

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Convalescent After Operation.—Louise Nelson, aged 10, of 651 South First West, is convalescent from an operation for appendicitis at the Groves L. D. S. hospital.

Another Stockade Arrest.—Another inmate of the stockade, Georgia Evans, was arrested last night by county sheriff and later given her freedom under the usual $100 bail.

Special Revival Service.—Captain and Mrs. Tom Mackey of Chicago will begin special revival services Sunday evening at 7:30, Commercial street, assisted by Mrs. E. J. Halowell of Denver. The visitors are making a tour of the west.

To Entertain Merchants.—Special preparations have been made to entertain the 150 members of the National Retail Merchants' association who are to pass through this city Monday en route to the Portland convention of June 2. The visitors will be taken to Salt Lake and afterwards given a spread at the Commercial club.

S. H. Kimball Selected.—Word has been received from Boston stating that S. H. Kimball of this city has been elected secretary of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a cooperative society, during the ensuing year. His election to this position by the student body is considered a strong testimony of his high standing in the institution.

Discuss Shaw's Drama.—At the meeting of the Social Science club to-night, Friday, 123 South Second East, William Thurston Brown will give an interesting and pertinent discussion of Shaw's famous play, "Man and Superman," discussing Mr. Shaw's philosophy and reading portions of the drama. Mr. Shaw is beyond question the leading dramatist of the English speaking world today, and this is his greatest dramatic work. The public is cordially invited. Meeting at 8 o'clock.

To Ask For Hero Medal.—The identity of the Greek laborer who rescued young Jakeman from City creek torrent on Tuesday evening has been definitely established. After considerable inquiry on the part of the father it developed that Tom Chavala, a Greek, who lives at 111 South Fifth West street, was the man who jumped into the stream after the insensible boy. Both were pulled out by Greek laborers and Patrolman Matthews. Mr. Jakeman stated this morning that he will forward Chavala's name as one worthy to receive the Carnegie medal.

STATE MAY NOT PUSH THE CASE

It is Intimated That J. S. Malone May Not Be Prosecuted.

IS CONTINUED UNTIL JUNE.

Request of Defendant's Attorneys Is Granted With No Objection Insisted Upon by County Attorney.

That the defense in the case of J. S. Malone, charged with having shot Nels Paulson with intent to murder, anticipates no prosecution of the charge, was manifested in Judge Bowman's court this morning when a continuance of the preliminary hearing until June 4 was granted on motion of the counsel for the defense. It was plain, stated, in fact, by Judge C. B. Diehl, attorney for Mr. Malone, that the defense had been given to understand from authoritative sources that the case would not come up for hearing.

In addressing the court, asking for a continuance, Mr. Diehl said that although this had been the date set for the preliminary hearing, yet owing to several recent events the defense was not fully prepared to go ahead with the hearing.

"Circumstances transpiring within the past few days," Mr. Diehl informed the court, "led us to believe beyond a doubt that this case would not be heard this morning or at any time. Two gentlemen of the highest repute, and intimately connected with Mr. Paulson informed me yesterday that he would not proceed with the case."

Mr. Diehl said that he had then seen County Atty. Job P. Lyon, explaining to him the conversation he had had with these gentlemen, who stated that they were not divided in court, and that Mr. Lyon had replied that he would listen to Mr. Paulson and the men named, adding that what they said, or did, would have some weight with him. It was also stated in the court-room that "two men had told Malone that he could safely ask for a continuance of his hearing and that Mr. Lyon would not object."

Judge Weber, associated in the defense, also urged for a continuance, asking that the date be set some two weeks later, because of previous court engagements on his part.

In at first opposing the continuance Asst. County Atty. Bowman informed the court that Nels Paulson, yesterday at the county attorney's office this morning and had expressed himself as having no disposition not to prosecute the charge.

Over later withdrew his objections, and a continuance of the hearing was granted until June 4.

Previous to the argument for the continuance Asst. County Atty. Bowman requested that the second count of the complaint against Malone, charging him with assault with a deadly weapon, be stricken out. The motion was granted and Malone is now only charged with assault with intent to murder.

FRAUD IS CHARGED.

Kost Pappapoulos and his wife, Christina Pappapoulos, declare that they were the victims of a fraudulent scheme to secure a claim to a piece of property in a complaint filed yesterday in the Third district court against Anastas Avgerinos and Gust Mantas. It is alleged that Avgerinos decided to them a piece of property so that Mantas could hold that title as security. They ask the court to grant them a clear title to the property and declare the claims of Mantas null and void.

EVELYN THOMAS DESERTED.

Evelyn M. Thomas seeks a divorce from Frank E. Thomas on the ground of desertion in a complaint filed yesterday in the Third district court. They were married in Salt Lake on April 1, 1905. In January, 1908, after their marriage Thomas left her and since that time she has been compelled to support herself. There are no children as an issue of the marriage.

IN POLICE COURT.

It required a jury in Judge Bowman's court yesterday afternoon to determine that Miss Caroline Hazard of 778 Olive avenue, who recently figured as complainant in a charge against a soldier, soldier sweetheart, had not been guilty of permitting riotous or disorderly conduct on her premises at the time of the soldier's escape. Following the arrest of the soldier, the soldier and later dismissal of the soldier under a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, a complaint was filed by neighbors charging Miss Hazard with keeping a disorderly house. Three witnesses appeared yesterday for the state, but failed to convince the jury, and the woman was discharged.

Charles Egbert, who was found guilty of the charge of cruelty to animals, was given a suspended sentence yesterday by Judge Bowman. The fact that Egbert is the father of a child, and that he is an industrious worker, went in his favor.

H. J. Miller, had a unique excuse for the possession of a hat belonging to another man. According to his story he had been standing in Orpheum alley when two men rushed down the street. As one passed Miller he threw a hat at the other, and that hat was the one which Miller had in his possession when he was arrested. Judge Bowman figured that the man's excuse like that was worth at least 30 days.

Mrs. Mary Dowling was found not guilty yesterday by Judge Bowman of the charge of assault brought by Miss Agnes Huntington. Miss Huntington averred that when Mrs. Dowling had ejected her from a boarding house, she had used considerably more force than was necessary. Mrs. Dowling, although she outweighs the young girl by pounds and pounds, their appearance in combat suggesting a battle between Jim Jeffries and Battling Nelson, contended that it was she who had been the injured one.

FUNERAL OF CHAS. STANDROD.

Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Express Sorrow In Resolutions.

The funeral of Engineer Charles A. Standrood, who was accidentally killed on the Oregon Short Line railway, took place this morning at 2 o'clock in the Twenty-second ward funeral home. The order of locomotive engineers, of which Mr. Standrood had been a valued member, was well represented at the funeral. The pallbearers were brother engineers. Burial was in City cemetery.

At the regular meeting of Wasatch Division 227 of the order of locomotive engineers, held last night, the following resolutions of respect were adopted:

"Resolved, that we have lost in Brother Standrood a valuable member of the Brotherhood, a true and loving brother, and a devoted husband, and the Oregon Short Line Railway a competent engineer."

Resolved, that we offer the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy. And while we cannot estimate our sorrow or express it in words, we trust that they may find comfort in Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, that the members of this division tender their sincere thanks to all for valuable services rendered upon the occasion of the funeral of our late brother. And we also thank the donors of the beautiful flowers for Brother Standrood's coffin.

Resolved, as a token of respect for our deceased brother, that our charter be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the Salt Lake City daily papers.

WOMAN TAKES HORSE FROM BURNING BARN

Mrs. Frank Angell Is Injured by the Terror Stricken Animal She Tries to Rescue.

While heroically endeavoring to rescue a horse from a burning stable this morning, Mrs. Frank Angell, wife of Night Operator Frank Angell of the Salt Lake fire department, was severely bruised and injured by the animal plunging in its wild terror. Fortunately the brave woman escaped without serious injury.

The fire occurred at the barn in the rear of the Angell home, No. 333 east Second South street, and was caused by little boys playing with matches about a hay stack adjoining the barn. Before the fire department could respond to a telephone call, the flames had begun to eat their way through the roof of the stable, sending the horse within the barn into a state of frantic terror. Mrs. Angell attempted to lead the horse out of the barn, but she was unable to do so.

She refused to have a physician called, saying, "I will take care of him myself." The fire department succeeded in extinguishing the blaze. The loss of the hay was the principal damage.
