EVENING NEWS.

Friday, March 27, 1882.

SPEECH OF HON. ROGER Q. MILLS.

OF TEXAS, IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, TUESDAY, MARCH 17TH, 1882.

Mr. Speaker.—In common with all the people of the South, I am deeply interested in the progress of the bill to amend the territorial constitution of Utah, and I am glad to see it passing away, and am willing to aid in the accomplishment of that end in the proper way. I am opposed to this bill and I oppose polygamy. I will not suffer myself to be led into the perpetration of a greater wrong against the American people. The bill is a violation of the territorial constitution, and I am opposed to it. I am opposed to it because it is a violation of the territorial constitution, and I am opposed to it because it is a violation of the territorial constitution.

qualifications of every officer elected by the people, and from these I conclude that there is no objection to the bill. It is a violation of the territorial constitution, and I am opposed to it. I am opposed to it because it is a violation of the territorial constitution, and I am opposed to it because it is a violation of the territorial constitution.
