

ROSS TO WRESTLE IN OGDEN SOON.

He Agrees to Throw Mike Yockle Four Times in One Hour.

CONTEST SET FOR JAN. 4.

Newcomer Claims Championship of Olympic Club of San Francisco And Shows Good Record.

Citizens up Ogden way are interested in a coming wrestling match, set for Jan. 4, in which Charley Ross, Utah's champion, agrees to throw four times in one hour's actual wrestling, a mat artist from San Francisco named Mike Yockle.

The latter claims the heavy and middleweight championship of the Olympic club of San Francisco, the metropolitan and national championship of New York, and the western championship which he claims he won in Denver last year. He is a stocky built wrestler, and in condition weighs in the neighborhood of 160 pounds, considerably lighter than Ross.

The contest will take place in the Ogden Opera House, and it is announced that the match will be for a side bet of $100—real money, and a purse of $250. Yockle is in training and has been doing strenuous work for some time, but Ross is doing just enough to keep in good shape. Ross says he is sure of winning. He believes he will have no trouble in putting his opponents shoulders to the mat four times in 60 minutes.

It is reported that Yockle has many admirers in the Junction city who are willing to relinquin the title of champion in his effort to beat Yockle. The latter declares that no man near his weight can throw him four times in one hour. The contest is under the management of the Ogden Opera House.

AS TO THE FUTURE.

Yale Leaders Figuring on Football Eleven for Next Year.

The athletic leaders at Yale are now engaged in summarizing the results gained by Yale during the season and in taking stock of the material and chances for next year. Among other things, the question of football reform is being discussed. It is certain that while Yale may favor some moderate changes, such as the ten-yard rule, which Walter Camp has agitated in the past, she will not consent to any very radical changes in the game as now played. The undergraduate opinion takes this view, and it is also shared, though not with such warmth, by the Yale faculty. For the present outlook Yale's team for the season of 1905 should be up to its usual high standard. The men who will graduate are Shedden and Gates, the ends; Tripp and Irwin, the guards; Hutchinson, the quarterback; Flynn and Smith, the backs. But the men who will remain will form a strong nucleus for the 1906 team. For the line positions, Flanders will be at center for one more year, Hilbornberger will continue as guard, and both Forbes and Biglow will again fill the pivotal tackle positions. Howard Jones, who played so well at left end and in the second halves of both the big games, has two more years in the field. Scientific school. In the same class is his brother, Tad Jones, who has turned out to be one of the great freshman "finds" of the year. With him at quarterback and both Morse, Roome, Knox and Levine for the other back field positions, Yale is sure of having just as fast a back field as she had the past season. So Yale will only need to develop a quiet high standard and a few efficient substitutes to give her a strong team next year. The problem of a lack of efficient material will not be nearly so pressing as it was last September.

HAVANA'S NEW TRACK.

Club of Cuban Metropolis Plans $250,- 000 Race Course.

Havana, Cuba, is to have a new race track to cost $250,000. The plans for the new course are now being considered, and the work of construction will be pushed to completion rapidly when the plans have been fully decided upon.
The course will be first class in every particular and will be a valuable acquisition to the social life of the Cuban metropolis, which at present has nothing like in the way of sports except the Jin Jai.

The track will be situated close to the city limits, on the side of a very pretty road, a favorite driveway of the Havana aristocracy. The even temperature that prevails throughout the year will make it a most desirable place for meetings at any time deemed most convenient or to hold several short meetings during the year.

The Havana Jockey club has been regularly organized with A. E. Her-andez as secretary. There is little doubt that the establishment of racing at Havana would contribute toward making it a popular winter resort for Americans. It is much more convenient than California and almost as easily and quickly reached as New Orleans.

BASEBALL 60 YEARS OLD.

A difference of opinion as to the origin of baseball, and the actual starting of New York, Samuel Winslow of Worcester, Mass., and Charles H. MacDonald to say a visit to John W. Oliver, the veteran writer of the Yankee Statesman. Mr. Oliver is 91 years of age, but is still active and at his desk every day.

Mr. Spalding had heard that the editor of the Standard, had played baseball long before there was any published record of the game, and the visit was made to hear some things about the game as it was played prior to 1838.

Henry Chadwick had claimed that baseball developed from the English game of "rounders," while Mr. Spalding is of the opinion that the game had its origin in the colonial game of "one old cat."

Mr. Oliver said that his recollection was clear as to how the game was played from 1825 to 1835 in Baltimore.
He said it was known as baseball as far back as 1825, and that the players run bases just as they do now. So far is the oldest record of baseball, so this year completes the sixtieth year of the life of baseball.

THIS IS "SUFFICIENCY."

Ex-Champion Jim Jeffries has increased greatly in weight since he broke the fighting arena for the first time. The other day at Los Angeles he pulled the scales up to 250 pounds, and it is believed that he scalped a white at that. What is more, Jeffries is not unpopular in the arena, in the terms used. He appears to be growing broader, although goodness knows he had been enough already.

SET OF NEW RULES TO FIX FOOTBALL

George Ade Has Thrown His Influence to Reform
Side.

HE BELIEVES IN CHANGES.

Makes Suggestions for Substitution of "Toss," Umpires, Kicking and Selection of Players.

George Ade has thrown his influence on the side of those who would reform football. He has done more. Wherever his best comedy, "The College Widow," is being played he has allowed the word to go forth that he favors brain force above physical force, and he has drafted a set of comprehensive rules destined to materially reform the game.

The genial Indian admitted the other day that his college play had caused him a deal of trouble in one way and another. For some months after its production he was bombarded with charges of plagiarism.

"Just when I seemed to be out of the woods," he said, "so far as adverse criticism of this nature was concerned, along came several nice people who took me to task for writing a play in glorification of the brutal game of football. They said that football excitement disorganized our colleges, encouraged gambling and drinking, put a premium on beef and crowded brains into a corner, and that in writing about the game I should have held it up to scorn, thereby pointing a moral lesson. These criticisms have touched me to the quick.
Come to think of it, football is a rough and unfriendly game, but that is not my fault. Instead of condemning the dramatist who pictures conditions as he finds them, the thing for all friends of humanity to do is to join hands and reform the game. It can be done.

Eliminate all physical violence, de-brandalize the contest, sweeten it with brotherly forbearance, and the game will at once become as harmless as jackstraws or charades. The principal objection to the game as it is now played is that strength and ferocity are put at a premium, while scholarship cuts no figure whatever.

"Under the revised rules, which I am now submitting the test of a player's ability will be his class standing. It is hoped that these rules will be approved by that vast army of editorial writers whose knowledge of the game has been obtained by reading the headlines. Walter Camp may object to some of the provisions, but what care we?"

Selections of Players—The 11 players constituting the team shall be selected by the faculty, and the student who has received the highest grade in Greek anthology shall be captain of the team.
No student shall be eligible for the team unless he is up in his class work and has an established reputation for piety.
Substitution for "Toss."—Instead of tossing a coin to determine which side gets the ball, the two captains shall select a number from a cube root of a given number provided by the professor of mathematics. The captain who is first to hand in the correct solution gets the ball.

Rotation of Umpires.—After each touchdown there shall be a change of umpires, so that the questions asked of a team may, during the progress of a long and arduous game, cover the class work in zoology, applied metaphysics, veterinary science, Sanskrit and other useful studies.

Offside Penalty.—Any player who makes a grammatical error, mispronounces a word, or seeks assistance from a fellow student shall be deemed guilty of an offside play, and his side shall be penalized at least five yards.

Substitution of Goals.—After a touchdown has been made the team making it shall be credited with five points and the captain of the team shall translate 500 words of Caesar's Commentaries. If he does so without an error his team is given an additional point, the same as if a goal were kicked. If he fails the ball goes to the opposing team on the 25-yard line.

Resuming Play.—On resuming play after a touchdown, one of the players, to be known as "It," is blindfolded and the other players join hands and circle around him, singing:

"London bridge is falling down, Falling down, falling down,
London bridge is falling down,
So farewell, my ladies!"

While the players are circling about, the player known as "It" touches one of the others in a gentlemanly manner and asks him three questions, which must be answered right up. Then he tries to guess the name of the player. If he succeeds, he picks up the ball and advances it 15 yards.

These rules probably will require further elaboration, but as they are given herewith they are sufficient to start the game on a new and humane system.

PENN' LOST MONEY.

The finance report of the athletic association of the University of Pennsylvania, which was presented at the annual meeting of the association, shows a deficit of $6,027 for the fiscal year ending Aug. 31. The gross receipts from football in 1904 were $35,220, out of which thirteen branches of sports was supported. The deficit was caused by the expenditure of large sums for fixed charges and improvements to Franklin field.

It was recommended that a system of graduate coaching be adopted for the baseball team. There will be several changes in the football coaching staff next year and it is probable that ex-Captain Torrey will be appointed field coach.

CHAMPIONSHIP BOUT.

The third day of the great interstate long distance talking match is attracting the usual crowd. Up to the time of going to press B. Nelson, the champion light-weight talker of Chicago is still $34,567 words in the lead and growing strong, with J. Britt, otherwise known as "Native Son," making himself right for show and place.
Britt's trainer, W. Britt of "Prisco," has put in a claim of foul on the ground that the Dane does not quit talking while he is being beaten, but that he never sleeps. It is a very courteous contest and much money is expected to change hands on the outcome.—With apologies to somebody.

THE WORLD'S AMATEUR SKATING CHAMPION.

The above shows Phil Kearney of the New York Athletic club, in skating togs. Kearney is the amateur skating champion of the world, outdistanting American and Canadian exponents of this popular winter pastime. In sporting circles it is believed that Kearney will successfully defend his title during the coming winter. Kearney mystified a number of prominent club-men at a recent dinner in his honor by uttering the following seeming antithesis: "A man to skate well must never skate." No one has as yet learned the answer.

FOR AUTO FANS.

The Florida Meet—Two Miles a Minute, and Coming Events.

Europe will again send many of her prominent drivers to endeavor to carry away the honors at the Florida tournament in January.

All the drivers, whether native or foreign, are bending every energy to report with a car eligible for the two-mile-a-minute class.

Hemery, winner of the Vanderbilt cup race, is coming and Lancia has called that he will be on hand; probably Nazzaro will accompany him.

Clifford Earl sailed from England last week, and both Sizis and Duray intend to be present, as well as Jenatry.
If his car is finished, he will probably Nazzaro will accompany him.

Americans who will drive foreign cars include Foxhall Keene, Chas.
Schröder, H. W. Fletcher and M. G.
Bernie.

Uncle Sam will be represented by G. Vanderbilt (probably), Walter White, Louis Ross, Montague Roberts, Carl Fisher and others.

TWO MILES A MINUTE.

In view of the talk about two miles in a minute, and the race on the program of the Ormond-Daytona tournament, which requires that speed before the prize is awarded, it may be mentioned that such a pace means 176 feet a second, or from New York to Chicago in a little over eight hours.
It is against the fastest train time of 13 hours.

Nevertheless it is not improbable that the speed will be supplied on the wave-washed sands of sea, as at least a dozen cars are being built especially for the tournament with 120 miles an hour speed as the main object.

Last year the best mile was made by H. L. Bowden with an eight-cylinder 120-horse-power Mercedes that was overweight, so the record could not be allowed. His time was 32.4 seconds. Mr. Bowden has now retired from the racing game. The present official record is 34.2 seconds by Arthur McDonald with the six-cylinder Napier racer.

"DRUNKENNESS"

Cigarette And Tobacco Habits

Cured by

TRIB.

The examination of the bath after taking "TRIB" a few days will at once convince anyone of the astonishing amount of impurities coming from the system. Because "TRIB" is a liquid and tobacco "habits" with no "after effects" and possesses every merit claimed for it, the business has grown to be one of the largest of its kind in the world.

Mr. L. L. Tallman, leading druggist, Walla Walla, Wash., writes: "I am glad to have the agency of your 'TRIB,' as I have sold more than 20 treatments of your TRIB, have sold patent remedies for the past five years; never found a remedy that gives the satisfaction your 'TRIB' does."

Mr. C. E. Hilde, leading druggist, Huntington, Okla., writes: "I have sold more than 20 treatments of your TRIB, have sold patent remedies for the past
the satisfaction your 'TRIB' does."

Mr. R. F. Payne (Payne's Pharmacy), Idaho Falls, Idaho, writes: "Your TRIB has cured many hard cases here. One man used it last fall and has not been able to smell liquor since without making him sick."

Mr. E. C. Webber, Richfield, Utah, writes: "Send me five dozen TRIB; I have sold 100 bottles of TRIB and will give all my time to the sale of TRIB."

Each package contains a full four week treatment and a guarantee.
