, an investigation has been made with the following results: It has been found that the claims of Mr. Reavis, that he is conducting the largest building business, are proven beyond reasonable doubt, and that he is now constructing over 30 homes. The word
