Let Consequently not more than seven weeks remain for the accomplishment of this essential preliminary to the obtaining of a perfect title, and many claims are yet unfiled. It will not be very prudent to leave this business until the last moment, but many persons seem to be so doing, unless indeed they do not think anything about it.

The titles under which the city lots are at present held are merely temporary, preliminary, provisional, possessory. The controlling title of course rests with the Federal government, and for our citizens to secure legal government titles to their lots they must proceed in the matter according to the law in the case made and provided. It is sheer folly and waste of time, involving hindranes and risk, for any persons to make any stupid objections, for if the law be not compiled with the matter according to the law legislation. That he is able, all his friends agree and none of his enemies dispute. I believe that he will make a most fitting and able Senator. Every person having proper claim to a lot or part of a lot, should give this matter of filing his claim early and prompt attention, and thus avoid as much as possible all chance of hindrance, annoyance, litigation and risk in obtaining a proper title. It would be an act of charity if those who are dull or prograstinating in this business were stirred up by their neighbors and friends to energy and promptitude in presenting their claims, ere it be too

In nominating Mr. Fitch I feel itn to be alike my duty and privilege to endorse him as a fitting Senator for the State of Deseret. I am aware that the course of Mr. Fitch as regards the people of this Territory is known to most, perhaps to all, or you, yet a brief mention of it here may not be inappropriate. A little more than two years ago, when the Culiom bill—a bill which was begotten of prejudice and trap, which was conceived and quickened in rottenness and corruption, brought forth by oppression and attended medically by political tricksters, a more infamous measure than which was never concocted in the mind of man—when that was presented before the House of Representatives for endersement and approval, Mr. Fitch, cooperating with your able delegate, and save him, almost single handed and alone, against the prejudices of his constituents, against the prejudices of his constituents.

THE MORMON QUESTION.

Hon. Samuel W. Richards addressed the assembly in some excellent remarks, being especially happy in drawing a comparison between the preparation for a long sea voyage and the education for life.

After closing remarks by Prof. K. G. Masser and prayer by the same, the Normal Class adjourned at haif past twelve o'clock.

To the Editor:—As some exceptions seem to be taken to the speech of Hon. Thos. Fitch, delivered in the late constitutional convention, held in Salt Lake city, in which that gentleman reviewed the judicial career of J. B. Mc-Kean, Chief Justice of the Territory, I would like to say a few words, through your paper, in relation thereto.

I have carefully read the speech of Mr. Fitch several times, and am more than surprised that any should dethan surprised that any should de-nounce it, unless they denounce Mc-Kean's official record; and for the lat-ter, I could blame no same person.
