LAST NIGHT'S NEWS

Mexico Has a Wiggins, who Predicted Disasters Dire for To-day.

THE INVESTIGATORS WRESTLING WITH THE QUESTION OF CROCKER'S CONTUMACY.

Gibson, the Hawaiian Ex-Premier, Interviewed on the Situation.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND WILL COME NO FURTHER WEST THAN KANSAS CITY.

A Budget of Casualties, Criminalities and Other Interesting Matters.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.]

Mexico Has Him.

CITY OF MEXICO via Galveston, August 9.—Senor Zuniga is enacting the role of a Mexican Wiggins, having predicted a terrible earthquake for this city to-morrow. Considerable alarm is felt among the lower class, who accept the predictions as being founded on superior knowledge. According to Zuniga the city will be partly destroyed to-morrow, with an enormous loss of life. He has, or pretends to have, an instrument which, by means of magnetized water, enables him to predict earthquakes with accuracy months before their occurrence, and claims to have predicted the earthquake in the early part of the summer.

The New Hebrides.

PARIS, August 9.—Le Paris announces that the English government has requested of M. Flourens, minister of foreign affairs, that France name the date of the evacuation by France of the new Hebrides and that M. Flourens in reply declined to do so until France shall be informed of the nature of England's policy in regard to Egypt as to the neutralization of the Suez Canal.

LONDON, August 9.—Sir J. Ferguson, parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, stated in the Commons this afternoon that England had never acquiesced in the presence of the French troops in the New Hebrides. He added the English government were unwilling to believe that the French occupation of the New Hebrides will long continue and declared that the government would in no way consent that the withdrawal of the French from the New Hebrides should be postponed until an agreement respecting the neutralization of the Suez Canal had been reached.

THE RAILWAYS.

The Investigation Continued—Other Matters.

WASHINGTON, August 9.—Ayres & Wells of Castle Rock and Arlington, Oregon, wool and commission merchants, complain to the Inter-State Commission that the Union Pacific and the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, secretly and without the ten days' notice required by the interstate commerce act, put in effect a new classification and increased the tariff, which causes great loss to petitioners, their eastern correspondents and wool producers and dealers generally. Large quantities of wool, it is said, have been bargained for or purchased at prices which would not have been paid had the freight rates been known. The new classification makes no distinction between wool in sacks and in bales, which operates, it is charged, as a discrimination against the petitioners, who have their wool pressed. The is said to be of the date of May 14 and purports to go into effect May 25, but as a matter of fact it is charged that the tariff was not printed till May 23, and was not posted or in any way made known to shippers until June 1st. Complainants place the amount of their damage at $5,000. The petition for redress in the complaint is accompanied by a petition bearing the signatures of thirty-seven firms, and individuals each controlling between 100 to 1,000 sheep, asking for speedy action upon the complaint, declaring their familiarity with the facts set forth and stating that their rights are set at defiance and that the rates are disadvantageous to the entire wool growing interest of East Oregon.

CROCKER RECALLED.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 9.—Colonel Charles F. Crocker, vice-president of the Southern Pacific Company, was recalled before the Pacific Railroad Commission to-day and again asked if the Central Pacific had paid any money for influencing state or national legislation and what explanation he had to offer for paying bills without vouchers.

Mr. Cohen, counsel for the company, said that he felt compelled to instruct the witness not to answer.

"What is your answer?" demanded Commissioner Pattison.

"On the advice of counsel, I decline to answer," said Crocker.

The commission went into executive session to consider whether or not proceedings shall be instituted in the

UNITED STATES COURTS

to compel Crocker to answer the question.

James O. Gunn, formerly secretary of the several leased lines of the Central Pacific was examined in regard to the whereabouts of the lost books of the Contract and Finance Company which he stated he had once examined, but no new facts were elicited.

S. W. Strowbridge, formerly superintendent of construction, testified that in 1866 and 1867 about eleven thousand Chinese were employed on the road, and in 1868 and 1869 the average number of Chinese employed was about five thousand. This he stated was in excess of the white men employed.

THE CHINESE,

he said, were paid $30 and the white men $55 per month.

Lloyd Tevis, president of the Wells, Fargo & Co's Express, stated that Stanford, Charles Crocker and Charles F. Crocker were directors in the express company and had become such when the Pacific Express company, which they had helped organize in 1869, was consolidated with Wells, Fargo & Co., and witness stated that by the terms of the consolidation the Pacific Express received one-third of the capital stock, or $3,333,333 worth of Wells, Fargo & Co., in consideration of which it went out of business, its officers, however, going into Wells, Fargo & Co. and thereafter participating in the management.

HE HAS NOT RESIGNED.

CHEYENNE, August 9.—General Manager Potter, of the Union Pacific, while here to-day, stated that General Freight Agent P. P. Shelby had not been asked for his resignation and had not tendered it. Mr. Shelby has been in poor health for some time and asked leave of absence for three months.

Mr. Potter confirmed the report of the resignation of Messrs. Morse and Stebbins.

Gibson Interviewed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—Walter Murray Gibson, late premier of the Hawaiian government, is still in the city, but says he will return in a short time to Honolulu, despite the opposition of the revolutionary or constitutional party to him. Some criticism having been passed upon his statement that the United States government would not like the course that affairs had taken in Honolulu, he was asked by the Associated Press representative what the attitude of the United States government or its designs were toward the Hawaiian Islands.

GIBSON SAID

in reply that the United States government had been compelled to take cognizance of the fact that the German and English governments had been steadily endeavoring to improve their positions in Hawaii. Great Britain was in possession of the Fiji Islands and Germany had her eye upon the Samoan group. "Samoa has," said the aged ex-premier, "two contending sovereigns, Miletoa, undoubtedly the rightful sovereign, and recognized as such by the United States, and Tamasese, the pretender, who is supported by German influence and with guns supplied by German merchants, and is thereby able to maintain an armed opposition. The contention of these has interfered with the business of the country to such an extent that the United States, Great Britain and Germany have so far interfered as to send commissioners to investigate, and their report has resulted in a conference at Washington to decide upon what course is best to pursue, and Germany desired to take the harbor, leaving the United States and Great Britain each to take the island."

Mr. Gibson said he believed it to be the policy of the United States to preserve the autonomy of Polynesia, wherever it is possible to promote self-government on the islands. The Hawaiian government had stepped in to afford Samoa a settled government. Samoa has proposed an act of confederation with Hawaii. He believed the United States looked upon this move with favor, but at Honolulu had interrupted this diplomatic scheme. Samoa, as a consequence, might fall under German control. Whether the United States would seek to prevent it, he could not say. He held to the view that the United States would stand out firmly as against any other foreign control of Hawaii than her own, if it came to that, but really desired autonomy of all the islands of the Pacific.

Washington Notes

WASHINGTON, August 9.—Invitations continue to pour in upon the President and almost the entire time of one clerk at the White House is occupied in scheduling and recording them. He is requested to visit almost every city in the West and South, including San Francisco, New Orleans and Galveston. The President is seriously considering the best use of the time he has allotted to himself for his western and southern trip, and he will take the route which will enable him to visit the principal of the two sections of the country. He has about made his mind up that he will not go further west than Kansas City, and very little if any further south than Atlanta. He does not desire to be absent from the capitol more than twenty days, but delays and unavoidable circumstances may prolong his absence five or ten days more. He will begin the preparation of his annual message upon his return, and that and other matters which will claim his personal attention will prevent his extending his visit much beyond November 1st. It is expected that the programme for the trip will be prepared within the next two weeks. The invitations already not acted upon will be answered before that is arranged.

REPRESENTATIVE CITIES

AN ISSUE.

has been raised by the accounting officer of the treasury against the quartermaster-general's office. The accounts of Colonel Batchelder, late department quartermaster at Washington, are now in the course of settlement. Among the vouchers was one $1,500 for two horses for the use of the office of the Secretary of War. This was disallowed by the third auditor and Second Comptroller Butler, on the ground that the money appropriated by Congress for army transportation cannot be used in purchasing horses for the Secretary of War, the necessary expenses of the War Department proper being provided for in the legislative appropriation. To this Batchelder replied that the order of the secretary to purchase the horses was a to him, and conclusive upon the accounting officer of the treasury. Third Auditor Williams, in a letter to the second comptroller regarding this case, says that the theory that an order from a superior officer, or even an army regulation could warrant a disbursing officer in making a disbursement of public funds in direct contravention of the statute, finds no countenance in any judicial decision, or in any opinion by any recognized authority.

SUPREME LAW

Casualties.

DETROIT, Aug. 9.—Nine business houses, the Carson Hotel and other property, burned at Sandusky, Mich., to-day. No lives were lost as far as reported. The fire originated in a swamp.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 9.—Last Wednesday the body of a man was found in an old dry river bed at San Elizario, 20 miles below El Paso. It turned out to be the body of a man who called himself A. Loomis, and who had been stopping with a Mexican family at San Elizario. He was sick, and it is supposed he was overcome while out walking Monday, and he died from the effects of it. He stated that he was a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature about 1880, and claimed that he had wealthy relations in that state. He was sent out here by a Philadelphia mining company.

BY THE HEAT

DETROIT, Aug. 9.—The Free Press special from Grand Rapids says: The fires are still raging north and south of here. From the north discouraging reports are received here to-night. At Crofton, four miles south of Kalaska, the flames destroyed a large amount of farm buildings and fences. Around Kinsley miles of fences and many fields were burned over.

W. C. T. U.

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—On the 18th of July the secretary of the state of Illinois issued articles of incorporation to a company at Chicago known as the Women's Temperance Building Association, with a capital stock of 10,000 shares at $100 each. The incorporators were Matilda B. Carrie, Frances Willard, Esther Pugh, Wm. Deering and James B. Hobbs. The purpose is to erect a building in Chicago to be used as a national headquarters of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and temperance training school. It is also meant that this enterprise shall become a source of revenue to the national society. The plan is that while the building is intended in the first place to furnish headquarters for the national W. C. T. U., it is also to be a great office. The building will bring in a rental of at least $135,000 a year. The ground has been secured for it in the very centre of the city. The structure will cost about $600,000, and to cover this $600,000 worth of bonds will be issued. The committee having the matter in charge have issued a call to all friends of temperance for contributions in carrying out this work.

Farmers' Folly.

LOUISVILLE, August 9.—The following remarkable resolutions were adopted by the Farmers' Alliance of Floyd County, Indiana, at a meeting on Saturday night last: They are just made public:

Resolved, That there is no promise either expressed or implied by which the people of the United States must pay their President $4,000 per month, or any other sum, while electioneering for a second term of office. Therefore we call upon President Cleveland before starting on his pending electioneering tour through the West and South to first write out his resignation as President and die it with the proper officers in Washington. And further

Resolved, That the president and secretary of this alliance are hereby instructed to forward a certified copy of these resolutions by registered letter to the President of the United States.

Those Men-of War.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 9.—The Free Press to-night has the following: On inquiry at the fisheries department this afternoon it was ascertained that there are grounds for the statements telegraphed from Halifax that some British war vessels will assist in the work of protecting the Gulf and Atlantic coast from American poachers. Some confidential communications on the matter have been received here from the admiralty authorities. It is understood that her majesty's war ships will not only act as patrols for the purpose of keeping Americans outside the forbidden waters but will be prepared to whenever and wherever the opportunity offers. There are three ships available for the service. The present intention, though a change in the programme is possible, is to start out the ships early next week. They will proceed at once to the Gulf of St. Lawrence to reinforce the five Canadian cruisers already there.

MAKE SEIZURES

Since the vigorous enforcement of the treaty, the American vessels, according to advices from the fisheries department, are returning home empty, handed, while the Canadian boats are making big hauls. The mackerel catch along the American coast has proven a failure.

The Iron Mines.

MILWAUKEE, August 9.—The stockholders of the Goggebic Iron Mines, known as the Berlon property, to-day transferred them to the Bessemer Consolidated Iron Company, of New York, of which ex-Senator S. W. Dorsey was elected president, Jesse Grant secretary and ex-assistant secretary of the treasury Chas. E. Coon, treasurer. All of them were present. The price paid for the five shares was $2,220,000. The consolidated company has a capital stock of $75,000,000 and have made a five-year contract with the company, which will build fifteen steam vessels to carry the ore from Ashland to Cleveland at $1 50 per ton, the rate being $2 50. The company contracts to ship 800,000 tons per annum.

Terrible Drought.

CHICAGO, August 9.—Never before have the farmers and residents of the suburbs of this city suffered so from the heat and dry weather. All around the vegetables of the small gardeners are killed. All along the railroad tracks the prairies are on fire and the residents of the suburbs are called out at all hours of the day and night to combat the flames. The water is very scarce, the cisterns and wells are alike empty, and the greatest economy with the precious fluid is observed. The cattle are suffering greatly. At Washington Heights the water has been so scarce it finds ready sale at five cents a pail.

TOPEKA, Kansas, August 9.—The Kansas corn crop will not be so large as was anticipated six weeks or two months ago, the drought of July having materially affected it. But as a whole the unofficial crop reports are more favorable to-day than it was thought possible a week ago.

Criminalities.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., August 9.—The murder of Isaac Colby and wife at Cherry Run, near this place, proves to have been a most horrible crime, as the inquest developed the fact that Mrs. Colby had been outraged, and her death had been caused by bullets from a revolver. Her husband was shot through the head. The only person about the premises was an infant, which was almost dead from hunger. There is no clue yet as to the perpetrator of the crime.

ROME, August 9.—Signor Bove, the explorer who was an associate of Nordenskjold in the latter's arctic expedition, COMMITTED SUICIDE.

CHICAGO, August 9.—The Daily News' Buffalo, N. Y., special: Somebody has forged the bonds of the Leadville Consolidated Mining Company to the extent of $52,500, and the job is such a good one that the detection came only from the knowledge that no bonds of $50 denomination had been issued. W. C. Dick of Toronto got Charles Dobson, a reporter here, to negotiate the sale of the bonds and A. P. Wright & Co. found a buyer in New York at 48 cents. When the bonds reached New York the fraud was discovered. Wright advanced $100 to Dobson. The quotation on the bonds has since gone up to 55 cents, and the New Yorkers claim the difference. The stock is said to have been originally issued to a rich Toronto real estate man who distinguished himself in February, 1885, by disappearing under such circumstances that it was believed he had been murdered on the Niagara River. An effort is being made to ascertain who first floated the bogus securities.

ISAAC A. RADFORD,

Cholera.

MADRID, August 9.—Fourteen new cases of cholera and six deaths during the last 24 hours.

The Jumper.

ROCKAWAY BEACH, N. Y., August 9.—Prof. Thomas F. Baldwin, of San Francisco, this afternoon successfully repeated his feat of jumping from a balloon in mid air, to the earth, by the aid of his patent parachute. At least 30,000 persons witnessed the jump. His fall is estimated at 1,100 feet, occupying one minute and twenty-four seconds, and he landed in shallow water in the bay.

Conventions.

CHICAGO, August 9.—The biennial convention, or high court meeting of the Ancient Order of Foresters, began here to-day; 300 delegates were present from all parts of the United States and Canada.

The eighth annual convention of photographers of America opened yesterday in the Exposition Building. A large number of delegates were present. The exhibition comprises nearly 10,000 pictures of various kinds.

Blanching Celery With Tile.

A celery-grower speaks enthusiastically in the Horticultural Times, of the result of trying the following way: Tie a string around each plant to make the stalks grow upright. Take 10 or 12-inch lengths of 3-inch tile, and some pieces of straw-board, a little longer than the tile, and about as wide. The celery must be perfectly dry. Now sucker the plant carefully, wrap the straw-board tightly around it, and over this slip the tile. Then withdraw the board. As the celery will blanch beautifully in from three to four weeks, and even quicker in hot weather, without showing signs of rot, it is not at all difficult to produce fine, blanched celery as early as August. Later celery may be blanched in the same way. This plan admits of growing an immense amount of celery on a small piece of ground.

BABY HUMORS
And all Skin and Scalp Diseases Speedily Cured by Cuticura.
Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th inst. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him CUTICURA RESOLVENT internally, and the CUTICURA, and CUTICURA SOAP externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the RESOLVENT about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a little less than one box of CUTICURA, and only one cake of CUTICURA SOAP. H. E. RYAN,
