

LOCAL NEWS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 27

Wants a School.—A country settlement in want of an efficient and reliable school teacher can probably secure the services of such a one by applying to Coalter & Snelgrove, music dealers, of this city.

A Misplaced Chest.—Mr. Frederick Christenson writes as follows from Fairview, under date of November 24th:

"There is a chest (emigrant's baggage) sent here from Nephi by mistake, and now at the Co-op. Store, marked A. Brown, Sanpete, Utah. As I suppose the party owning it is very much in need of it, please make its whereabouts known through your paper."

New Styles.—In to-day's issue is a new advertisement of John C. Cutler & Brother, agents for the Provo Mills. The factory is making strides in the production of new styles of goods, with which the shelves of Messrs. Cutler & Brother are being replenished. The latest from Provo are in blankets, dress flannels, overcoating and suitings.

Arraigned.—Lorenzo Stutz, of Mill Creek, was arraigned in the District Court to-day on a two-count charge of unlawful cohabitation. The periods alleged are—December 1, 1883, to November 30, 1884; December 1, 1884, to April 30, 1886, the alleged wives being Elizabeth Stutz and Catherine Stutz. A plea of guilty was entered and sentence set for Monday at 10 a.m.

Held to Answer.—On Wednesday afternoon, in the case of the United States vs. A. W. Winberg, the deputies failed to find any additional witnesses besides the defendant's three daughters, whose evidence was noted in Wednesday's News, so at the request of the District Attorney, the commissioner placed Mr. Winberg under $1,500 bonds to await the grand jury's action.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day: Societe Anonyme des Mines de Lexington vs. Alex. Mayberry; the Court further holds for plaintiff in matter of costs.

Thomas Marshall vs. John F. Clautmann et al.; dismissed, and attachment discharged.

Arthur Brown vs. George J. Holliday; default and judgment.

Eileen Frederickson and Lars Nelson, natives of Sweden, but now residents of Plute County, were admitted to citizenship.

United States vs. Thomas Jenkins; unlawful cohabitation, one count; plea of guilty, and court suspends sentence. Societe Anonyme des Mines, etc., vs. R. J. McIntosh; trial before court; argued and submitted.

The People, etc., vs. A. J. Peacock and W. A. Thompson; assault on Al. Householder; appeal from Justice's Court; jury waived, and trial before Court.

United States vs. Lorenzo Stutz; unlawful cohabitation, two counts; plea of guilty; sentence set for Monday, Nov. 20th.

A Twentieth Warder Arrested.—At 7 o'clock this morning Deputies Pratt and Cannon called at the house of Wm. H. Tovey, in the Twentieth Ward, and arrested him on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. The examination came up before Commissioner McKay to-day. The complaint, made by D. W. Rensch, accuses the defendant of having from Dec. 1, 1883, to Nov. 1, 1886, lived with his two wives. As no counsel was present on either side, the Commissioner conducted the proceedings.

Mrs. Anna Maria Tovey was sworn and testified—I am a married lady; the defendant is my husband.

Mrs. Harriet Salina Tovey testified—I am the wife of the defendant; live in the Twentieth Ward; my husband lives with me a portion of the time; my youngest child is two and a half months old.

Miss Eliza Tovey testified—The defendant is my father; my mother's name is Anna Maria; I am 14 years old; my youngest sister, Emily, is two years old; father lives with mother a portion of the time.

The Commissioner fixed the amount of bail at $1,000, and W. J. Beattie and Miles Romney became sureties. The witnesses were also required to give bonds of $300 each for their appearance before the grand jury on Nov. 30th.

Thomas Jenkins Promises.—To-day Thomas Jenkins, of the Fourth Ward of this city, was arraigned in the Third District, on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. The indictment alleged that subsequent to December 1, 1883, the defendant had lived with Ann Jenkins, Mary R. Avery Jenkins, Mahala Elmer Jenkins and Mary Ann Bailey Jenkins as his wives, contrary to the provisions of the Edmunds law. After a short consultation with Assistant District Attorney Varian, the accused entered a plea of guilty.

Mr. Varian then stated to the court that the members of the grand jury who found the indictment and himself were all of the opinion that Mr. Jenkins was disposed to obey the law in the future, as he believed it to be supreme. They thought him sincere in this, and recommended that the court listen to what he had to say.

The Court then interrogated the defendant, who said he was willing to obey the law as construed by the Courts. His legal wife had died since he was indicted.

The Court suggested, "You should marry one of the others, and make her the legal wife, and live with her alone."

The defendant said he would do this, and by his request the Court explained that a common law marriage was legal in Utah.

Judge Zane then remarked that in cases of this kind, where the defendant was willing to conform to the law, it was customary to suspend sentence pending good behavior, and a similar order was made in this case.

The Penitentiary Prisoners Entertained.—Yesterday (Thanksgiving) was, to the prisoners in the penitentiary, like a burst of sunshine in the midst of clouds. By courtesy of Marshal Dyer, to whom an application for the privilege was made, the Young Ladies' Association of Brigham City was permitted to supply the Thanksgiving dinner. A deputation of two members of the society were accorded the privilege of setting the tables, which were handsomely garnished with flowers. The repast was excellent and highly appreciated by the recipients of the kindly attentions.

At two o'clock the inmates of the prison were also regaled with a treat in artistic form, in the shape of a mixed entertainment, in which music was the predominating element, with recitations and readings interspersed, making an attractive variety. The whole had been, with the consent of the Marshal and Warden, concocted and arranged by Manager H. B. Clawson, of the Salt Lake Theatre, whose ability as a caterer in that line is well known. The performers from the outside were Prof. Geo. Careless, Prof. E. Stephens, Prof. J. H. Paul, Messrs. Geo. D. Pyper, Moroni Thomas, C. S. Burton, John G. Midgley and Adelbert Beesley, and Mrs. Agnes Olsen Thomas, Miss Edith Clawson Knowlton, Mrs. Vilate Young, Miss Ella Beesley. Of the inmates who took part in the performances were a choir, Mr. Rudger Clawson and Mr. T. M. Johnson.

The entertainment was of a high order artistically, and was greatly enjoyed by the auditors, many of whom were stirred with emotion by the influence of pathetic and exquisite music.

The Marshal, Mrs. Dyer and party of friends and the Warden were in the prison during the proceedings of the day, and took an interest in making matters as pleasant as possible.

Mr. T. M. Johnson, in behalf of the prisoners, moved a vote of thanks to the visitors who had so kindly and ably contributed to their entertainment. Bishop W. M. Bromley made a similar motion expressive of appreciation of the courtesy manifested by Marshal Dyer and Warden Brown, for the part they had taken. Both motions were unanimously and heartily sustained.

Similar customs prevail on holidays in various other prisons in the country, some of the best vocal and instrumental performers giving their services on such occasions. They are praiseworthy and humane, tending to relieve prison life of its almost unendurable monotony.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A Runaway Train Crashes into Another—Brakeman Killed.

Wreck on the Utah & Northern.

We learned the particulars this afternoon, from E. A. Stratford, Esq., of the Utah Journal, of a frightful accident that occurred on Wednesday night, about five miles from Logan, Cache County, on the Utah & Northern railway. About 11 p.m. on the date mentioned, two sections of a freight train started from Mendon for Logan. When going down Cache Hill, the second section, on which were two locomotives, became unmanageable, its speed increasing as it went down the heavy grade. Brakes were set, engines reversed and sand thrown on the track, but without avail. The crew of the first section became apprised of the fact that the train following them was coming at a fearful rate, and an effort was made to get away. A full head of steam was put on and Conductor Galbraith went out on the back of his caboose with his lantern, where he signaled the fast-approaching train to stop. No attention seemed to be paid to him, however, and just before the collision occurred he sprang into the air, having done all that he could.

His brakeman, James E. McCabe, was in the car, and seated himself on a coil which was being forwarded to Montpelier, Idaho, for a dead locomotive engine there. The wild train, which had attained a speed of not less than 70 miles per hour, struck the caboose with terrific force, hurling it from the track, and crushing it to fragments. A freight car in front was also wrecked. The locomotives on the runaway left the track, one to either side, and the cars piled up on and about them, making a terrible wreck.

The front train proceeded to Logan, where about 50 men were gathered and taken back to the scene of the accident. There an awful scene presented itself. Conductor Galbraith was found to have received but slight injuries on one hand. The brakeman, Mr. McCabe, was in the wreck, and was horribly mutilated. His head and back were mangled and cut, and his death had probably been instantaneous. The body was taken to Logan, where an inquest was held yesterday, the coroner's jury throwing the responsibility on the management of the road, for using faulty brakes. Mr. McCabe leaves a wife and one child at his home at Eagle Rock, whither his body was forwarded. He was about 30 years of age.

The entire crew of the wild train, when they found that it was beyond their control, jumped and escaped without serious injury. Had they remained there would have been several names added to the killed. Yesterday passengers were transferred past the wreck on sleighs, but to-day a track has been built around it, and trains are running again.

PRESIDENT A. M. CANNON'S ARREST.

HE IS CHARGED WITH UNLAWFUL COHABITATION—$10,000 BAIL REQUIRED.

On Wednesday evening, about 8 o'clock, President Angus M. Cannon was arrested on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. The circumstances connected with the affair are as follows: It is well known by the people that since his release from the penitentiary about a year since, President Cannon has appeared in public only when his duty positively required it. This was owing to an understanding that the District Attorney had declared that he would put him in prison again. Recently, however, word was brought to Brother Cannon that Secretary Thomas and Marshal Dyer had stated positively that there was nothing against him. Believing that these officials would not make such a statement unless it was true, there was not so much of an object in keeping out of the way of the crusaders.

A few days ago Brother Cannon's son John wanted to go out deer hunting in the mountains above Draper, and requested his father to accompany him. The latter did so, and the trip was made in Pres. Cannon's buggy. On Wednesday evening as they were returning home on the State Road, about four miles south of the city, they came up with a light wagon containing four men—Marshal Dyer and Deputies Vandercook, Pratt and Cannon. John Cannon remarked to his father, "I believe those are deputies." Brother Cannon, remembering the statements referred to above, felt no uneasiness, but as the wagon containing the marshals was proceeding slowly, and he was anxious to get home, drove past. Marshal Dyer noticed the vehicle and remarked "I'll bet that is some one we want." Deputy Bowman Cannon replied, "That is Angus Cannon's buggy," and Deputy Pratt added, "Yes, I'll bet $100 it is."

The marshals then followed President Cannon for about half a mile, when they suddenly drove out the road and forged ahead. The Marshal shouted for him to stop, as they thought there was a man in the buggy they wanted. Brother Cannon held up, both teams coming to a stop, and standing erect in his buggy, so as to show himself, replied, "I guess I am not the man you want." The Marshal answered that he was, and that he had been looking for him for months. The arrest was then made, and the defendant was brought to the city, and Commissioner McKay notified. Some little interest was manifested by the Marshal at the arms found in President Cannon's buggy, until the latter gentleman explained where they had been.

After waiting about an hour, the Commissioner came, and President Cannon entered a plea of not guilty to a complaint, made by D. W. Rensch, and charging him with living with Sarah Cannon and Mattie Hughes as his wives, from January 1, 1886, to August 1, 1886.

Mr. Dickson stated that the witnesses had been notified to appear this (Friday) morning at 10 o'clock, for the examination.

Bail in the case was fixed at $10,000, which Mr. Richards, counsel for the defense, suggested was rather high. Mr. Dickson sneeringly remarked that heavy bail had not been found so in another case, whereupon the defendant remarked that on a former occasion $1,500 had been sufficient, and that he had even been allowed his liberty for a while on giving his word that he would appear.

The amount of bail required, was given, however, without any further protest on the part of the defendant, Messrs. David James and Hyrum Groesbeck becoming sureties. The examination was set for 10 a.m. on Monday, December 6th.

The witnesses summoned were before Commissioner McKay this morning, and were notified to be present on the date fixed for the examination.

HOMICIDE AT KANAB.

W. H. HALLIDAY KILLS THE SEDUCER OF HIS WIFE.

KANAB, U. T., Nov. 29, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

Yesterday, about 4:30 p.m., Wilford H. Halliday shot and killed Joseph Dobson at this place. Halliday went to Dobson's house and found him asleep on the bed and fired, the first shot passing through his shoulder. Dobson arose and Halliday again shot him through the head killing him instantly. Halliday gave himself up to the officers and is held in custody.

The cause of the shooting was that Dobson had committed adultery with Halliday's wife while he (Halliday) was in the Utah Penitentiary, from which he was pardoned a few months ago.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY NOV. 29

REINSTATED.

To the Saints:

In the course I have pursued within the last few weeks, I feel that I have erred in criticising the decisions lately given against me, by giving publicity to statements that have had a tendency to unjustly reflect upon a High Council of the Church, and sincerely ask all I have so wronged to forgive me.

A. MILTON MUSSER.

In view of Brother Musser having acknowledged his error, it has been unanimously adopted as the sense of the High Council that he be restored to the love and confidence of its members and the Church.

In witness whereof I have hereunto affixed the seal of the High Council this 27th day of November A. D., 1886.

JAMES D. STIRLING,
Clerk pro tem.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 27th, 1886.

Four Counts.—This afternoon John Adams, of Centerville was arraigned on a four-count indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation with Mrs. Mariette Adams and Mrs. Lizzie Cleveland Adams as his wives. He pleaded not guilty, and his bail was increased to $2,000.

Another "Promise."—In the Third District Court to-day, William A. Morrow, a non-"Mormon," was arraigned on the charge of unlawful cohabitation and entered a plea of guilty. Upon the usual question being put to him by Judge Zane, he replied that he would hereafter obey the law, whereupon sentence was suspended.

Arraignment.—Isaac Brockbank was arraigned in the Third District Court to-day on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. The indictment contains one count, and alleges that from Oct. 1, 1883, to Sept. 17, 1886, he lived with Kate Howard Brockbank and Mary Ann Park Brockbank as his wives, in Salt Lake City. A plea of not guilty was made. A new bond was required from the defendant, the amount of bail being increased from $1,000 to $1,500.

Lost Boy.—A little boy about 10 years of age was picked up here by the police nearly a year ago, and was kept at the City Hall for some time when Mrs. Matilda M. Busby, of the 21st Ward, took him in charge, and has him now subject to the call upon her for his release by any one having authority to demand it. He gives the name of James Peter Warpole. Any one possessing information of his relatives, or having a clue thereto, will please communicate the same.

The County Jail.—To-day Edward Ryan was sent to the county jail by Judge Zane. Ryan was indicted by the grand jury for petit larceny, it being alleged that, on October 30, he stole $15—$10 and $5 in gold—belonging to Michael O'Rourke. The theft was committed in a saloon. The accused stated that he had taken the money, but was under the influence of liquor at the time. The Court appointed S. W. Lewis as Ryan's counsel, but after consultation the plea of guilty was allowed to remain and the court sentenced the defendant to 30 days in the county jail.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day:

The People, etc., vs. Edward Ryan; petit larceny; plea of guilty; sentenced to one month in Salt Lake County Jail.

The United States vs. Isaac Brockbank; unlawful cohabitation, one count; defendant arraigned and plead not guilty.

Societe de Mines de Argent vs. Rich'd Macintosh; trial resumed before the Court.

The United States vs. Wm. A. Morrow; unlawful cohabitation, one count; plea of guilty, and sentence suspended.

Joseph Rogers was admitted to citizenship.

The United States vs. John Adams; unlawful cohabitation, four counts; defendant arraigned and pleads not guilty; bail fixed at $2,000.

Arrested.—About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Deputy Marshal Vandercook, while in quest of another party in the Twenty-first Ward, ran against Joseph Blunt, against whom an indictment for unlawful cohabitation was found by the last grand jury. Mr. Blunt has been keeping out of the public gaze more or less since that time, his wife being on the verge of confinement, and he desiring to be near her at the critical moment; this having been reached (a pair of boys having been born on the 24th inst.) the father has not been so particular the last day or two, with the result stated. He has not tried to conceal his marital relations, however, and frankly admitted everything before the grand jury that indicted him. He was brought into court immediately after the arrest, and given till Monday morning to plead. He then went before McKay and gave bonds in the sum of $1500, S. P. Teasdale and D. L. Davis becoming sureties. It is understood the indictment contains but one count.

Ogden Valley.—A letter from Eden states that everything is moving along in that settlement in a quiet, peaceable manner. The writer says: "We have a good Sunday school, which is, as a general thing, well attended. Our Primary Association is pretty well patronized. The Y. M. M. I. and Y. L. M. I. A. hold meetings every week, at both of which there is a very fair attendance. The members of the Female Relief Society are none behind the others in striving to do all the good they can.

Last Saturday night the fiercest snow storm that Eden has experienced for years set in, and continued for over two days. On Sunday the wind almost blew a hurricane, preventing nearly everybody from appearing outside of their doors, except to feed their stock or get them to water, which, in many instances, was found to be a very difficult task; but for the last day or two the weather has moderated, and the heat of the sun has settled the snow down considerably, making excellent sleighing.

Our Dramatic Company has commenced its winter season, and has some excellent pieces in rehearsal which will be produced during the long, monotonous winter months. The performances of the company since its organization have been well patronized.

The health of the people here is good. I do not know of one case of sickness."

THE INSANE ASYLUM RELIEVED.

THE AUDITOR ISSUES THE WARRANT FOR THE MONEY.

We have already published the opinion of the U. S. District Attorney to the effect that the support of the Insane Asylum is a continuous obligation or debt upon the Territory, and that the duty could be legally discharged even in the absence of a legislative appropriation. Upon the aforesaid written opinion the following official endorsement was placed:

"Mr. N. W. Clayton:

"Sir—I endorse and approve the within opinion and recommend that the amount for board and treatment of patients in the Insane Asylum be paid.

"CALEB W. WEST, Governor."

The auditor this morning issued the warrant, the amount involved being $10,275.94. The sum has either been paid, or will be shortly, by Treasurer Jack.

Seeing that the step could be taken with safety by the responsible officials (Auditor and Treasurer) it was the proper thing to do. It is a subject for congratulation that a worthy and beneficent public institution is saved from the dragging and crippling process despite the arbitrary efforts of the late Governor to the contrary.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY NOV. 29,

Free Again.—To-day Judge Wm. J. Cox and Wm. G. Bickley, of Beaver, and Peter Wimmer, of Parowan, were taken before Commissioner Critchelow, and after taking the required oath were discharged. They have each served a six months' term and 30 days additional for the fine, for the offense of unlawful cohabitation.

Fine and Cheap Fruit.—Provo has been noted this year for fine apples and pears, which are being sold at unusually low prices. On the arrival of trains at the Provo depot, a number of juveniles are on hand with baskets of fruit, which they offer to passengers at prices that occasion favorable comment from travelers hailing either from the east or west.

Sentenced to One Year.—Brother Lorenzo Stutz, of Mill Creek, was called in the Third District Court to-day to receive sentence on a two-count indictment for unlawful cohabitation. He declined to make any promise as to his future conduct, and was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary, and to pay a fine of $100 and costs of prosecution.

Carp.—We are in receipt of the following, which will be of interest to a great many:

Editor Deseret News:

The U. S. carp car is expected at Ogden next Wednesday, and here Wednesday or Thursday.

A. M. MUSSER,
Acting Fish Commissioner.

Aldispatch upon this expectation is based as follows:

DEKVER, Nov. 26, 1886.

A. M. Musser, Salt Lake City:

Carp car will arrive at Ogden at 5:40 p.m. to-morrow (Tuesday).

GEO. H. H. MOORE.

Badly Frozen.—Charles Stain, of Manti, Sanpete County, was brought up from the south the other day and placed in the Deseret Hospital for treatment. About two weeks since, while traveling as an agent for the "Floral Record," a picture of which George E. Anderson is proprietor, he was caught in a snow storm in the mountains between Castle Dale and Sanpete Valley. He lost his way and would have perished had he not been found by John Lowry, about ten miles from Manti, to which point he was conveyed. His hands and feet were badly frozen, and it is feared that the left foot will have to be amputated. He is receiving every possible attention at the hospital.

Mr. L. D. Vinson D. & J. R. R., has tried and endorses Red Star Cough Cure.
