FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 6.—Morgan offered a concurrent resolution for a reciprocity treaty between the United States and Mexico; order printed and tabled. Williams then made a tariff speech on the Morrill bill.

The Senate then resumed consideration of Ingalls' resolution declaring that the pension arrears law ought not be repealed. Ingalls moved to modify the amendment declaring in favor of pensions to soldiers of the Mexican war, so as to limit it to the needy or disabled. In the course of a short speech he said senators were not aware of the proportion which the casualty list reached during the war. The grand total of pensionable cases, prima facie, on the rolls of the War Department, was 620,545—that is to say there were that many cases entitled to pensions if every man who died had dependent relatives. Everyone discharged for disability had a claim. Since 1860, 880,364 pensions have been granted by reason of death or disabilities, so there was still, according to the War Department rolls, 233,881 pensionable cases in which no applications had ever been made. This was conclusive answer to the charge that the pension list had been swollen by fraud, and we may hereafter look for very large accessions to the roll without any presumption of fraud as the aggregate of cases placed there was the true aggregate and the amount required to pay pensions was stupendous, but this, because war itself was a gigantic colossal. Ingalls had something to say of himself and his traducers and was followed by Hawley.

Without action, the resolution was laid aside for executive session.

Bills were introduced by Hill, of Colorado, for the cancellation of illegal enteries and sales of public lands and for refunding purchase money after executive session. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 6.—Belmont offered a resolution for transcript of Jacob R. Shepherd's letter, and replies on file in the State Department, and copies of any other letters not already communicated, from which the names of persons and firms have been omitted, and requesting the President to state what measures have been taken to recover letters declared to be missing from the files of the department; adopted.

Springer introduced a resolution asking the President for information as to the right or authority under which the Republics of North and South America were invited to send commissioners to a peace congress in Washington, November, 1882. Adopted.

Cobb introduced a resolution, asking the Secretary of the Interior for all information concerning the land grant roads; names, number of acres, and companies which failed to complete their road within the legal time; referred.

Willis introduced a bill authorizing the withdrawal from warehouses without tax of alcohol and other spirits to be used in the manufacture or manipulation of tobacco.

Robinson introduced a resolution directing the Attorney General to communicate to the House his opinion in writing on the following questions: If Joseph Warren Keifer, Speaker of the House, or Alonzo B. Cornell, or Charles Carroll, a laborer, under the department of public works, City of New York, each being a citizen of the United States, should visit any port of the British empire and should be arrested without having committed any crime or having any crime definitely charged against him, could the English government, by suspending habeas corpus or otherwise, lawfully detain him on indefinite suspicion without trial and without any right in our government to demand his release? Also his opinion on the application of the law of July 20th, 1868, to such cases, and the President's duty under it; also calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for the terms of contract for printing revenue stamps on bank checks, and for information as to whether parties holding contracts are citizens of the United States or titled subjects.

Bayne, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution that Shields and two other citizens of the United States were confined in jail in Mexico for a breach of civil contract; that they wrote Minister Morgan, but received no answer, and directing the Secretary of State to examine into the matter and report the facts to the House; adopted.

Bellzhover, of Pennsylvania, and Converse, of Ohio, obtained leave to print in the Record amendments which they proposed to offer on the apportionment bill. Beltzhover's amendment makes it unlawful for any county or parish in formation, or any district which shall consist of more than one county or parish, and in districts containing more than one county or parish, the counties or parishes which are contiguous shall be made a representative district.

The Converse amendment provides that the whole population of the United States shall be divided by 319, and the quotient shall be the ratio of representation, and that when any State shall have a fraction above the rates so large that when multiplied by 5 the result will be reduced to one or more ratios, additional representatives shall be appointed to such ratios among the several Congresses of the next decimal period, namely, the Fifty-second Congress. If there be two ratios, a representative shall be allotted to the fifth and forth periods, namely, the Fifty-second and Fifty-first Congresses. If there be three ratios, a representative shall be allotted to the fifth, forth and third periods, namely the Fifty-second, Fifty-first and Fiftieth Congresses. If there be four ratios, a representative shall be allotted to the fifth, fourth, third and second periods, namely, the Fifty-second, Fifty-first, Fiftieth and Forty-ninth Congresses.

Joyce, of Vermont, moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill for the appointment of commissioners on the subject of alcoholic liquor traffic.

Bragg, of Wisconsin, demanded a second. The motion was seconded, 72 to 60. A vote was then taken upon the adoption of the motion. Lost—yeas, 112; noes, 98. Not the necessary two-thirds. This was a strict party vote, except Beltzhover, Culbertson, Jones, of Arkansas, Ladd and Simonton. Vance voted with the republicans in the affirmative, and Davis of Illinois, Young and Gunther, of Wisconsin, with the democrats in the negative.

Adjourned.

AMERICAN.

Public Buildings.

WASHINGTON, 6.—The house and public buildings committee authorized the favorable report on the bills for the construction of a $200,000 building in Denver instead of $300,000, and reducing the amount for Peoria from $400,000 to $225,000.

Land Grant Railroads.

Mills, of Texas, introduced a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information as to the number of acres of public land that has been granted by Congress, directly to corporations and through States; what railroads have been subsidized, and the number of acres granted to each; also directing him to report to the House the net earnings of the Central Pacific, Kansas Pacific, Central branch of the Union Pacific and Sioux City and Pacific railroads from the commencement of operation of each of said companies to the present time.

Canadian and U. S. Postage.

Under the existing treaties matter printed in Canada comes into this country for about a cent a pound, while the same class of matter mailed in the United States pays postage of a cent on every two ounces. Many publishers complain of this condition, and the United States postal authorities propose in effect that any second class mail matter mailed in Canada and purported to be printed in the United States on behalf of any persons or firms doing business in the United States, shall pay United States postal rates. Canada now consents to adopt any regulations calculated to remedy the evil.

Retired and Confirmed.

Colonels Haler and Lugenbell were also retired to-day. The retirement of Surgeon-General Barnes is in abeyance, pending the probable action of Congress in retiring him with advanced rank.

The Senate confirmations were W. S. Armstrong, of Pennsylvania, Commissioner of Railroads; George Tuttle, of Nevada, and Geo. Warner, of Arizona, United States Attorneys Straw Bonds.

The Grand Jury is now inquiring into the so-called straw bond cases in the Postoffice Department, which has occupied the attention of the police court for the past three weeks.

Timber Culture.

The Secretary of the Interior has modified the ruling by ex-Secretary Schurz, by which any useful timber heretofore excluded can now be planted under the timber culture act.

Washington Territory.

The House sub-committee favors the admission of Washington Territory as a State.

Confirmations.

The Senate to-day confirmed the following postmasters: Frank C. Robbins, Winnamucca, Nevada; Wm. Gibson, Austin, Nevada; David O. Adkinson, Virginia City, Nevada; Louis P. Berry, Colfax, W. T.

Burglars.

CHICAGO, 6.—Larry Murray and James Rice, arrested on suspicion last Friday, prove to be notorious cracksmen, and to-night confessed to 15 burglaries in Chicago, the total profits of which are several thousand dollars. Goods worth $8,000 have been secured in places indicated by them.

Smallpox.

Fourteen new cases of small-pox and six deaths occurred to-day.

A $7,000 Jager.

There was considerable excitement among firms doing business on account of the non-appearance of Henry J. Jager, who is alleged to be a defaulter in the sum of $7,000. Jager has been for several years doing a commission business with his brother Philip. The firm had good credit until Philip withdrew, when Henry had a hard time establishing credit. Eventually, however, he secured considerable advances, and had last week bought a number of cattle on time. This morning he failed to appear at the yards or at his office. The losses range from $200 to $1,800, and are distributed among a large number of firms. Jager is a young man of good habits, and has a wife and two children, who believe he is still in the city.

Sir Henry Parkes

The papers have long interviews with Sir Henry Parks, of Australia, who was brought through on swift time by a Chicago, Burlington & Quincy special train yesterday. He is busy to-day examining the stock yards, water works, fire department and other things of interest, with the intention of getting points to carry back to New South Wales.

Prize Fight.

NEW YORK, 6.—The Sun's New Orleans dispatch on the coming prize fight says: Ryan being interviewed said in response as to how he felt, "Splendid; never better in my life. I am anxious for the fight to take place, and wish it were to come off to-morrow. Come in and see me eat, and if I cannot do justice then man never could. I weigh 187 pounds, but I will rest from this out, as my hard work is all over. I will enter the ring at 160 pounds. That the battle will take place is certain, as nothing but the death of myself or Sullivan can stop it. I hope both of us will be well on that day, and that our backers will select a square referee, who will decide the battle in favor of the best man."

Sullivan was found at Schroder's Garden. The place was filled with a crowd of sporting men. Joe Goss said: "You have come here to see Sullivan? Look at him, he is just the picture of health." Sullivan said: "I feel just like fighting. I weigh 178 pounds." Then he turned to Goss and said: "All I ask of Regan is to pick the ground where the authorities can't interfere. I want a fair field and no favors. That will satisfy me. A few moments afterwards Sullivan said with a smile: "I will go anywhere in the world with Ryan, as I want the fight to come off." The city is crowded with sporting men, and every hotel is filled with them. The sole topic of conversation is about the fight. Upwards of $40,000 have been bet on it here since Wednesday evening. Incoming trains are bringing many sporting men from New York, Troy, Albany, Boston, Chicago, and all points east and west. Tickets to the scene of the fight are advertised for sale at $10 each.

Jewish Sympathy.

The Grand Lodge of the Sons of Benjamin invites their oppressed brethren in Russia to emigrate to this country. The State Department will be asked to use every means in its power to relieve them. Resolutions of regret on the death of President Garfield were adopted. The Independent Order of the Free Sons of Israel decided to tax its members $1 each and send the proceeds, $8,000, to the persecuted Hebrews in Russia.

The Pullman Case.

ST. LOUIS, 6.—Justice Miller of the Supreme Court and Judge McCrary, to-day heard distinguished counsel argue on the application of the Pullman Palace Car Company for interlocutary injunction against the Missouri Pacific Railroad management, pursuant to temporary injunction already granted against the use of the Wagner sleepers and cars on the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain, and against interference with the Pullman cars.

Destructive Collision.

SAN FRANCISCO, 6.—The east and west bound freight trains and emigrants on the Southern Pacific collided last night in San Garginio Paso. Both engines and thirty cars were demolished.

Fatal Accident.

BALTIMORE, 6. — John Cehish, John Moshka and Joseph Packka were pushing a car load of coal on a trestle work at Locust Point, when the trestle work gave way and the men were killed.

Call for Fives.

WASHINGTON, 6.—The Secretary of the Treasury to-morrow issues the 103th call for the redemption of continued fives. The amount is $20,000,000, principal and interest, payable about the 1st of April.

FOREIGN.

Recovering.

PARIS, 6.—The dreaded fortnightly settlement has come and gone, working far less havoc, happily, on the bourse than was feared. With the exception of the Union Generale no bank of importance in Paris has actually been declared bankrupt, although several are known to be so shaky that it is only by a miracle of financial agility that they maintain their position. The Credit Provinciale, which is supposed to have been heavily hit in the late panic, asserts its ability to meet all its engagements as soon as remittances due from Lyons reach it. The directors and shareholders of the Union Generale will evidently be the chief sufferers. As always happens in times of financial panic, rumors of numerous suicides have been floating about for some time past. It was reported two days ago that M. de La Panome had shot himself. This story proved to be a pure invention. The only authenticated suicides which have yet occurred in consequence of the bourse panic are that of a clerk called De La Noire, for many years employed at a stock-broker's in the Rue Lafitte, and that of an elderly lady named Lecuyer, who went out of her mind and threw herself out of a fourth floor window in the Faubourg St. Denis. The body of a gentleman, who is believed to have been ruined by the crisis, was also discovered a day or two ago in the Bois de Boulogne, but no clue to his identity has yet been obtained. It is as yet impossible to say what were the real motives of his suicide.

Egyptian Complications.

LONDON, 6.—Affairs in Egypt are subjects of considerable anxiety to the Government. The Anglo-French note commits this country to armed intentions on the occurrence of either internal or external complications menacing the existing regime, and the Khedive's position just now is exceedingly precarious. The National party, headed by Araby Bey, has issued a manifesto setting forth its demand. While they recognize the services which England and France have rendered to Egypt in the past, the nation hopes that the Anglo-French control will soon be removed, as the evils of this control exceed the benefits. Fifty thousand troops will be needed to suppress the movement. The English radicals are strongly opposed to interference on the part of the Government, but after the joint note it is not easy to see how Gladstone can back out of the responsibility he has assumed.

Wholesale Arrest.

DUBLIN, 6.—The only event of importance in Ireland is the arrest of a whole townland of people in the west, on suspicion of having been concerned in the murder of Huddy and his nephew, whose bodies were found at the bottom of Lough Mask the other day. Huddy was a process server, in the employment of Lord Ardilaun, and set out with his nephew to serve writs in the wild district on the borders of Mayo and Galway, known as the Joyce country. They were inveigled into a house and barbarously murdered, and their bodies were then tied up in an old wool sack, weighted and dropped into the lake. The police have no direct evidence against anyone except the owner of the cabin, where the men were brained, but a large number of persons had a hand in the murder.
