BAKE HOUSE TO RENT, with or without fixtures. Apply at the 11th Ward Co-operative Meat Market. d1 tf

—— It is almost impossible to rear a young hippopotamus, but it has lately been discovered that the mother suckles her young under the water, and in future it may not prove so difficult a task. Out of eleven produced in Amsterdam only one lived, and when nine months old it brought £1,000 to go to America; but the man who bought it stopped in London, and exhibited it at sixpence a head, at the Crystal Palace, and while there the Crystal Palace caught fire and the only hippopotamus ever reared in Europe was roasted.

AT MORTON'S OLD CITY LIQUOR STORE, you can find a first-class article of M. Keller's California Brandy, also the choicest selection of Wines from the same firm.

—James Fisk, the father of Stokes' friend, has been interviewed by a Troy reporter. He says he is traveling for a New York firm, in the hope of shaking off the depression caused by his son's murder. It has so affected him that twice since he has been placed in an insane asylum. "I travel about the country," he says, "that I may find relief from that which must necessarily be a crushing sorrow during my life."

WARRANTEE DEEDS — most approved form, Quit Claim Deeds, Mining Deeds, Townsite Deeds, Leases, Official Bonds, Incorporation Bonds, and other Blanks for sale at the NEWS Office.

—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger having sent in a communication on the subject of "economy" as a remedy for some of the money troubles, the article was laid aside, as inapplicable just now, with the following endorsement on the back; "those who need to reduce expenses just now will be obliged to economize, independently of any suggestions to that end; those who are not obliged to economize should spend their money freely, and (if the expenditures are for proper objects) more freely than usual."

MERCHANTS' Address Tags printed and for sale at the NEWS Office.

—Two Kansas editors are battling for the sacred rights of unlimited vituperation. One accuses the other of being a "louse bag," and the bag retorts by calling the enemy a "conglomerate idiot." They should buy a lunatic asylum and divide it between them.

ALL KINDS of Order, Receipt and Certificate Books printed and bound at the NEWS Office.

—Creaking boots and shoes may be rendered noiseless by putting a row of small nails down the middle of the sole from the toe half way to the heel. The Nails should be well clinched on the inside of the shoe and covered with a leather or cork sole to prevent wear on the stocking. If before the shoes are made the shoemaker rubs on the inside surface of each piece of sole leather a salve made of black lead and tallow, the shoes will never creak at all.

MORTGAGE DEEDS of an approved form for sale at the NEWS Office.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Message at W. U. Telegraph Office for Mrs. Josephine Williams.

Police Court.—Besides several gambling affairs, six petty cases were disposed of in the police court this morning.

Rock.—Five car loads of granite blocks, for the Temple, were deliveied within the Temple block enclosure this morning.

Thanksgiving Parties.—There were thanksgiving parties in nearly all of the Wards last night, all of which, so far as we are aware, were well attended and passed off pleasantly.

Gone South.—Presidents Brigham Young and George A. Smith left this morning on a visit to St. George, where they will probably spend the severest of the winter months.

Hook and Ladder Company, Attention!—A meeting of this Company will be held on Saturday, November 20th, at 7.30 p.m. A punctual attendance is desired. By order of the Foreman.

Cock Fight.—Helena, Montana, rejoiced over the sublime spectacle of a cock-fight, Nov. 20. The two birds fought an hour and a quarter, when, both being exhausted, the fight was declared a draw.

Arrived.—Mr. Shiel Barry, the famous Irish comedian, and his agent, Mr. Gaylord, arrived in this city yesterday morning. Mr. Barry will appear at the Theatre on Monday evening, in Lover's romantic drama, Rory O'More, and the petite drama, "Devotion."

Personal.—We had a call to-day, from Mr. G. M. Steese, who is here in the interest of the jewelry firm of Giles Bros. & Co., Wabash Ave., Chicago. He is staying at the Townsend House, and will remain in town several days.

Street Railroad.—We are informed by Mr. Orson P. Arnold, Superintendent of the Street Railroad Company, that cars commenced running on the Warm Springs division this morning, and that trips will be made from each end every fifty minutes, commencing at eight o'clock in the morning.

After Them Still.—The police are still after the gamblers. Quite a large number of the latter were arrested yesterday and fined, while others were tried and fined to-day. Some paid the amounts assessed, $100 each, while others are endeavoring to raise the wind.

Gambling is not confined to professionals at the business, but is indulged in by others in this city to a considerable extent.

Return to the Owner.—On the 8th of November, a resident of Payson lost, between that place and Spanish Fork, a quilt, pair of green blankets, a coarse blanket, a soldier coat, and a sack containing some provisions. The loser is in very great need of the bedding, and would be very glad to recover his lost property. He offers to reward any party forwarding it, or information concerning it, to the Payson Tithing office.

Periodicals from Dwyer's.—"The Overland Monthly" "Science of Health," "Scribner's Monthly Magazine," and their new monthly for children, "St. Nicholas," all for December. All are excellent, being full of choice reading. The engravings in "Scribner's Monthly" are beautiful, while those in "St. Nicholas" excel anything we have before seen in juvenile literature. Its reading matter is also very good, and it is, we believe, the handsomest periodical published for children in the world.

Concert.—The matinee and concert at the Old Tabernacle, for the benefit of the Tabernacle choir yesterday afternoon, was as successful as that of Monday evening, the audience being large, ladies and children preponderating, and the exercises going off splendidly. Some of the pieces were even better executed than on Monday night, especially the solo and chorus "Inflammatus." Mr. C. R. Savage gave a comic song, to the immense delight of the juvenile portion of the audience especially. The great attraction and gem of the concert, was a song entitled, "The Warning," sung by Mrs. L. Careless. She sang with exquisite ease and grace, giving full play to her superb voice, for which the fine song gives ample scope. She was rapturously encored. We particularized in the notice of Monday evening's concert the performances of each singer, and therefore it is only sufficient to say now that all did excellently, and the audience seemed to appreciate the delightful entertainment. A first class musical performance has an elevating tendency.

Theatre.—There were three good and successful performances at the Theatre on Wednesday evening, and on Thursday afternoon and evening. Miss Cathcart and Mr. Darrell are excellent legitimate actors, doing everything in acareful, thorough, conscientious manner, with nothing of a flashy, trashy character. Miss Cathcart's acting shows the effects of thorough training in severe schools, and on stages and before audiences so exacting that claptrap would not be tolerated. Consequently it is ever a pleasure to witness her life-like personations, and they always leave the audiences in a perfectly satisfied frame of mind.

This evening Mr. E. W. Tullidge's five act historical drama of "Oliver Cromwell" will be presented for the first time, Mr. Sawtelle appearing as "Cromwell," Miss Kate Denin as "Lady Fairfax," Miss Cogswell as "Prince Charles," Miss Adams as "Elizabeth," daughter of Cromwell. Mrs. Rea as "Spirit of Queen Elizabeth," Mrs. Crosbie as "Grace Holdfast," Mr. Crosbie as "Holdfast," a Falstafian Puritan, Mr. Thorne as "Ireton," a leader of the people, Mr. Marden as "Milton," Mr. Dudley as "Harrison," a Puritan leader.

The scenes are "Exterior of Parliament House (new), "Old London," "The Camp—Cromwell's Tent" (new), "Great Hall at Westminster" (new), "Prison of Charles I.," "Cromwell's Closet," "House of Lady Fairfax," "Hampton Court," "Vault of Henry VIII." (new), "Dissolution of the Long Parliament" (new), "The Picture Gallery" (new), and "Cromwell's Cabinet."

No matinee on Saturday.

Mr. Shiel Barry on Monday.

Concert.—There will be a concert to-night at the Seventh Ward school house, for the benefit of the Sunday school of that Ward. The object is a worthy one, and the affair should therefore be well patronized.

Roof On.—Mr. Groesbeck has been fortunate in getting the roof on his large new building, the Wasatch Hotel, before the setting in of stormy weather. He has discarded the use of tin or zinc and has used asbestos roofing. This will test the matter as to whether that kind of material will stand the climate or not. Mr. Clift, proprietor of the Clift House, purposes covering the roof of the latter building with the same material.

Mr. Groesbeck purposes putting some splendid show windows in the west front of the first story, especially on the corner.

Probate Court.—The case of the People vs. J. F. Tasker, for horse-stealing, was in process of trial today, having commenced on Wednesday. The following are the names of the jurymen sitting on the case:—Thomas Condi, James Peterson, Joseph W. Johnson, Fredk. Peterson, Stephen Hunter, John P. Ball, Martin H. Peck, Samuel Peterson, David O. Rideout, James A. Cuningham, Wm. C. Morris, Wm. Tripp.

James Hague was the first witness called. He testified to having been the owner of a certain grey mare, which was afterwards put in care of Mr. E. A. Pettit. He last saw the animal about a year ago.

Mr. E. A. Pettit, on being placed on the stand, described the animal in question, which had been placed in his care three years ago, and testified to having seen it afterwards in Tasker's corral, and also to seeing a man riding on it, who said it belonged to Tasker.

Yesterday Robert Grey testified for the prosecution. His evidence corroborated that of Mr. Pettit regarding the description of the mare and its having been found in possession of Tasker. Henry and William Alexander also gave similar evidence for the prosecution, when the latter rested their case.

This morning D. Maguire, a miner, testified that he sold the mare in question to Tasker last June, and that the latter paid him $40 for her. The witness said that he himself bought the animal from John Lewis.

A grey mare was shown to the jury, in the yard of the Court House, which they examined to see if they could find any marks or brands.

A. D. Williams, a Bingham butcher, testified to receiving a grey mare from Tasker, and also to having known a man named John Lewis in Bingham. The witness had the mare in question in possession about two weeks.

Nearly Bolted.—About noon today Mr. Richard Tilt left his horse and wagon standing in front of Z. C. M. I. Produce Department, when the animal stepped off in a northerly direction. He was observed by his owner, however, who went full tilt after him and caught him before he got started on the dead run.

Wall Street Excited.

NEW YORK, 28.—The Wall Street brokers were excited to-day by the reduction in the Bank of England rate to six per cent., the gain of £1,065,000 in bullion by the bank for the week, the advance in securities at London, and the decline in money to 4@5 per cent. in open market, and by more peaceful reports regarding the Spanish question. All this caused a buoyant feeling on the Exchange, and prices advanced in leading shares 1 to 3 per cent., with large dealings. After meridian a change was brought about by realizations on the Stock Exchange and vague rumors about Sickles leaving Madrid.

Sentenced—Little More About Tweed.

James H. Ingersall, convicted on Wednesday, of forgery upon the county during the "Ring" rule, was sentenced to-day to five years in the State Prison, with hard labor; John D. Farrington, jr., convicted at the same time of the same offence, was sentenced eighteen months imprisonment.

Sheriff Brennan has received a letter from Attorney-General Barlow, earnestly remonstrating against the indulgence shown to Tweed in keeping him at the Tombs, when, according to the requirements of the law, he should be sent to the penitentiary. Tweed eat his Thanksgiving dinner in the Tombs with his family.

General Butler is the last person whom rumor has added to Tweed's counsel.

It is said that Judge Fancher has granted an exparte order, to show cause why there should not be a stay of proceedings in the case of Ingersoll and Farrington, convicted of forgery.

Hanged

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Henry Young, alias Charles Williams Young, a colored man, convicted of the murder of Frank Hahn, was hanged, to-day, in the jail yard.

Labor Prospects Brightening.

BOSTON, 28.—The Fall River manufacturers and board of trade have decided, from and after Dec. 1st, to run their mills eight hours a day on five days and seven hours on Saturday.

Should the times continue to improve as they have done during the past two or three weeks, it is believed that all the mills will be running on full time by January.

Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, Nov. 26—

A handsom metallic coffin arrived here this morning from Salt Lake City and directed to Corinne, to receive the mortal remains of Horace W. Myers, which will be sent to his mother, living in Eureka, Illinois.

We have had to chronicle several accounts of offenses commited by Indians while under the influence of liquor, and the source of supply has become a matter of wonder. Last Monday an intoxicated savage took offense at some remark made by a young man named Poulter, on Fifth street, and commenced firing his revolver at him. Two chambers had already been discharged, so that two attempts to shoot young Poulter failed in their object. Before the pistol could be fired the third time, Gilbert Ralknap, Jr. seized the Indian and prevented murder. The red man was locked up in jail, and when sober he told George Hill where he obtained the fire-water. This morning Marsh Sprague and James Empy were brought before Alderman F. A. Brown, charged with furnishing whiskey to the Indian. Both pleaded guilty, when Sprague was fined $50 and Empy $75 and costs. The former will be promoted to the Supervisor's staff, and the saloon of the latter has been turned over to the police till the necessary amount is obtained. We hope this will deter other unthinking persons from putting whiskey into such dangerous hands—or mouth—as an Indian's.

ZION'S

CO-OPERATIVE MERCANTILE

INSTITUTION

IS DOING THE LARGEST BUSINESS ever carried on in the Territory of Utah, arising from a uniform system of dealing principally with manufacturers of standard goods, buying in immense quantities and selling on the closest margins.

The largest part of their purchases for the

Wholesale and the Retail Dry Goods Department

Are made through their New York office, from whence all fluctuations in the Foreign and Home Markets are closely watched.

The Institution is complete in all its various departments, and fresh novelties are added to the stock as fast as they are offered in the market. Visitors are shown through the buildings without the slightest importunity to purchase.

The gentlemen in charge of the several departments are among the most widely and favorably known in the Rocky Mountains, and we commend them to the confidence of the public, promising that no effort on their part shall be wanting to ensure a continuance of its patronage.

They are enabled not only to suit the tastes of an intelligent trade, but also to compete successfully with Eastern dealers. In fact, no country merchant can afford to pass by this city under the impression that Eastern markets will give him lower prices, better stock or more favorable terms. Their

Grocery, Hardware and Drug Departments

For completeness and variety of stock have never been equalled west of New York, and merchants in the neighboring settlements and Territories cannot do better than replenish their stock from this source. Their

Clothing Department

Is now opening its magnificent fall and winter purchases, among which is the most varied assortment of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods ever brought to Utah. Since merchant-tailoring has been added to and made a specialty in this department, that branch of the Institution's trade has attained a perfection never arrived at by any similar house in the Territory. Foreign and domestic fabrics of every style and price are made to order or sold in piece.

The Shoe Factory Departm't

Keeps thirty hands constantly employed on all classes of work, and has never failed to secure the Prize Medals at our Territorial fairs. Their facilities for turning our first class work have never been equalled by any similar establishment in the Territories. Gentlemen and Ladies visiting the city would do well to leave their measures with that Department, thus enabling them to order by mail at any time they desire a perfect fit.

Among the Specialties of this Department are those of Horse Collars, and supplying the trade with Leather and Findings, a large and complete stock of which will always be found in their establishment.

The Institution deals in every class of merchandise, and all persons, however remote from business or manufacturing centres, can have their orders promptly filled by mailing them to
