

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CONTRIBUTORS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—"The Broken Sword" was repeated yesterday evening to a fair house and the elegant drama passed off in an excellent manner. "The Swiss Cottage" with Madame Scheller as Lizette, Mr. Margretis as Nat, and Mr. Hardie as Corporal Max kept the audience in a constant roar of laughter.

This evening we have again a comedy-bill, "Giraldi, or the Miller's wife," with an excellent cast. Madame Scheller plays Giraldi; Mr. Waldron, Don Manuel; Mr. Margretis, Gil; the Miller; Mr. Graham, Japhet; Mr. Lindsay, King Philip. Giraldi is a very amusing comedy, with an intricate plot, witty dialogue and comical situations. Mr. Margretis has full scope this evening for the display of his comic talent. Gil is one of the best comedy-parts that have been written. The Comedy of "Giraldi" will be followed by the comedy-farce of "A Roland and an Oliver," which has been a favorite piece of the public.

Hearth and Home.—We have received the first number of an illustrated periodical, entitled Hearth and Home, published in New York, with Donald G. Mitchell and Harriett Beecher Stowe editors. Joseph B. Lyman and Mary E. Dodge associate editors. It is designed "For the Farm, Garden and Fireside," and its first number is worthy the names of its editorial corps. Agriculture and horticulture, while being prominently treated, do not absorb the literary ability which it displays; for with well written articles on various topics, household matters, tales and stories, a portion set apart for the boys and girls, and miscellaneous matter of interest, and illustrations, it aims at being a family paper worthy of patronage and preserving. It contains sixteen pages; price $4 per annum.

INDIAN.—The Bease River Reville of the 28th ult. says, "A short time since an old Indian was buried in Siskiyou county, and as is the custom, his property, such as guns, money, etc., was buried with him. The latter consisted of twenty-six dollars in American coin which was placed in his mouth. After the ceremony was all over, some persons having no respect or regard for the sacred portals of the tomb, proceeded to exhume the body, and extracted therefrom the twenty-six dollars from the mouth. The disturbers of the dead were not very particular how they extracted the money from the Indian's mouth and being unable to secure it easily they split his head open. The remains were not even favored with a reinterment. This is one of the most inhuman and horrible acts we have heard of in a long time, though it is not the first time the same infernal conduct has taken place in the county. Ten or fifteen years since a similar act was perpetrated by a young man, and had he not left that part of the country on "short order" he would have been harshly but very justly dealt with by an outraged and exasperated community. There is no punishment too severe for the scoundrel who would rob the grave, even of a dead Indian, for a few paltry dollars.

PENITENTIARY.—William S. Fair, Jack Schisler, Geo. Wilson and William Anderson, were taken from the City Hall this morning about ten o'clock, and transferred to the care of Col. Rockwood, Warden of the Penitentiary. These are the four men tried and convicted at Brigham City for larceny. They are the four individuals brought from the Promontory, and if the mode of procedure usual in railroad towns had been tried on them, they would have undoubtedly adorned a telegraph pole. They have an endless variety of aliases, and will probably stay in the Penitentiary during the term of their imprisonment, viz: the first two, five years, the latter couple, three years. They were brought to the city by Sheriff Cutler, of Box Elder, and John Hart, of Brigham City.

MARRIED.—In this city, January 4th, by President D. H. Wells, Mr. Frederick B. Eldredge and Miss Almira J. Nebeker, both of this city.

HELENA THE CAPITAL OF MONTANA.—The Helena Daily Herald of the 23d ult., says, a private dispatch had been received from Virginia, which stated that a bill, for the removal of the capital to Helena, had passed the Montana Legislature that day. It was considered certain that the bill would pass the Council. The Herald says: "in no better way could the Legislature impress the people of the Territory with the idea that that body is not completely demoralized, than by giving this evidence of returning reason."

JUST RECEIVED.—We received this morning from Mr. James Dwyer, "Railroad News Depot," copies of Harpers's Weekly, Harpers's Bazaar, Hearth and Home, the Comic Monthly, and the Waterley Magazine, of the latest dates, most of them being for January 9th. Mr. Dwyer's enterprise and energy are making his business a prominent feature in the city. He supplies the latest news at the earliest possible date.

CHEYENNE.—Another shooting scrap has occurred in the once "magic city." One "Blinky Jack" goes into Harry Powers' saloon, gets into a row with the bar-keeper, who smashes him over the head with the butt end of a pistol, slung shot or wagon wheel, whereupon "Blinky" strikes for the door, but deeming his life in danger or discharges the contents of his revolver into Powers' head. Other shots were given wounding "Blinky" severely, though not fatally. Powers is not expected to recover.

Special Notices.

SHIPWRECK.—As the ship built by Kelton & Field, of the Golden Gate, was found wrecked this morning, they have resolved to continue their business of making pure candy, and are prepared to supply the public at wholesale and retail rates.
