campers' tents were all lost. Of the possessions of Mr. George Newman, who has given the explorers a $100 loan to help in their trip, a most complete equipment has been brought together, and is now on view at O'Fall Mall. There are to be seven tents, coats, knives, dresses, food, arms, and every other article that is likely to be used during the two years that the party expects to be away. The summer tents are made of about six

Phish. Through sleeping and chattering, and all connections made by Union depots in the daytime. If you are going East, and care for a day's light ride through the aridness of the west of the Rocky Mountain straits, try that your ticket costs you the most Pacific Railway. You will find it a rare and interesting ride to the children of a traveling train. B. B. ROBBIN, C. T. & P. A. 121 Lake City.
