HEARINGS IN DISTRICT COURT.

Goddard Divorce Decree Modified by Judge Rolapp—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rawson Divorced.

AUSTRIAN SHOT IN A SALOON.

Board of Education Meeting—Funeral of W. Brown—Arrested for Sending Uncomplimentary Postcard.

As Judge Rolapp is completing the business of the second district court before the expiration of his term, each session of court is a very busy one. Yesterday a large number of cases received attention.

In the case of Lena Goddard against Howard Goddard, a decision was rendered modifying the original decree of divorce. The question was reopened on the petition of the mother for the custody and control of the child, including permission to take it out of the state and keep it there. This the judge refused to allow, but on the other hand he refused to allow a cross-petition of the father asking that he be given exclusive custody of the little one. In rendering the decision the court reviews the entire case and states that the granting of the decree on the ground of desertion was not justified, and that the court had been imposed upon by an agreed statement of alleged facts, and therefore had granted the decree. He could find nothing in the actions of either husband or wife since the granting of the divorce which should bear either from associating with the child. The decree as modified provides that the mother is granted general care and custody of the child, but the father may have full and free access to it at all reasonable times for such association and enjoyment as is usual between a father and child. If it shall be necessary for the health of the mother to travel out of the state, then the mother may do so on giving a $500 bond to return it to the state in accordance with the provisions of the decree. The little one must not be kept out of the state for a longer period than six months, and when returned must not be taken out again within two weeks. The father is to pay alimony for the support of the child to the amount of $25 per month, while the child is within the state, and $15 per month when without the state of Utah. The mother must notify the father at least two weeks before taking the child out of the state, and within 24 hours after bringing the child back.

In the case of Mary E. Rawson vs. William W. Rawson, involving divorce on the grounds of desertion and non-support, the court heard testimony and granted a decree of divorce, awarding to the plaintiff a permanent alimony and the defendant's interest in his father's estate valued at $300. The couple were married in Pontefract in 1903 and have a child.

In the divorce case of Henrietta Christensen vs. Nels Christensen, an order was entered continuing for the term the hearing in order to show cause heretofore set for this day. The defendant in the case is in jail awaiting trial for adultery and arson.

Mrs. Jennie Vanderveen has brought suit against her husband, Peter Vanderveen, for a decree of divorce, alleging non-support. The couple were married at Baker City, Ore., in June, 1900.

MORE BURGLES.
Stimpson's cafe on Twenty-fifth street was robbed some time during the night by burglars, who entered through the rear by means of a ventilator shaft, and got away with about $25, secured from the cash drawer.

The Riverside mill and also Humphries' planing mill were each entered by burglars during the night, but nothing of value was carried away from either place.

SHOT IN A SALOON.
While standing in a saloon on Wall avenue last night between 9 and 10 o'clock, Nick Danich, an Austrian, was shot in the leg and painfully wounded. No one in the room seems to have heard the shot. There were about 40 men in the saloon at the time. The shot was fired from the outside into the room, striking Danich in the fleshy part of the leg. He immediately shouted that he was shot and fell to the floor. The men in the room turned their attention to him. Danich says he has had no trouble with anyone and can suggest no motive for the deed. Drs. Rich and Fernlund attended to the injured man and found that the wound, while painful, was probably not dangerous.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.
At the meeting of the board of education last night, the applications for positions as teachers were received, one from W. Orton of Ogden and one from C. B. Greer of Moxmouth, Ore. They were referred to the teachers' committee.

A report of the committee on teachers recommended that hereafter teachers teaching as substitutes would get as much pay proportionately as the regular teachers occupy positions. The report was adopted.

About 100 Ogden teachers have notified the superintendent that they will attend the eighth annual teachers' convention.

THE MURRAY DEPARTMENT.
The "News" is delivered in Murray and vicinity from the branch office every night. J. S. Barlow, Branch Manager. Orders for Church Works and advertisements received. Telephone: Office, 35; residence, 38-A. Independent.

The regular session of the city council was held in the courthouse Tuesday evening, Dec. 20. In respect to the action which should be taken in regard to the Greeks having their places of business open on Sunday, Attorney McCreary informed the council that the complaint could be filed against the Greeks, but he considered it was poor policy to discriminate against parties; if the Greeks were compelled to close their city ordinance, the Candy Box, owned by Mr. Hoover, or any other place of business violating the laws of the city should also be compelled to comply with the city ordinance.

As it would cost between $50 and $75 to change the law on Vine street from the Progress company's poles to the Utah Independent company's poles, and there would be no benefit in the change, it was decided to let the law remain where they are for the present.

Albert H. Grice (colored), who was appointed as deputy marshal to act in that capacity among his own people, without compensation, was removed from office on account of his conduct beyond his authority, the council revoked his appointment.

SCHOOL EXERCISES.
Christmas exercises were held in all the departments of the Murray Central school Friday afternoon. The trustees, as well as a great many of the parents, were present to listen to the program given by the children. Each child was liberally supplied with candy, which they had artistically made with their own hands. The walls of each department were decorated with the children's work. The school closes until Jan. 3.

POLICE COURT NOTES.
A complaint was filed in the justice's court on Thursday by George Duns, a Greek, against John Pappas, another Greek, charging him with gambling. The one was tried before Justice McConie yesterday afternoon. Mr. Pappas stated that he conducted a saloon, and that he and his patrons were in the habit of playing cards for boxes of cigars.

It was shown by the prosecution that when the defendant lost he paid-in cash, but when his patrons lost, he paid in cigars. This was shown by the evidence, and he was fined $20.

Joe Pappas was also convicted of gambling, and fined $5.

Andrew Kopolopoulos was fined $5 for being drunk.

G. C. Sourwine, who was formerly a cook at the Beck hotel, was arrested yesterday afternoon for passing worthless checks. On Saturday last he passed one on Joe Knechtler, who did not detect the same until it was turned down at the bank. Inquiry at the police station in Salt Lake revealed the fact that several others had been duped the same way at that place by the same party, but the Salt Lake authorities had been unable to locate him. From present indications he will have to face the charge of forgery.

WEDDING BELLS.
Orlando Bateman and Miss Ella Brinkhurst of Taylorville were married in the Salt Lake Temple on Wednesday, Dec. 21. Miss Brinkhurst is one of the most popular young ladies of the ward. Mr. Bateman leaves for a mission to England on Dec. 28.

Arthur C. Casper and Miss Alley A.

vention, which opens in Salt Lake Jan. 4. The matter was reported to the board of education last night at its regular meeting. A report was also made to the board of the progress of the Bunch school had offered to guarantee the regular attendance of 21 pupils if the board would rescind its former action of closing the school. The matter was referred to the teachers' committee for report.

UNCOMPLIMENTARY POSTCARD.
Deputy United States Marshal L. H. Smyth came to Ogden yesterday and arrested a man going by the name of Comer, who was doing a brazen act at one of the vaudeville theaters. The charge against Comer is that of making improper use of United States mail for sending postal cards to a firm in Chicago. The defendant is now in custody, and complimentary references to the firm addressed. Assistant United States Attorney Clervington came to Ogden to take charge of the case, and Comer was taken before United States Commissioner Thomas Maloney. He made a frank statement admitting that he had sent the card, being exasperated at the treatment he had received and by the failure of the firm addressed to comply with his order. He was placed under bonds of $100 and released on his own recognizance until today, when he expects to readily furnish the surety. The defendant's case was referred to Postoffice Inspector Sharp, who referred to the complaint on which the warrant was issued.

FUNERAL OF WALTER BROWN.
Walter Brown, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown, who fell a victim to typhoid fever a few days ago while at St. Louis studying medicine, was laid to rest in the family burial ground Thursday afternoon, a large funeral cortege following his remains to the last resting place. The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held at the Methodist church, Rev. Blair officiating. Several choice musical selections were rendered by the church choir, and the service was beautiful, comforting sermon, eulogizing the many virtues and noble traits of character possessed by the deceased. The casket was covered with flowers.

HOME FROM WORLD'S FAIR.
Samuel T. Whitaker, director general of the Utah exhibit at the world's fair, St. Louis, returned yesterday, pleased to get back to Utah and home. In speaking of the fair Mr. Whitaker said it was the most elaborate and magnificent exhibit the world has ever had. He said the Utah exhibit was one of the most beautiful and complete of the world, and that he had the pleasure of visiting the fair saw the largest and most complete showing of the world's products in every department that may perhaps ever be brought together again.

Especially was Mr. Whitaker pleased and satisfied with Utah's exhibit at the fair. He states that no exhibits attracted more attention than did those from Utah. The people of the world were interested in seeing the various lines of manufacture, agriculture and educational displays from our state. Many people spent hours in studying Utah and her people, and the showing made by our state has done much to allay the prejudice which the people of the world in general have had concerning Utah and her people. The impression which many have been led to believe that the people of Utah are illiterate and depreciable education, was dispelled by the excellent educational exhibit which Utah had at the fair. Perhaps the one feature that made Utah more prominent than any other was the work done by the pupils of the state school for the Deaf and Blind. All those who saw the class work admired the pupils and praised their methods.

Another feature which attracted much attention from Utah was the excellent mining exhibit. Small souvenirs of Utah's mineral products were distributed gratis and have been taken to all parts of the world, and it is believed that this excellent exhibit will mean the bringing of a great deal of capital to Utah in the near future for investment in our mines, agricultural pursuits and stock raising.

Many specimens of Utah's mining exhibit were given to the government museum for exhibition. Other smaller samples were given to the leading colleges of America. The little souvenir which was an exhibition in the mining department, has all been packed, and may be sent to the Lewis and Clark fair to be held at Portland next year.
