THE CONSTITUTIONAL QUES-TION.

Tuesday, . September 6, 1887.

THE New York Sun of August 30th has a long editorial on "The offer of the Mormons." It is a review of the "proposed Constitution" drafted by the Utah Convention. It explains the facts in regard to the composition and work of the Convention, pronounces the general provisions of the Coastitution framed by it "complete and satisfactory." and decides that it "compares favorably with the erganic law of any State in the Union." The sections which have been the subject of so much discussion are then given in full with the following comments:

"The arguments most frequently urged against admitting. Utah as a State, upon the promise of the Mor mons to abandon polygamy, are met by Constitution of the United States. these several provisions.

The first objection has been that any Constitutional prehibition would be nublified, after admis-ion as a State, by the failure of the Mormon Legislatures to enact the statutes neces-sary to give it Effect . But the proposed Constitution itself makes the comes operative, as law, without any further legislation. Another objection has been that after securing admission to the Union by the pretence of submission, the Mor mon Legislatures and people, if so dis posed, could immediately repeal the their wisnes; and that it would School Union one of the speakers be beyond the power of the Fed-coverpment to interfere. But the proposed Constitution renounces the ower of repeal or amendment, as far as polygamy is concerned, until the ass on of the Federal Congress shall be He appeared to be impressed with his lands, and means to have

A third objection has been that, even if the forms of prosecution and conviction were observed, it would be within the power of a Mormon Governor to pardon the convicted polyga-mist outright. The proposed Consti-definitely and unqualifiedly that tution practically delegates the power the shorter session would be of pardon for such offenses to the the more beneficial, but we believe It is true that there are other loop-heles for the evasion of the law not strated that it is no easy undertaking provided against in the form of

A correspondingly low rate will be made from all intermediate points. Tickets can be ordered from the Salt Lake office or from the nearest coupon office, as above.

These tickets will be on sale Sept. 22, 23, 24 and 25; good going until Sept. 28, and good returning until Oct. 5; or, by application to the joint agent of the St. Louis terminal lines at the Exposition Building in that city before Oct. 5, an extension will be given to Oct. 31, without additional cost.

The rates quoted above are either via Council Bluffs, or Denver and Kansas City.

Further arrangements concerning these excursions will be announced later. G. A. R. Posts, kindred millary organizations, or bands, desiring to travel in a oody, can arrange for special cars, Pullman or day coaches, by application to the Salt Lake office.
