LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—This evening, Mr. E. T. Sexton appears in his noted sensation drama, Nook and Neck, which an exchange says is "brilliant of horror." Mr. Sexton appears as Walter Wilmart. In the cast we notice the names of Misses Coulcock and Adams, Mrs. A. Clawson, and Messrs. Graham, Harris, Dudley, Thorne, Dunne and Marden.

CITY ELECTION.—The attention of the public is respectfully requested to the public, concerning a meeting of citizens at the Old Tabernacle, on Saturday, for the nomination of candidates for the city election.

FAVORED.—According to the Junction, coal is being sold in this city at cheaper rates than in Ogden.

SEXTON'S REPORT FOR JANUARY.—Male, 14; females 5; of these adults, 8 children, 11. Cause of death as reported: Lung disease, 6; small-pox, 3; child-birth, 2; stillborn, 2; convulsions, 1; liver complaint, 1; heart disease, 1; croup, 1; killed, 1. Total infant mortality, 19.

JOSEPH H. TAYLOR, Sexton.

Snow.—About an inch of snow fell here last night. For a while it looked as if the storm would be a heavy one, but it gradually cleared away.

THE BIGGEST HAIL.—It is, we believe, an old weather-wise saying, in this region, that the bears come out of their hiding places about this time of the year, and if they can see their shadow they take to their nests again.

This agrees with the old Scotch saying,

"When candlemas comes clear and fair,
The half o' winter comes, an' mair."

It is perfectly clear and fair-to-day, but the weather is by no means disagreeable.

PROFESSOR FOWLER'S LECTURES AT THE TABERNACLE.—Prof. G. S. Fowler, having been requested to do so by a large number of citizens, will deliver three of his lectures at the Tabernacle.

The first will be given on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 20th, at 8 o'clock.

Subject, "Female Health and Beauty Restored."

Second, "Female Health and Beauty Restored," suited, according to ladies and gentlemen. Subject, "Love, Courtship and Matrimony."

Third, "Female Health and Beauty Restored," suited, according to ladies and gentlemen. Subject, "Love, Courtship and Matrimony."

The second will be given on Saturday evening, and will be for gentlemen only. Subject, "Manhood, Its Strength, Impairment and Restoration."

Evening lecture, 7 1/2 o'clock. Tickets, 25 cents.

Prof. Fowler can be consulted at the Towns-End House.

WANTED.—A good active man to carry papers in the North part of the city. Apply at this Office.

Neglected Coughs and Cold.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Common Cold," in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to "Brown's Bronchial Remedies," if neglected, often works upon the lungs.

LEA & PERPINE'S SAUCE.—Promised to Contain the "ONLY GOOD SAUCE" to improve Appetite and Digestion, and it is unrivaled for this flavor.

We are directed by Messrs. Lea & Perpine to prosecute all parties making or vending counterfeits.

JOHN DURGANS SON, Agents, New York.

"CALIFORNIA FRUITS":—Since the introduction here of the Canned Fruits of Messrs. Cuttig & Co., similar Goods of Eastern Manufacture are disappearing from the Shelves of our Grocers.

WEDNESDAY.

A. DEE SPOTT.—E. W. East, Esq., Clerk of Salt Lake County, gives us an idea of the excessive cold weather which has prevailed in late in the month, by describing a remarkable sight which he saw in the canyon between Wellsville and Brigham City. He and his companions, S. M. Blair, George W. Jones, and others, had traveled about four miles when they saw a dog standing by the side of a telegraph pole. The appearance of the animal struck them as odd, as it was not like any they had ever seen before, and it was as if carved out of stone. A closer inspection revealed the fact that the dog was frozen to death. He did not move, nor did his eyes open, and stood as motionless as if alive. One county clerk is a gentleman whose name no one who knows him would doubt; but a less conscientious description of such a sight would be received even graver.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.—Between the hours of eight and ten last night, while Prof. McDonald was attending the lecture of Dr. Fowler, the former's room, at the Tabernacle House, was entered through the window, by burglars, who forced open his chest and abstracted from it between $50 and $100 in gold currency. Civilization is making rapid strides here.

BURGLAR.—G. Bernard, charged with robbing stolen goods, was, this morning, bound over, by Judge Clinton, in $200 bonds to answer to the District Court, at its first regular session.

John Reed, charged with robbing and raving Thomas Wright, in the 11th Ward, on Jan. 26, was held to answer, in $200 bonds, to the District Court.
