FOR THE HITS AT MANILA.
Mr. C. D. A. Christensen, writing from Manila under date of the 22nd, makes some inquiries regarding the situation of the city. He says that the city is in a state of confusion, and that the interests of the people are being sacrificed to the interests of the government. CLOTHES FOR YOUNG MEN.
We're clothing more young men this season than we did last—they're getting better, that's the reason. We see to it that all the properness is put into every garment. It's the young men we want today, showing some suits as low as $3.00 and $4.00. At $4.00 we have an all wool suit, brown check, round or square cut, extra well made. At $7.00 and $10.00 and $12.00 some very noble things in brown or gray mixtures or black cheviot. At $12.00 a handsome blue cheviot, double breasted, satin facing, and at $17.00 our swiftest suit of heavy blue serge, double breasted, satin facing, etc. OVERCOATS FOR YOUNG MEN TOO.

Underwear.
Get your fit. Selling lots of it these days. No let up to the rush here—must be a reason for it. Suppose you come and see. As low as 75c the suit and up to $8.00.
