The Mexican Border Troubles.

New York, 2.—The World's

Washington special says: Congress has decided that it will not investigate the case of the border troubles from a Mexican point of view, claiming that the border troubles are a matter of the border to prosecute its investigation.

San Francisco, 2.—An ingenious robbery was perpetrated to-day, occasioning the loss of $100,000 to the Union estate. A man called at the office of J. H. Young, Nassau street, and asked to see the bookkeeper. He then went to the bookkeeper's room and after locking the door and the stranger forced Mr. Young's door and stole $100,000 of the Union estate. The stranger was seen by the bookkeeper, who called the police. The stranger was seen by the police, who arrested him. The Senator Patterson's Condition.

Senator Patterson has a relapse, and his physicians are convinced that he will not recover. He has been growing worse, and his condition is critical. He is still in a critical condition.

Meeting of U. S. Senators.

The commissioner of internal revenue has received the following letter:

United States Revenue Department,

Washington, D. C., Dec. 28, 1877.

Sir:—On yesterday, Moore, Keane and O'Connell, special deputy marshals, and Wm. D. Smith, special deputy marshal, went on a tour of inspection through the Union territory, and to-day, at the residence of Jasper Gibbs, a trial justice, they arrested and seized a number of persons and property. When they proceeded about four miles and were about to enter the town of Winchester, they were met by a number of persons, who seized the marshals and detained them. The marshals were released and the persons were
