

JUDICIAL CIRCLES.

The Irrigation Water Case Submitted this Morning.

WARNING TO LOVERS OF GROUSE.

An Administrator Brought into Court Under an Amendment, Inc.

Indemnities.

The last case in Judge Morris's court this morning was the one involving the right to which began on Monday at the Brighton and North Point irrigation Co., vs. U.S. & L. B. Relied on, involving a question of water rights. A number of men had been by counsel for their respective clients from the start. The arguments ended about 8 o'clock p.m., and the case was then adjourned.

A TROUBLE CASE.

Fred Thompson, a second month street railroad proprietor, whose place of business is nearly opposite the Commercial building, appeared before Commissioner Pratt that morning to answer a charge of unlawfully setting traps in his premises after having been advised by his attorney that he must do so. The Commissioner, Mr. H. W. Thompson, was the charging witness. After the hearing of the case the defendant was released.

JAMES POLKAN AND W. W. STEPHENS ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY.

James Polkhan and W. W. Stephens arrived here yesterday, the former with permission to do business in the city and the latter with the intention of remaining here until the trial of the訴訟 (suit) against him.

Mr. James M. Wadsworth was the charging witness. After the hearing of the case the defendant was released.

John Hartman, a young youth, was arrested today on a serious charge of robbing Mrs. Brown, at his home in the Eagle Ranch.

The case came on by hearing this afternoon, and the prosecuting witness notified that the defendant deserved a long prison sentence, but the judge deferred his sentence over the defense claimed that he had been driving and was the worse for drink. Other witnesses for the prosecution were being examined when the case was adjourned.

of Captain Donovan, his case was dismissed.

Morgan, J. Brain, W. Wallenius and J. Pearson were arraigned for stealing a tie on the U. S. W. railway. Their several cases of guilty, and the fine imposed was $100. The other three cases were dismissed.

The case, Fred Silver and E. Seagars, charged by Officer Miller with robbing the mail on East Temple street on Friday night last, was adjourned.

W. S. Lewis, living in Salt Lake and Nineveh, was tried in the Police court this afternoon, charged with having borrowed a horse belonging to Jim D. Lewis while the same was in his possession.

James M. Wadsworth was the charging witness. After the hearing of the case the defendant was released.

James Polkhan and W. W. Stephens arrived here yesterday, the former with permission to do business in the city and the latter with the intention of remaining here until the trial of the訴訟 (suit) against him.

The prosecuting witness, Mr. H. W. Thompson, was the charging witness. The case against Polkhan was adjourned, while he was given a hearing tomorrow morning.

John Hartman, a young youth, was arrested today on a serious charge of robbing Mrs. Brown, at his home in the Eagle Ranch.

The case came on by hearing this afternoon, and the prosecuting witness notified that the defendant deserved a long prison sentence, but the judge deferred his sentence over the defense claimed that he had been driving and was the worse for drink. Other witnesses for the prosecution were being examined when the case was adjourned.

LAW OFFICES.

The following filings were made in the law and office under date of May 20:

James H. Hartman, of Beaver, Beaver, recovered entry of the case and of his numerous spiritual section and all the numerous entries of the same, and the attorney for the plaintiff in the訴訟 (suit) of the defendant, quarter of the defendant, quarter of section 8, township 28 south, range 1 west.

John W. Christian, Jr., of Beaver, Beaver, recovered entry of the case and of the defendant, quarter of the defendant, quarter, and the plaintiff in the訴訟 (suit) of the defendant, quarter of section 8, township 28 south, range 1 west.

For Free Passage.

A letter from Washington advises that the American government has granted a reduction in favor of the damage of silver coins of 10 to 15 percent and less for the importation of our gold.

The defendant was therefore required to pay the same duty, hence advancing the amount of his bill.

It is not unlikely that those who paid the tax in War may not be called upon for explanation.

THURSDAY COURT.

There was no business of public interest transacted before Judge Hart's adjournment.

RECORDED NEWS.

Several weeks ago Private Judge Blair issued an order of citation upon Jerome E. Williams, calling upon him to his account as administrator of the estate of Estelle A. Williams, deceased, and to appear before him, but he had, however, taken of this by the administrator, and yesterday he had issued an attachment for Williams's arrest. This was given in the name of the sheriff and only served the sheriff and his wife, and did not bring him into court and file a statement, which, however, did not affect his safety. Judge Blair said Williams was given until a week past the day to present and produce a bill of rights, and that if he did not appear in court it would affect his freedom.

4 Visit Made by Elders Gallard and Reynolds as Sunday School Missionaries.

Elders Darrow, Newell, SALT LAKE CITY, May 22, 1891.—The following is a brief sketch of a four days' trip to Oakley, Cassia County, Idaho.

On Thursday, May 17th, Elder Gee, Reynolds and myself left Salt Lake City at 6:30 a.m. by the U. P. R. R. and arrived at the Minidoka station (200 miles) on Friday at 10:30 a.m. This brought us within forty-five miles of our destination, which distance we had to travel by team. Assistant Superintendent Johnson had already arrived in country, in Oakley, where a two days' annual Sunday school conference was to be held on Saturday and Sunday.

We left Minidoka at noon and arrived at Oakley at 3 p.m., the distance from Minidoka being 20 miles.

After a short rest we started on our journey to Oakley, which distance is 10 miles.

On Saturday evening we had a meeting in Oakley, and the next morning we had another meeting in Oakley.

On Sunday morning we had another meeting in Oakley.
