

JURY IS SECURED IN SMITH CASE. Motion to Transfer to Federal Court Overruled by Judge Norrell. DEFENSE FILES AFFIDAVIT. In Support of a Motion for a Change of Venue—Claim People Here are Prejudiced.

The efforts of the attorneys of John Y. Smith, the alleged dynamiter, to get the case transferred from the district court to the federal court for trial, have failed, and shortly before noon today the work of impaneling a jury was proceeded with.

It was not until a late hour this afternoon that the requisite number of tallsmen, satisfactory to both sides, was secured. When the "News" report closed County Attorney Putnam was making the opening statement.

Upon the reconvening of court this morning Judge Norrell overruled the motion argued by Attorney D. S. Truman yesterday, for a removal of the case to the federal court. His honor took the position that the right was vested in him to determine the sufficiency of the petition for removal, both as to the facts therein contained, and whether therefrom, a removal should be granted.

Determined not to be outdone Attorney Truman then presented Smith's affidavit in support of a motion for a change of venue. The document set forth that Smith was unable to obtain an impartial trial in this county on account of the existing bias and prejudice created almost entirely by the "gloating" newspaper accounts of the affair, and the extensive influence of Judge Power and the Board of Education.

Attached to the affidavit were clippings from the "News," Tribune and Herald, giving accounts of the affair from its inception to the present time. Judge Norrell denied the application for a change of venue, holding that the affidavit of Smith was not sufficient of itself, and furthermore was not what the statutes contemplated in motions for a change of venue. Mr. Truman took an exception to the rulings of the court. Judge Norrell insisted if counsel was ready to proceed, Attorney Truman created a laugh by stating the defense was "not near ready."

After the exercise of a number of challenges on both sides the following named persons were accepted and sworn to try the case: Alex. Cohn, R. Siddaway, James Stacy, John B. Reid, H. Chamberlain, H. Curtis, John H. Hamilton and Albert W. Stevenson. Clerk Little then read the information to the jury, which charges the defendant with having attempted to take the life of Orlando P. Powers, by means of explosives. County Attorney Putnam had begun his opening address to the jury when the "News" report closed.

CONSIDERED BY SCIENTISTS. Mormonism Discussed by the Chicago Society of Anthropology.

MANY FAVORABLE OPINIONS. Several Members of the Organization Declare Themselves for Congressman-Elect Roberts.

Elders George S. Romney and H. Lee Boyer, "Mormon" missionaries in Chicago, write from that city to the "News" as follows: "It is not always the experience of the Elders of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to have the privilege of presenting their views in the higher circles of American society; and having them discussed from an unprejudiced point of view, it seems that misrepresentation of the 'Mormon' doctrines is so general that the minds of the people are too much poisoned to allow the Elders to explain their belief from the same platform as other ministers; and then consider the question freely and on its merits."
