 UNIVERSITY OF DESERET, Salt Lake City, June 28, 1897.
 By carefully examining DeLano's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Lead, and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bicarbonate of Soda. I have examined it and find it to be a pure and safe baking powder.

WELSH WISDOM.
 Three things of short continuance a lady's love, a chip fire and a brook flood.
 Three miseries of a man's house—a smoky chimney, a dripping roof and a scolding wife.
 Three things that ought never to be from the cat, chimney and housewife.
 Three essentials to a false story-teller—a good memory, a bold face and a scolding wife.
 Three things that are as good as the best—broken down horses, well water in thirst and a great coat in cold.
 Three things that are seen in a peacock—the car of an angel, the walk of a thief and the voice of a devil.
 Three things that are seen in a woman—the flavor of the ale, the beauty of the wife and the contents of the purse.
 Three warnings from the grave.
 "Thou knowest what I was; thou seest what I am; remember what thou art to be."
 Three things that never become rusty—the money of the benevolent, the shoes of the butcher's horse and water and to please all in everything that is done.
 Three things as good as their betters—dirty water to extinguish the fire, an angry wife to a blind man, and a wooden word to a coward.

 A ROMANCE OF THE WESTERN PLAINS

One day when we were between the North Platte River and the Laramie Mountains, and some miles west of Fort Porter, Wyoming, while I was riding a little horse of a little creek looking for water, I saw a stockman coming across the ridge a quarter of a mile away. That day my horse was mounted came along on a swinging gallop, and as he drew nearer I saw that he was a little child, a boy not much over 3 years old, in front of him on the saddle. He came up and stopped, and we engaged in some commonplace conversation about the distance to various ranches, destination, etc. The boy, who was mounted on a small shaggy horse, looked at me shily as if he was afraid. I was a little startled, but I looked at him and he looked at me. The man was tall, perhaps more kindly looking than handsome, and might have been 20 years of age. He was dressed in a simple, plain, but well made suit of appeared to be of good of riding for such a little boy. I was a little startled, but I looked at him and he looked at me.
 "Yes, I always call him Tot," is a great rider. He can ride a horse as well as a man. I was a little startled, but I looked at him and he looked at me.

 art to be."
 rusty—the money of the benevolent,
 that is done.
 Three things as good as their betters—
 angry wife to a blind man, and a wooden
 word to a coward.

Is Life
Worth Living?
 That depends upon the Liver, for if the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirits are depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmon's Liver-Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and now that for Despondency, Biliousness and aching Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty bottles, and feel better than I have for years. I am now a healthy man, and am able to do my work. I am now a healthy man, and am able to do my work.
