this morning at 10 o'clock and Judge Howell had three deput sheriffs sworn to take the jury to the Grand Opera house to hear Florace Roberts in "Zira," which they greatly en-crts in "Zira," which they greatly enjoyed.

The only witness called this morning in the Walker murder trial was George Gunnipp, an employe of the Electric Supply & Fixture company. The only thing in his testimony that seemed in the least impressive was the convenience of his mind to forget anything of importance that occurred at the supply place of business on Sept. 18 when the murderous assault took place. He could not recall any of the details of the affair excepting that he heard a scuffle in the rear room, and heard a voice cry out, "Walker, for God's sake, don't kill me," He also testified that Lawrence closed and locked the front door of the store. He was being cross-examined by the defense when the noon adjournment was taken. djournment was taken,

LEAVITT GUARDIANSHIP SETTLED

The controversy over the guardianship of Joan Leavitt, the little boy who was left an orphan a few weeks ago, has been settled by Judge G. G. Armstrong, who heard the case, by the appointment of John Clark, grandfather of the child, its guardian, under bonds of $1,000. The controversy was between Mr. Clark and Mrs. Leavitt, grandmother of the child, both being desirous of having the child to educate and care for.

WHAT the NEW TREATA

IT IS REALLY an IMPROVEMENT on a TIME-TRIED TREATMENT RATHER THAN a COMPLETE DISCOVERY OF SOMETHING NEW

Drs. Shores treatment has niwaya been eminently successful, curing a larger percentage of cases than any other known method, and was the hast treatment up to this discovery, but the former treatment had its limitations—it took longer to cure than Drs. Shores desired. It failed to completely cure some few chronte cases, and while it was the HEST it was not PEHFECT, and it was to overcome these detects and make it an almost ABSOLUTE CERTAINTY, that Drs. Shores gave their time and study to perfecting the treatment.

SOME NEW REMEDIES ARE USED NOW.

In connection with the former splendid treatment, New and powerful but harmless medicines that relieve inflammation, reduce swelling tone up the membranes of the head, nose and throat, stop the tendency to "catch cold," the tendency to susset, medicines that are THUE TISSUE BUILDERS. SURE GERM DESTROYERS, cold, the tendency to susset, medicines that are THUE TISSUE BUILDERS. SURE GERM DESTROYERS, that relieve Catarrhal Destroys, check the spasma of Asthma, relieve Hay Fover almost instantly—in fact, the NEW MEDICINES make up the deficiency of all former methods and render the NEW AND PERFECTED TREATMENT THE MODERN WAY OF CURING CATARRHAL DISEASES.

It MUST be Administered Properly to PRODUCE PERFECT RESULTS

Drs. Shores decline to give their exact formulas of the NEW TREATMENT for the reason that if it were known, ansecupations frauds and in experiented amareness would advempt to treat Catarrie, and by giving it improperly or simply Faking it, the treatment itself would unjustly fall into discremit.
