Morgenstjernen. - We have recsived number 12, the last of this year's volume, of this magazine. It contains an interesting sketch of the imprisonment of the Elders in Norway; the banishment of Elder M. Johnson from Sweden; the journey to Zion of the first large company of Saints from Scandinavia; a miraculous case of healing. The present number is accompanied by the 4th chapter of the general history of the Church and a prospectus for the second volume of the magazine, which will commence with the New Year. Each number of the new volume will be enclosed in a neat cover and be published regularly about the first of every ful tendency. month. Distilled Meanness .- The followappeared in a sheet which makes a profession of villification:

The Descret (Mormon) Hospital, of this city, is in receipt of elothing and food from Gentile merchants throughout the Territory. The Bishops use up the tithing, and the sick must fall back on the Gentiles.

The contemptible meanness of the spirit that dictated that venomous squib is so despicably low as to savor of diabolism. The hospital is a benevolent institution whose benefity are not confined to any creed of party, and the small-souled individual who penned that paragraph has gone out of his way to insult a few generous gentlemen who, without solicitation, made contributions for the furtherance of a worthy object in the same unsectarian spirit Steam Mill.-Mr. Frank Arm- in which the hospital is conducted.
