LONDON, 18.—Sir Edward Thornton, Brit. ambassador at Constantinople, has returned to that city.

Mrs. Grilling, leader of the Shakers in England, is dead. Her sect is very destitute at present.

SOFIA, 18.—Sobranje has approved the bill appointing a court martial to try Major Gruelf and other officers associated with him in the coup d'etat on the charge of treason.

DUBLIN, 18.—The Marquis of Londonderry, the new Viceroy of Ireland, arrived at Kingstown early this morning. His voyage across the channel was pleasant. The arrival of the Lord Lieutenant was signalled by a royal salute.

The viceregal party was welcomed at the castle by a large crowd of loyalists, who cheered heartily. There was also a hostile crowd there, which did its best to offset the welcome by cheering lustily for Parnell and "United Ireland."

SOFIA, 18.—When the Russian agent here was presented with the Sobranje's telegram to the Czar praying for his friendship and protection, the agent said: "Prince Alexander's departure has removed the obstacle to the good relations between Russia and Bulgaria which was the source of great danger to the prosperity of Bulgaria, which Russia has at heart. Russia cannot admit even the idea of Prince Alexander returning to Bulgaria. This fact therefore is one guarantee of happiness and internal independence which your telegram mentions. The other guarantee you possess within yourselves in moderation and in concord. Remember well that the Powers have not yet formally sanctioned the present order of things in Bulgaria, and that their sanction can only be acquired by the prudence and moderation of the present government, and in the members of the future Great Assembly. Russia never protected any party. Russia desires harmony among you all, and she especially desires that your government should be above all party spirit."

The President of the Sobranje then questioned the agent regarding the identity of the

for the Bulgarian throne. In reply, he said that that would entirely depend upon the Powers. In his private capacity he added he had no information to give, saying: "The jury which is elected does not know what it will have to adjudge. The Assembly must elect whom it thinks best capable of representing the dignity of Bulgaria."

The Russians in Bulgaria deny all complicity in the seizure and deposition of Prince Alexander, but have advised moderation in the treatment of those who were implicated, in order to maintain quiet and prevent discontent from spreading. The Russians say they consider that now that the object of the plot is removed, no one can proceed against the actors in the plot.

The Bulgarians rejoice that the Bulgarian question has assumed more of an international character. They think this tends to avert the danger of an armed occupation of Bulgaria.

The deputies are anxious to know what candidate for the Bulgarian throne would be acceptable to the Powers before proceeding to the election of and they are unwilling to choose a candidate whom the Powers might reject. The Sobranje closes its present session to-day.

A ukase will be read before the adjournment fixing the date for the election of the Great Assembly which is to elect the new Prince.

LONDON, 18.—Beach to-day defeated Gaudaur in the sculling match.

THE BEACH-GAUDAUR MATCH

was for £1,000 and the championship of the world. An enormous crowd lined the banks of the river. The start was made at 4:56 p. m., the men getting away well together. Beach immediately got a slight lead at the start and at the quarter was a third of a length ahead, pulling 37 strokes a minute to Gaudaur's 35. At creek, Gaudaur led by a third of a length. Beach spurred at the half mile tree. He led by half a length at Craven Cottage and was the same distance ahead at Crabtree. At Hammersmith, Beach was three lengths in front. His time to Hammersmith was 8 minutes 58 seconds, Gaudaur covering the distance in 9 minutes 3 seconds. At Billus, Gaudaur began to decrease his opponent's lead and at Chistwick was only half a length behind. By the time Thornycroft was reached Gaudaur was half a length in front of Beach and at the pumping station was still slightly in the lead. Beach then stopped rowing and Gaudaur obtained a lead of two lengths. At Barnes Bridge, Beach again spurred and gaily to the front won by four lengths. Beach's time was 18 minutes 56 seconds. It was a fearful hard race throughout. The weather was clear and cold with the wind from the north-east. The tide was good. Before the start the betting was five to one in favor of Beach.

MADRID, 20.—A revolution was attempted last evening by a number of Spanish troops quartered in this city. The uprising was ill-planned and ill-managed and practically amounted to little more than a riot. The trouble was inaugurated by a regiment of infantry quartered in Gil Blas barracks; the soldiers revolted, broke down the partition wall that separated them from the quarters occupied by the cavalry and intermingled with the men of two cavalry regiments, a number of whom

JOINED IN THE REVOLUTION.

Officers of all three regiments did all in their power to dissuade the men from revolting, but 300 soldiers after beating a number of officers and wounding three, deserted the barracks and marched in two bodies through the town. One body went to the Prado, the principal park and promenades of Madrid. Two thousand troops were quartered in the Prado at the time, and the revolutionists expected to be joined by them. The other body went hurrahing through the centre of Madrid calling on the people to crying, "Live the Republic," and making all kinds of threats against the monarchy. At this time the theatres and other places of amusement were crowded. The populace were taken by surprise. In most of the public places the people flocked out in a panic and all entertainments were abruptly terminated. The streets were soon filled with people, nearly all of whom were terror-stricken because of the exaggerated ideas of what was transpiring. The insurgents attempted, among their first exploits, to secure possession of the arsenals and barracks, which they attacked with open fire, but all these places were well and successfully defended, and the

REBELS WERE REPULSED.

Finally, their reverses drawing them together, the insurgents attacked and got possession of the southern railway. By this time the authorities had taken in the situation and had fully prepared to master it. The loyal troops marched to the railway and after a short fight they completely dislodged the revolutionists, who dispersed into the country. General Bavia pursuing. During the fighting in the city one of the officers leading the insurgents was shot and killed. The rebels shot General Velarde for refusing to join them. They also mortally wounded Count Mirasol and killed a colonel of artillery.

MARTIAL LAW

was proclaimed throughout the city as soon as the condition of affairs was clearly perceived by the Government. The edicts were a complete surprise to Madrid. Quiet was soon restored after the revolutionists were driven from the southern railway. A number of insurgents taken prisoners. This morning there is no appearance of a revolution, or even of disorder. When the insurgents fled from the town forty of them compelled the station master to place at their disposal a special train, with which they made their flight to Alcalá de Henares. The Government troops were soon in pursuit in another special train.

BELFAST, 20.—At noon, a large body of Queen's Island shipyard workmen, all Orangemen, marched ostentatiously through the streets on their way to and from dinner, as if to provoke a fight. At Carrick Hill they were attacked with volleys of stones and a desperate fight ensued, which is still in progress. Many men on both sides have been wounded. The police are outnumbered and powerless.

DEATHS.

Sister Leishman was born in the town of Maybole, County of Ayr, Scotland, and came to Utah in the year 1869. She was a most exemplary woman, a kind mother and wife, and a consistent Latter-day Saint. She has left an interesting family of seven children and a sorrowing husband to mourn her departure. Her remains were taken to the meeting house, where the funeral services were held, after which a large concourse of people followed the body in wagons and carriages to the grave, where it was laid to await the resurrection of the just. May her sleep be sweet.—COM.

WALKER.—At Peoa, Summit County, Utah, of diphtheria, Alice, daughter of Stephen and Lydia Walker, aged 6 years, 9 months and 24 days.

He has left two wives and four children to mourn his loss. Jas. Archibald, Thomas Grilla, Thomas Godfrey and Ole A. Jensen were the speakers at the funeral. All that kind friends could do was done for him, but it seemed as if he was wanted on the other side. It was hard to part with Richard, but it is a great consolation to know that he was as well prepared to go. Peace to his remains.—COM.

Chills and Fever. Malaria. "Many cases of fever and ague, dumb ague and congestive chills were promptly arrested and entirely banished by the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator. You don't say half enough in regard to the efficacy of this valuable medicine in cases of ague, intermittent fevers, etc. Every case has been arrested immediately. I was a sufferer for years with the liver disease, and only found relief by using the Regulator."—Robert J. Weeks, Batavia, Kane Co., Ill.
