TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS and DISORDERED LIVER.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, a feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work, and are a perfect

PRICKLY ASH BITTERS

The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a derangement of the Liver, affecting both the stomach and bowels. In order to effect a cure, it is necessary to remove the cause. Irregular and Sluggish action of the Bowels, Headache, Sickness at the Stomach, Pain in the Back and Loins, etc., indicate that the Liver is at fault, and that nature requires assistance to enable this organ to throw off impurities.

Prickly Ash Bitters are specially compounded for this purpose. They are mild in their action and effective as a cure; are pleasant to the taste and taken easily by both children and adults. Taken according to directions, they are a safe and pleasant cure for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Habitual Constipation, Diseased Kidneys, etc., etc. As a Blood Purifier they are superior to any other medicine; cleansing the system thoroughly, and imparting new life and energy to the invalid. It is a medicine and not an intoxicating beverage.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR PRICKLY ASH BITTERS, and take no other. PRICE, $1.00 per Bottle.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES AT LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE WARD,
Bannock Stake, Idaho,
December 26th, 1884.

Editor Deseret News:

Our festivities began here at 10 a. m., December 25th, 1884, according to previous arrangements. A Sabbath school entertainment was given by the children and teachers of the Lewisville Ward. The exercises consisted of singing songs, jubilee, sentimental and comic, short speeches, dialogues, recitations, and instrumental music; which embraced a great variety of subjects and sentiments and made the entertainment a very interesting and enjoyable affair. The people turned out en masse, and the meeting house was literally crammed, but everybody appeared to be happy. At the close of the entertainment candy and nuts were distributed among the children, and a juvenile dance was given in the afternoon for the encouragement of the Sabbath school children. At night there was an adult dance to complete the festivities of the day.

The weather was propiticus, the roads were in good condition and all who had sleighs cheerfully used them, there being just enough snow to make it good sleighing. All passed off peacefully, and all appeared to tend to make it a merry Christmas.

Respectfully,

HENRY STOKES.

The Indians of Arizona.

MOEN KOPI, YAVAPAI CO.,
Arizona Ter., Dec. 11, 1884.

Editor Deseret News:

On the 12th of Feb., 1876., I left my home in Ephraim, Sanpete County, for this mission in the South. Up to April 26th, 1876, I never had seen a Navajo, and only a few Moquis once in St. George, while working on the Temple, so I knew nothing of their languages nor customs. Since that time I, for one, have learned to talk Navajo pretty well, and Moquis somewhat—enough to get a fair understanding, as neighbors in farming, stock raising, wool trading, etc., it has been quite uphill business—learning new languages and performing the labors necessary in making a new home; however, there is quite a change since we first met, when there was no way of communication and not much confidence, as we had no acquaintance. Now we eat, drink and sleep in peace, and there are fewer misunderstandings; and the traditional hatred of the Indians towards the white man is giving way, at least to some extent.

There are a great many polygamic families among the Navajos. Some men have as many as seven wives and thirty-nine living children, and the peace and love and good order that prevail are remarkable and praiseworthy. Had their children the advantage of schooling that we have, you would find intelligences among them hard to equal among the white race. These are our immediate neighbors; they are in a prosperous condition in their families and in their flocks and herds.

Those Indians located around the railroads, drinking saloons and soldier posts are in a more deplorable condition than those who live in the more unsettled portions of the country, and there are more widows, more orphans, more bastards and general distress there. There is also a disposition among some of the young to gamble at cards and Mexican games. Such are generally very poor, and they sometimes go to stealing. The Indians have no way of punishment among themselves for these characters, but a general shame and disapproval is shown by all influential chiefs until they either reform or turn out to be the outcasts and renegades of the nation. They manifest a good deal of pride even in their folly and they are glad they are Navajo's. There is more confidence prevailing between the different tribes than there has been; at least, there are not many murders committed, yet some minor depredations are still heard of, such as the proud Navajo stealing peaches from the poor, defenceless Moquis, or riding his poor horse, and that too when he pleases; but in all these matters they are growing better. It takes a long time to learn to combat all the evils that prevail in the human family, the Indians of Arizona not excepted. But there is reason for joy in the prospective redemption of Israel, and the Lord of Hosts will soon show the inhabitants of this little world that the remnants of Israel will come in remembrance before him, for surely all flesh is before His face, and He is no respector of persons, but salvation is unto all men who will repent and obey the plan of life and salvation.

Your Brother in the Gospel,
