

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Died of Old Age.—We are told by the Mineral that Mrs. L. H. Pratt, of Beaver, a lady well known and highly respected, died last Wednesday of old age. Her age was eighty years. She was noted for her life, for acts of charity and words of kindness, and leaves behind a name honored and beloved by all of her acquaintances.

Seventies' General Meeting.—Notice is hereby given, that a meeting of the Seventies will be held tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, at the Council House at half past seven o'clock.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, Clerk,
In behalf of the Council of Seventies.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 14th, 1880.

Six Black.—"Goodness gracious," exclaimed a lady in the 17th Ward, the other evening, on reading the paper that in San Francisco, President Hayes' carriage was drawn by six black horses. "Why, what in the world did he want a lot of niggers drawn to him around for?" "Guess," explained her companion, "that six black horses that is meant." "Oh," said the other, "relieved by the explanation, 'Guess so, too.'"

"Our Girls."—A small audience assembled at the Theatre last evening to witness the performance of "Our Girls." The play no doubt was a production when well presented, but last night did not do for it much credit or popularity. The actors did pretty well, but the scenery was quite at sea. A general sympathy was manifested, but with one or two exceptions, was poorly supported throughout.

Departing Missionaries.—A company of 14 or 15 missionaries left this morning for their fields of labor in Great Britain and other places. These set apart yesterday were Joseph J. Giles, John M. Bowen, Mosiah Booth, E. H. LeCheminant, Heber J. Romney, Chas. F. Willcox, Jos. Carls, Jos. S. Tingey, Wm. L. Jones and John R. Howard, bound for Great Britain; Sven Erikson, Jacob Peter Olsen and Peter O. Hansen, for Scandinavia; Jacob Weller, United States, and Casper Bygner, Switzerland. All, or most of them, got off this morning.

Dramatic Attraction.—On Friday evening next, the 11th Ward Dramatic Association will give an attractive entertainment in the Ward Assembly Rooms, for the benefit of the Association. The valuable assistance of Mr. P. Margretts has been secured to appear in conjunction with the members of the company. Two pieces are to be presented, "The Chimney Corner" and "Brother Bill and Me," in the former of which Mr. Margretts will personate his old character of "Peter Probit," and in the latter his favorite role of "Brother Bill." The entertainment should draw well.

Jared Dalton.—On Sunday morning, the Utah Southern passenger train was stopped a short distance below this city, to take on board Jared Dalton, the murderer of Mrs. Parker, who has been in the Penitentiary here for some time, but was taken to Beaver to be present at the trial of his alleged accomplice, Jennings. Dalton was accompanied south by Deputy U. S. Marshal Louis Sprague. The prisoner is described as a square-built young man, powerful in frame, with the animal largely predominating over the intellectual in his composition. With the remembrance of his horrible deed still present, the latter is an unnecessary statement.

Splendid Advertisement.—We refer to the lettering on the Z. C. M. windows, just completed by W. C. Morris, Esq., of this city.

Commencing on the north side with dry goods and continuing with boots and shoes, crockery, groceries and hardware, it is at once an index of the various classes of goods kept in the retail departments of the business-building, and a marvel of ornamentation.

The artist has introduced almost every variety of lettering imaginable from the plain block, through the whole list of antique, rustic, ribbon, grotesque and ornamental styles. All are well done, the shading being particularly delicate, the colors beautifully blended, and every letter remarkable for symmetry of form and beauty of design. The work is a masterpiece of artistic skill. The twelve windows, completed, have only to be seen to be admired. The whole will remain for many years as the best advertisement in the city.

Fire Alarm.—During the performance at the Theatre last evening, about 8:30 o'clock, an alarm of fire was sounded. There was a general stampede for a moment, everybody imagining a burning home, and betraying, for the time, more interest in our boys and girls at home, than "Our Girls" upon the stage.

Mr. Paul, the actor, evidently under the impression that his audience supposed the Theatre was afire, called out from the stage, "There's not the slightest danger. It's all within a block of hers." But the audience were not thinking of "hers," but of the uncertain "there," and continued pouring out to see the whereabouts of the blaze. The play proceeded and the frantic audience in due time came back to their seats. The fire was in the Ward building. A spirit lamp in the dental office of Dr. Chapman & Wyckoff, had exploded and caught a curtain. The room was soon thrown out of the window upon the pavement below. The bells of the Chicago hotel were a beautiful comparison. The fire flames were extinguished before they could possibly reach the scene of the accident. One of the firemen was run over by the engine, in the haste used to reach the place.

Shocking Accident.—The Junction of last evening, contains an account of a shocking accident that happened on the Utah and Northern Railroad, between Ogden and Willard City on last Saturday night. The circumstances are as follows:

"On the afternoon of the day mentioned, Mr. Baird, having business in Ogden, in company with four others, placed a hand car upon the track, and came to this city. His business being completed, Mr. Baird, about 6 o'clock in the evening, with his companions, started back for Willard. When the party started, another party, also on a hand car, were immediately behind them. The two cars were propelled at a tolerably rapid speed, but as far as known, no accident was foreseeable. On the front of the first car sat Mr. Baird, who was looking out for any obstructions that might be ahead. When the two cars reached a point about one and a half miles north of the depot, the hat of a man on Mr. Baird's car was blown off the owner's head. The owner of the hat at once called out to the driver of the rear car to stop that he might recover his hat. The gentleman on the first car understood what he said, and one of them put on the brake. But those in the second car, probably not seeing the hat blown off, and failing to understand the words addressed to them, still kept up their speed. As a consequence, when the first car backed up, the reason of the brake being applied, the second car came up and struck the first very violently. Mr. Baird with another man was thrown off the car. The last mentioned individual escaped with bruises. Not so, however, Mr. Baird. When that gentleman fell, it was across the track, and both cars passed over him. This caused the head and neck of the unfortunate victim was immediately conveyed to the house of Mr. Cary, on Wall Street, where he was put upon a table, and Dr. P. L. Anderson summoned. Upon his arrival, the Dr. made a diagnosis, and discovered that Mr. Baird, besides receiving several bruises about the face and head, had his left leg broken, midway between the ankle and the knee, the bone protruding through the skin; there was also a frightful gash on the foot of the same leg. On the right leg, between the ankle and knee, was a terrible gash, cut through to the bone, about eight inches in length and seven in width. Near this wound were five other bad lacerations, and on the foot of the same leg were two very severe cuts. But worse than this, if possible, the unfortunate man received a most severe and dangerous contusion over the small of the back."

At last accounts, the patient was in a precarious condition.

"Enquirer" Notes.—From Saturday's issue of the Territorial Enquirer:

At Center Ward, Heber City, on Sept. 8, Mr. D. K. Bunnell was out hunting, and going up to a bush to gather some berries, dropped his loaded gun, which went off and lodged the barrel in the back of his head. The ball did not strike him, but the stick was completely mashed in the leg. The pain is intense but the patient is doing well.

A man named Jerome Gennella was taken on Wednesday last by Constable H. F. Black from Silver City to Nephi and there lodged in the county jail. It has appeared that Gennella, a man named Joseph Lacy had a fight at Silver on Monday last about some woman, and on complaint of Lacy the former was arrested, tried before Justice Chapman, and sentenced to state a charge of assault with intent to kill, in $5,000 bonds. He will doubtless remain in custody until the grand jury disposes of the case.

On Tuesday night a young man named Samuel Miller broke jail at Nephi and is still at large. Miller had been confined on a charge of stealing grain from the Co-op. The fellow had obtained a pair of boots from Mr. J. A. Hyde, merchant of Nephi, on the promise of paying for them in a couple of hours. He put the boots on, went to the Co-op, gained access to the granary in the rear of the building, where he was shortly discovered by Mr. J. S. Hawkins filling some sacks. The same night Miller, with the assistance of Supt. Foot and Sheriff Cazier, who immediately went to the place and detected Miller in the act of stealing the grain. He admitted his fault, and stated he was about to take the grain over to Hyde's in order to pay for his boots. He was asked to accompany the sheriff to Mr. Hyde's store, and it was there ascertained that he had not delivered any grain there up to that time. Miller was invited to take a seat, when Mr. Hyde proceeded to take off the boots he still owned. The same night Miller, with the assistance of Supt. Foot and Sheriff Cazier, succeeded in making his escape.

Northern Notes.—Our correspondent, R. P. S., sends us a few items from Montpelier, Idaho, under date of the 5th inst. They are as follows:

"The health of the people is good, and farmers are busy putting up huge stacks of hay."

Harvesting has barely commenced; the first loads of grain, I believe, will be hauled to-morrow.

For three nights in succession last week, there was considerable frost here, causing apprehension that most of the grain was taken, but it seems a miracle, and the people have cause to thank God that it is but slightly injured, and the prospect is fair for a good crop.

There is plenty of room yet for a number of families to come in and settle.

Diphtheria has left this place, but prevails in the family of John King, Sen., across the river."

Our correspondent also speaks of a pleasant surprise party given on the evening of the 4th inst., at the residence of Postmaster David Osborne, in honor of his eldest son, Ashah, who on that day attained his majority. A real surprise, a feast, a dance, and the reading of appropriate pieces composed for the occasion by Brothers E. Burroughs, David Osborne and S. P. Richards, were among the pleasing features of the occasion.

News from the South.—We are indebted to Brother Thomas L. Greer for a few items of news, written from St. John, Apache County, Arizona, on the 14th inst.

A good many of the inhabitants of that place were at present working on the grading of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, Messrs. John W. Young, Jesse N. Smith and Ammon M. Tenney having one contract of five miles, which was nearly completed, and another for the same distance not yet commenced.

It was harvest time, and wheat, barley and oats gave a fair yield. Plenty of rain lately, and good prospects for winter grain for stock.

Many of the people generally good, whooping cough somewhat prevalent, and a few children.

The county seat of Apache County had recently been moved from St. John to Springville, by order of the County Court.

Advancing years, carelessness, disappointed, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of these causes, if shed prematurely, AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray hair, or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brassy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valuable for the softness and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white clothing, yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. d2dw
