Selling a Reservation.

WASHINGTON, 24.—By direction of the Secretary of the Interior, the remainder of the lands of the Otoe and Missouri Indian reservation in Kansas and Nebraska, comprising about 50,000 acres, will be offered at public sale at the United States Land Office at Beatrice, Nebraska, on the 20th of May. Senator Van Wyck, who has been instrumental in bringing about this sale, has asked Secretary Teller to send an officer from the department to superintend it. It is probable that Commissioner McFarland of the General Land Office will go to Nebraska for the purpose. The lands will be sold only to persons who shall, within three months from the date of their application, make permanent settlement upon the same, and each application must be accompanied by an affidavit as evidence of good faith in this respect. The land will be sold to the highest bidder, at not less than the appraised value, in eighty-acre tracts, and no one person shall be allowed to purchase more than 160 acres.

Gen. Crook Breaks Camp.

ST. LOUIS, 24.—Advices from Crook say he broke camp at Wilcox yesterday morning, and started for Guadaloupe Canyon with 300 troops and 200 Indian scouts in wagons. The Indian scouts told the General they wanted him to lead them against the Chiricahuas until all were exterminated or captured, as they could not hope for peace on the reservation themselves until that was done. The expedition is admirably appointed and supplied for 90 days. On arrival at Guadaloupe Canyon, Capt. Crawford and Lieut. Waterwood, commanding the scouts, with one company of troops under picked officers, will penetrate the fastnesses of the Sierra Madre Mountains, and the remainder of the command will be posted along the boundary.

Capt. Dougherty has been ordered to join his command at Fort Apache to guard against anticipated trouble with the mountain Apaches.

El Paso, Texas, 24.—Lieut. Davis, of the Third Cavalry, commanding a detachment at San Carlos Agency, reports that he called the Indian chiefs together and explained the situation as to the threatened attack on the reservation by alleged rangers from Tombstone. The chiefs promised to obey Crook's wishes. They will defend themselves from attack on the reservation, but will not go off or follow if assailed. There are four hundred left for defense. Davis is not alarmed at the prospect of attack, or doubtful of the Indians obeying orders.

Washington, 24.—Indian Agent Wilcox telegraphs the Indian office that a company of rangers are now near the San Carlos Agency, evidently intending to surprise the Indians. Their suspicious movements are exciting the Indians, and it is thought serious results may ensue. The agent expresses fear that the Indians can't be influenced to act solely on the defensive, and says they should not be put to the test. Secretary Teller to-day directed Agent Wilcox to inform the rangers that they must not surprise the Indians, and directed Wilcox to acquaint the officers in charge of the United States troops with the situation, in order that precautions might be taken to prevent trouble.

The Catalogue of Crime.

NEW YORK, 24.—Owney Geoghegan was fined $500 and sentenced to one month's imprisonment for permitting minors to enter his Bowery den. The Supreme Court granted a temporary stay. Geoghegan is in jail.

The principles and seconds, Italians, in a duel in Brooklyn, are arrested. Eight shots were exchanged; nobody hurt.

Norfolk, Va, 24.—Lucy Haulsey, a negress, is arrested for whipping her sister's orphan child, 7 years old, to death. The child was flogged with a cowhide and burned in the stove. Her husband was arrested as accessory.

Danville, Va., 24.—Wm. D. Dodson, arrested at Franklin in June for the murder of a negro, it is reported yesterday confessed hiring two negroes to bring him a body for dissection, claiming to be a physician. He carried the body into an upper room of the house occupied by himself, wrapped it in bed clothing, and poured kerosene over it, fixed a lighted candle on it and went away. His mistake was made in cutting the candle so long that the house did not take fire during the night, it being his purpose to burn the house and have it appear that he himself had been burned in it, so that his family could obtain the amount of a policy recently procured.

Stewartsville, Ky., 24.—J. D. Clarke, of the firm of Clarke & Franks of this city, was shot and killed yesterday by his partner, J. F. Franks. He had accused Franks of stealing the firm's money, when a quarrel arose. Franks shot Clarke five times.

Brainard, Minn., 24.—Burns, Hawkley and Bennett, three desperadoes engaged in a fight with a sheriff posse at the Mississippi railway bridge, Thursday last, escaped from the railway caboose yesterday, cutting through the wall.

Dallas, Texas, 24.—Wyatt Banks colored, who assisted Fred E. Waite and Daniel Compton in killing Add Wyse, deputy sheriff and jailor of Robertson County, May 28th, 1882, was hanged at Franklin yesterday in the presence of a great crowd. He made a speech nearly two hours long, warning others to shun gambling and fast living, and expressed a belief that he would be happy in the next world.

Boston, 24.—The Tewksbury investigation was opened by Attorney Brown, who after alluding to the removing of the trustees by the Governor commenced a review of the latter's statement regarding the removal made in an interview with reporters last night, but the Governor interrupted and protested against the revival of a discussion of topics not germane to the investigation. The Governor was entitled to expressions of personal honor in whatever manner he choose. Brown was about to talk about something for which he was not responsible to the committee; he alone was responsible to the people of the State. (Tremendous applause.)

After considerable bickering, it was decided Brown should not have the privilege of making his intended remarks.

Margaret Berry of Boston testified that nurses at the almshouse were rough in their treatment of patients, striking them, and holding pillows over the mouths of insane patients to prevent them asking for necessaries. She detailed outrages inflicted on various inmates from time to time.

Mrs. Abbie Wheeler saw a nurse named Dunning stamp on the stomach of a patient with her knees six times because she would not take medicine. Thos. Marsh, jr., was very familiar with the nurses. Mrs. S. Bridget Dolan had a daughter and grandchild at Tewksbury last February, and made several attempts to get them out, as her daughter begged to be taken away. She didn't succeed. Her daughter died at Tewksbury. The child had been treated so badly it lost its speech, and could not walk. While the daughter was dying of consumption, she was fed on pies, sour fish, water soaked potatoes and bowls of skimmed milk. This was about four weeks ago. Word was not sent to her until after her daughter's death. Witness was not drunk at Tewksbury, but only excited. Some of her answers were very contradictory.

Tanners testified that certain human skins were brought to them to be tanned by students, but couldn't say they were from Tewksbury.

FOREIGN.

General Items.

LONDON, 24.—In the Commons this afternoon, Gladstone, replying to a question from Bourke as to whether any steps had been taken at Washington relative to the conspiracies organized in America against England, said he did not think it in accordance with public interest to make any statement touching communication with the United States government on the subject of outrages.

Berlin, 24.—The Nord German Gazette severely criticizes the report from Sargent, American minister here, to the Secretary of State in regard to the action of Germany on the importation of American pork. The Gazette says it is remarkable to find Sargent's signature to the report. If the report suggests reprisals to force American trichina on Germany's customers, it uses an argument similar to that which formed the basis of the Chinese opium treaties.

St. Petersburg, 24.—The Geographical Society has received a telegram from the Polar expedition located at the mouth of the River Lena, stating that the explorers are all well. The lowest temperature recorded during the winter was 88 Reaumer.

Paris, 23.—The Cabinet has decided to send 1,500 soldiers to Tonquin. The rejection of France's ultimatum by Anam is deemed certain.

An inspired paragraph declares that whatever treaty the Malagasy envoys may make with other countries, France will not allow anything to be done prejudicing her rights in Madagascar.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Cincinnati, 24.—Ice an eighth of an inch thick this morning. It is feared the fruit is injured.

Latest reports from the sections of the Mississippi show about 83 persons were killed and about 30 wounded, many dangerously. Loss unprecedented.

New Orleans, 24.—Marks Brother & Co., commission merchants of this city and Matamoras, have suspended. Liabilities probably $100,000; available assets believed to be small.

Boston, 24.—By a vote of 55 nays to 100 yeas, the House refused to engross a resolution for amendment of the constitution so women may be appointed justices of the peace and notaries public. A two-thirds vote was necessary.

Atlanta, Ga., 24.—The election for Governor passed quietly; a light vote. No opposition. Harry D. McDaniel, democratic nominee, is elected, and will probably be inaugurated on the 12th of May.

Boston, 24.—John E. White, Congressman from Kentucky, and Alice M., daughter of ex-Congressman Harris, were married at Eastbridge. Their bridal trip includes the Pacific Slope.

Knoxville, 24.—W. B. Staley, son of Judge Staley, committed suicide at the residence of a young lady who refused to marry him. It was the second attempt to take his life for the same cause. The deceased was twenty years old, and a lawyer.

New York, 24.—The so-called fraud on the revenue by H. Spiegel & Co., Broad Street, turns out to be purely a technical affair, which occurred through innocent carelessness of employees, in which the firm cannot be directly or indirectly involved.

There were over 300 bids for Indian supplies opened to day.

St. Louis, 24.—The stockmen in the Texas Pan Handle, at a recent meeting, decided to begin the spring trade round up of cattle in the Canadian and Wichita Rivers and Wolf Creek districts May 10th, and Salt Fork and Red River districts May 20th. If there be any trouble with striking cow-boys, it will develop at these round-ups. Lieut. John Hofer with a company of frontiersmen and a battalion of Texas rangers, is in camp near Mabeetie, in the centre of the troubled districts, and will do everything possible to preserve order.

Philadelphia, 24.—Ex-Treasurer Egan, of the Irish Land League, says the dynamite party will have very little following in the convention. Referring to the movement in his mother country, Egan said: "It depends in a large measure on the support of the Irish element in America. So long as the present dissatisfaction is kept alive by the support of 2,000,000 Irish-Americans in America, all the ingenuity of the English government will be taxed to devise measures to cope with the forces in America, and Ireland will be correspondingly hopeful of ultimate success."

A Faith Cure.

ANOTHER STORY OF A WONDERFUL RECOVERY.

Almost everybody in Augusta, Me., has heard of Elder F. Ward, a minister of the Christian Church, residing on the Togus road, a distance of two miles from the city. On the 25th of October last he cut a terrible gash in his left ankle while chopping wood, the axe entering the limb between the bones of the leg and severing several cords and arteries. As a result he was very low and a great sufferer the entire winter. At times Mr. Ward would be irrational and his mind would be wandering. So weak was he all winter long, he sat up but two half-hours, excepting to have his bed made. Shortly before the healing his appetite failed him, and he slept but six hours during the last week. To make the case still worse, neuralgia set in. Nearly every one had given him over to die. On the 14th of March he had trouble around the heart and had convulsions. On coming out of them Mr. Ward stated that he had received a dispatch from God, which said that he should be healed on the 25th of March, at 4 o'clock p.m., being just five months to a day and an hour from the time the cut was received; also, that at the same hour he should arise from his couch and walk from the same to the kitchen door, a distance of eight feet. He told his attendants to take the medicine away; that the Lord Jesus Christ had taken his case in hand, and it was for God's glory. Sunday, the 25th of March, came. He could only take a teaspoonful of water at a time; his extremities were cold. About 3 30 o'clock p.m., people began to gather until twenty-eight were present. Shortly before four o'clock Elder Ward requested several of the Brothers to put on his cloting, which was done. Then the hymn, "The Great Physician Now is Near," was sung and the eighteenth chapter of First Kings, commencing with the twenty-first verse, was read. Following this, Friends Minister Phebe Wadsworth, of this city, offered prayer; also Mrs. Stewart. On his request he was raised from his reclining position by Brothers present. Before leaving the bed his breath became natural, and he became perfectly calm. Then, at precisely 4 o'clock, Mr. Ward arose from his bed, stood up, the first time for five months, and walked to the door but very little lame. Here, he says the Lord told him to walk back to bed. Again, at the same command, he walked to the door and back again. On returning the last time he took hold of one corner of the bed and lifted it bodily from the floor, so that a caster dropped out. Then sitting down on his couch the heretofore bedridden man shouted, "Glory to God!" again and again—a little remarkable from the fact that he had not spoken above a whisper for two months and a half. At supper time our friend walked to the table, sat down and ate a hearty meal, and in the evening sang a hymn. At night he lay down to slumber, and slept perfectly sound all night long, the first natural sleep for five months. In the morning Mr. Ward arose, dressed himself, went to the door, and shouted praises to God, so that the neighbors were aroused across the street. Since March 25th, the day of the miraculous healing, the Elder has been up and walking about, seemingly as smart as ever, and repeatedly offering thanks to God.—Augusta Journal.

They Were Promoted.

I met a man the other day called "Soldier Sam," an honest fellow, and one of the true blues of the late war. He had served under Grant and could tell reminiscences of the great General by the hour. The best of it was that his stories were always authentic. I remember, said he, while we were down on the Mississippi, a big barge loaded with bombs and gunpowder was lying alongside the wharf. Grant had given the orders that no one should smoke on board that barge. I suppose the old tub had thousands of dollars worth of powder under her decks. So the corporal set a guard there and ordered him to shoot the first man who should cross the plank with a lighted pipe or cigar. Well, when the word got abroad we kept away, for we knew that the order meant business. One day when I was off duty, Gen. Grant rode up on his horse. He wore a big blouse and a slouch hat. He had no star nor side arms. We all knew him without the aid of trinkets.

"Is that the powder boat?" he asked.

I told him it was.

He looked at me sharply over a red-hot cigar and said, "I'll go on board them."

I knew he'd never take that cigar out of his mouth except to eat or sleep, so I said, "General, if you walk across that plank smoking the sentry will shoot you."

He saw that I was in earnest, but he said, "Don't you suppose he knows me?"

"Of course he does, General," I replied, "but he has been ordered to shoot the first man caught smoking on the barge, and he'll do it. That's the kind of chap he is."

Grant looked rather amused. I reckon he never intended to go near the old barge. He just wheeled his horse about and away he went.

That evening I told the sentry all about the talk. The next morning he and the corporal were ordered up to the General's headquarters. The sentry was a black man, but when he heard that Grant wanted to see him he was rather white. He went up.

"Can you read?" asked Grant.

"No, sah; I nebber had no chance to l'a'n."

"Do you always know me when you see me?"

"Yes, sah."

"Suppose I had gone on board that powder boat with a lighted cigar, what would you have done?"

"Shot you, sah."

"But I'm your General!" exclaimed Grant.

"Yes, sah; and we jes obeys yo' orders," said the sentry.

Grant looked the men all over. The corporal was trembling and the sentry was actually pale; but both were as firm as rocks. At last the General relaxed. "Well, sir," he said to the negro, "we'll make you a corporal; and this other man shall be sergeant. I promote these men."

"I tell you we didn't forget that," said Soldier Sam.—Inter-Ocean.

Hospitality.

True hospitality has a deep meaning. It springs from the soul, and is a visible way of exhibiting one's social and friendly nature. Emerson's idea of hospitality would not coincide with many of our over-anxious housekeepers, who, when an unexpected guest arrives, feel that the whole arrangement of domestic affairs must be brought to a standstill and the attention of every one turned to getting up an elaborate entertainment, no matter what the cost of time and inconvenience. He says: "I pray you, oh, excellent wife, cumber not yourself and me to get a curiously rich dinner for this man and woman who have just alighted at our door; nor a bed chamber made ready at too great cost; these things, if they are curious in them, they can get for a few shillings in any village inn; but rather let the stranger see, if he will, in your looks, accents and behavior, your heart and earnestness, your thought and will, that which he cannot buy at any price in any city, and which he may travel twenty miles, and dine sparely and sleep hardly, to behold. Let not the emphasis of hospitality be in bed and board; but let truth and love and honor and free toy flow in all thy deeds."
