It is Calm, Judicious, Complete,
And a Refutation of the Commander's Charges.

PEARY NEARLY SAYS HE LIES

"I Knew What Cook Was Up To, That
He Was Trying to Take Advantage
Of My Life's Work."

New York, Sept. 27.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook consented tonight to give the Associated Press a formal reply to some of the charges brought against him by Commander Peary. A formal declaration will be issued by the explorer when Peary makes his declaration over his own signature. This statement follows:

"Commander Peary says that my sledges were not fitted to Arctic travel and that he would not care to voyage in the Arctic with them. The only sledge Commander Peary saw was half of one, which I had given to Mr. Whitney as a souvenir. The remainder of it had been used to make boxes and arrows."

"As to my reasons for leaving my instruments with Mr. Whitney, he had told me that the Eric was coming to Etah and would take him over to the American side to hunt big game and would come back later to Annatook. The distance from Annatook to Upper Nivak by the route which I was compelled to follow was near 700 miles. In that journey I had to travel over high land in two places, with glaciers and difficult places to negotiate."

"The ice was extremely rough and there was a good deal of water to be expected that would have subjected the instruments to a risk which was entirely unnecessary, when Mr. Whitney awaited a ship to go to Etah for him, upon which he expected to return direct to America. By going to Upper Nivak, I hoped to get back by the end of July or the middle of August. I wanted to see my family as soon as possible, as I had been separated from them more than two years, while Mr. Whitney did not expect to get back before October."

"As to the charge that I had not found traces of Commander Peary's records at Cape Thomas Hubbard, the point which Commander Peary would call Cape Thomas Hubbard is a round promontory, and it would be difficult to find any distinct point which could be positively recognized as Cape Thomas Hubbard."

CUTICURA'S ACTION QUICK AND EFFECTIVE

"I will explain about Kathryn Rishel's cure. She is four years old now. When she was two months, she had tetter or eczema on her face. It commenced on her cheeks and kept spreading till it was almost all over her face. I had a doctor to treat it but it still kept getting worse and worse. I tried many kinds of salves but it only got worse, and when I would grease her face with cream she would scream. I had to put the salve on and then start to walk till she would quiet down. I worried about this way till she was over one year old. Then I thought I would try Cuticura. As soon as I began to use it I saw a difference. She did not need to cry when I treated her face. The Cuticura Remedies commenced right away to make it better. I used several boxes of Cuticura Ointment and used Cuticura Soap all the time and her face was healed. She is four years old now and I do not see any signs of the sores. Cuticura certainly did cure her."

"Our little boy had tetter also. He is nearly two. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment for him and he was soon cured. I used them right away so he didn't get as sore as Kathryn did. Mrs. Blanche Rishel, Clintonville, Pa., Oct. 22, 1908."

For more than thirty years the Cuticura Remedies have been the favorites in tens of thousands of households for the treatment of eczema, rashes, itching, irritations and other torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp. when he left to go aboard the Jeanie, were the relations between gentlemen," said Commander Peary today as he was about to board his train for Bar Harbor.

"Whitney occupied Capt. Bartlett's cabin on the Roosevelt late at night, and every courtesy was extended him. Most of Whitney's personal belongings are now on the Roosevelt, including much food and bear skins, etc." Peary said Whitney had been his guest at Etah for a year. Up to the moment he last saw him, Peary said, he did not consider it conceivable that Whitney could have any valuable instruments or documents of Dr. Cook's. In fact, Whitney stated that he merely had some of Cook's belongings, and asked to put them aboard the Roosevelt.

"This I refused to permit, for obvious reasons," said Peary. "I knew what Cook was up to and that he had been trying to take every advantage of my life's work and supplies. Therefore, I did not care to make the Roosevelt an express for Dr. Cook. As for Whitney living a year on my supplies, he was perfectly welcome, and he should have considered himself my guest during the year he was hunting from Etah."

Peary says he does not believe Cook had records, instruments or flag with Whitney, and cannot conceive that any man, under the circumstances, would have left such priceless things behind.

PEARY SOON TO MAKE PUBLIC STATEMENT

Bar Harbor, Me., Sept. 27.—Commander Robert E. Peary reached here tonight from Portland and within half an hour entered into conference with Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, concerning the statement which soon will be made public by Commander Peary in an effort to support his contention that Dr. Cook did not reach the pole.

"There is nothing to say just now," said Gen. Hubbard. "Commander Peary is here, and we are looking over the data he has on the Cook controversy, but there is no statement to be made at this time."

"No date has been set for the meeting of officers of the Peary Arctic club, and I shall not determine that until my return to New York next week."

From what can be learned of the conference tonight, Peary went over every phase of his alleged evidence against Dr. Cook, dating from the time the Brooklyn explorer began preparing to go north more than two years ago, until his return to Etah.

Gen. Hubbard has been arranging this material in order, as personal confessions of Peary.

During the trip to Bar Harbor, Peary spoke frequently of Harry Whitney.

"There might have been some strange reasons why Whitney did not go back to Etah in the Jeanie for Dr. Cook's stuff," he said. "I cannot understand how anyone could let such records get out of his hands. I would never let my records go to any one else. I say, again, I don't see how Cook could have turned his stuff over to Whitney or anybody else. I secured my instruments in a bag, and the flag which I took to the pole I sewed in my clothes and I wore it until I reached Bartlett Harbor."

"I kept my record under watch day and night, and I was prepared in case the Roosevelt was crushed in the ice to throw them overboard, so that they could float in their cases. Can you imagine me giving up those records to a perfect stranger?"

"Harry Whitney did not tell me what was in Dr. Cook's stuff, except four fox skins, a narwhale horn and some other trophies. I could not see why I should have carried the stuff when Cook could have taken it. If Dr. Cook's stuff was of such importance, why did not Whitney go back in the Jeanie and get it?"

"I saw Dr. Cook's sledge at Etah and looked it over carefully, while Prof. McGilver held up Cook's snowshoes and showed them to me. But I did not examine the snowshoes carefully."

"I imagine Dr. Cook's stuff was made up of superfluous instruments. After Whitney had put the stuff ashore, I told the Eskimos to leave it alone."

"On my return from the pole I saw all the Eskimos, and talked with them. After what I heard I would not credit Cook's claims. The letter that informed me that Dr. Cook had claimed the pole was from a whaler named Captain Adams, and not Walker, as had been stated. The letter was dated June 17, and I received it at Cape York."

"What proof would you require of an explorer that he had been far north?" Peary was asked.

"That if a man went to the highest point that had been reached before that he bring back the record he found there."

"As to the route to the pole was 107 miles longer each way than mine. The people can make their own deductions whether Dr. Cook's equipment could have made such a journey."

"Dr. Cook claims he went from latitude 87½ to 90 degrees and back to 75 degrees, altogether just 25½ degrees. Then think of the best previous record made by any explorer was a total of 11½ degrees."

"I cannot say whether the extra 107 miles each way that Cook says he traveled would have kept me away from the pole or not. It might and it might not. The difficulty in Arctic travel as you proceed north increases not in arithmetical, but in geometrical progression."

SIX MEN KILLED, A DOZEN INJURED

Passenger Train on Pennsylvania
Crashes Into Caboose of a C.
M. & St. Paul Cattle Train.

ENGINE WENT THROUGH IT.

When Engineer Saw Rear Light Used
Airbrakes and Reversed Engine, but Too Late.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Six men were killed and 12 probably fatally injured early this (Tuesday) morning when a train southbound for Cincinnati on the Pennsylvania railroad crashed into the caboose of a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul cattle train bound for the stock yards.

Sixteen men were in the caboose of the stock train when the passenger train crashed into it in the railroad yards a few blocks from the downtown station.

The engine plowed through the caboose tearing it to bits and setting fire to the debris.

Six bodies were recovered within a few minutes after the crash while the flames were eating up the splintered pieces of the demolished car. A dozen injured were carried from the burning ruins.

The passenger train, known as the Cincinnati special of the Panhandle Route of the Pennsylvania, left Union station about midnight. No signals had been given, so far as could be learned, that any other train was on the tracks.

The passenger train increased its speed and when at Twelfth street the engineer saw the rear lights of the freight ahead, it was too late to avert a collision. He eased the airbrakes and reversed his engine, but the train crashed into the caboose filled with sleeping stockmen, with tremendous momentum.

The caboose was cut in two and four cars in front of it were telescoped. When the crash occurred screams of the injured and the cries of cattle in the stock cars attracted crowds of rescuers to the scene and many men were rescued from the blazing wreck.

The fire department was called at once and by the time the flames were extinguished the bodies of six dead had been found.

That at least four others had been pinned under the burning piles of debris was discernible to the rescuers. Many cattle were killed.

The first body to be identified was that of Charles Bond of Milwaukee, conductor of the freight train.

The engineer, fireman and conductor of the passenger train are reported to have been but slightly injured.

When the engine struck the freight caboose it threw it across the track and crashed through the middle, pinning the bodies of the victims into the timbers of the stock car ahead.

KIDNAPED AND KILLED TWO LITTLE CHILDREN

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Theodore Rizzo, who has been in jail here on suspicion of being connected with the kidnapping of two little girls and a boy and killing one of the girls and the boy, was today formally charged with the crime.

Rizzo collapsed when informed of the nature of the accusation.

For three hours, according to the police, they had been endeavoring to secure an admission from Rizzo and finally he told the story.

Rizzo, it is claimed, attacked the two little girls, but when they threatened to tell their fathers he shot them and the little boy as well, leaving all three for dead. One of the girls revived.

Following the confession a charge of murder in the first degree was made against Rizzo.

ORIGIN OF THE REORGANIZED CHURCH AND SUCCESSION.

A book of 140 pages showing the latter-day apostasy.
This book is invaluable and indispensable to missionaries and all other students of Church history. It deals thoroughly with the origin of the Reorganized church and conclusively proves it to be of apostate sources, also that that church has departed from the doctrines of the Prophet Joseph Smith and now attacks them violently, denying many of the principles of the gospel. The book also treats the Succession in the Presidency and shows that PRESIDENT BRIGHAM YOUNG WAS PROPERLY ORDAINED TO LEAD THE CHURCH.

S.S.S. REMOVES S.S.S. BLOOD HUMORS

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work of preserving its smooth, even texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through such tiny outlets, which goes on continually day and night. When the blood becomes infected with humors and acids a certain percentage of these impurities also pass off with the natural evaporation, and their sour, fiery nature irritates and inflames the skin, and dries up its natural oils, causing pimples, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin affection. S.S.S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S.S.S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its nutritious, red corpuscles, and enriches it in every way. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased by the exuding acid matter, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S.S.S., the greatest of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and surely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases and affections of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired, free to all who write. ### Anty Drudge in Court.

Prisoner's wife (relenting)—"Yes, he did strike me, but it was partly my fault. I was washing all day and was bad-tempered, and didn't have his dinner ready."

Anty Drudge—"Please your Honor. If you'll just sentence the prisoner to buy his wife Fels-Naptha soap it will end their wash-day fighting. She won't have half as much work then, and there'll be plenty of time to get dinner. She won't be tired and cross, either."

Do you spend 52 days of the year washing clothes? Fifty-two days bending over a tub of nauseous, steaming suds and 52 days of hard-rubbing on a washboard? Then stop it. Nature didn't intend any woman to work like a slave. Fels-Naptha will cut down the time spent in washing at least half. It will cut out the boiling, the steaming suds, the hard-rubbing.

Fels-Naptha will separate the dirt from your clothes while soaking in cold or lukewarm water so that a light rubbing and a simple rinsing will leave them clean and pure—ready for the line.

Look for the red and green wrapper.
