DESERET EVENING NEWS WEDNESDAY MARCH 13 1907

FANCY DOG SHOW IS IN FULL SWING

Exhibition of Fine Canines Began This Morning, Ends on Friday.

LIST OF ENTRIES AND PRIZES.

Affair Promises to be the Best of Its Kind Ever Promoted in the Western Country.

What promises to be the greatest dog show ever promoted in the west was begun this morning at Mullett's old store and will continue until Friday. Those who have been working for the show and those interested in the exhibition were greatly surprised at the long list of enries. The committee in charge would have been swamped with entries had they been admitted yesterday but when the list losed and a count was made it was found that 223 fine dogs had been entered.

Carpenters were hard to at work all day yesterday and most of last night building stalls for the canines and the stalls hand-somely decorated. The work of idding the animals began early this afternoon and this difficult task devolves upon James Mortimer of New York, who has just returned from the Los Angeles bench show. He is thoroughly qualified for the task as he is one of the best experts in the country on the fine points of all classes of high-bred dogs. The prize ribbons will arrive from the case isoday. All the dogs are properly placed and tagsed by the owners. The prize ribbons will arrive from the fine of all classes of their owners. Frof. E. C. To regulate the heart action, you should take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure when any symptoms of a weak heart is apparent. It has no equal. Sometime ago "Sometime ago I had a very severe pain around my heart, and most of the time I had a beavy beating or throbbing of the heart. It would beat so that when I hay down at night it would sound like a small clock in bed with me. I could count the ticking. With every little exercise, or walking I felt like my heart would give out, and I would be so tired I would have to lie down and rest. I suffered guite a while is this way, then I concluded to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I had not taken it long until I began to feel easter, and so continued, and the med-cidne entrely cured me.
