

A MORNING'S LEGAL WORK.

Chief Justice Zane Will Close the Term Today.

YAK CANNED NET FOR SATURDAY

A Suit Before Justice Merritt—The Book Case Which Begun Yesterday.

General Notes.

There was nothing stirring within the walls of the County building this morning to excite more than passing notice. Judge Zane gave attorneys the first quarter of an hour after he had taken his seat to introduce informal matters, and then a case the subject of which was conversational yesterday morning was again called on for argument by counsel. An outline of the business is given below:

DECEASED.
In the suit of M. R. Terrill vs. N. H. Groatlock et al. the demurrers to answers were argued by Grant H. Smith for the plaintiff and W. C. Kelly for the defendant. The demurrer was sustained as to the defendant N. H. Groatlock, and leave given to amend his answer within five days.

CONTINUED.
George W. Young vs. Deming. The hearing of this case was continued until December 21st. It is an election dispute from California.

DIRECTED TO QUITY TITLE.
William Middleton et al. vs. Jane W. Middleton, administratrix, et al. Decree, by consent, granting title to real property was entered.

RECEIVED.
The divorce suit of James Halenmann vs. Jennie Halenmann was referred to Judge Anderson, as referee, to try and report findings and decree. The trial was set for Monday.

THE ARGUMENT.
The arguments of counsel in the trial of the case of H. A. How & Co. vs. Margaret A. White, reported in yesterday's News, began this morning. Attorney F. S. Richards, for the defendant, being followed by the plaintiff's attorney, H. H. Cahill. The case went to the jury about noon. It is an action arising out of a sale of certain books.

CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS.
Attorney R. A. Merritt sat as referee in the Supreme court this morning to hear the testimony in the case of the Little Range Railway Co. vs. T. D. Sullivan. John W. Blackburn, for the plaintiff, the defendant being represented by Attorney F. S. Richards. This is an action to prevent the appraisal and condemnation to plaintiffs' use for a right of way for their railroad, and for raising a strip of land situated in the Robert E. Lee mining claim, Little Range district, Utah county, and in the southeast corner of the southeast quarter of section 10, township 10 south, range 2 west, Salt Lake meridian.

CHINA.
The tax cases will come on for hearing before Judge Zane on Saturday morning, according to present arrangement.

DEPUTY MARSHAL WILL GOODFRIEND.
Returned from Boise City, Idaho, this morning, after seeing a prisoner of whom he had had charge with the authorities of that place. The individual in question was William Sanders, who, as previously mentioned in this column, was charged with fraudulent registration in Ada county, Idaho.

THE PRESENT TERM OF THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT WILL END TODAY.
There will be no more trials at present in the Third district court until February.

JUDGE ANDERSON WILL RENDER HIS DECISION IN THE ERICHSON DIVORCE SUIT, HEARD IN PRIVATE YESTERDAY, EITHER TOMORROW OR FRIDAY.

BUSINESS IS EXCELLENTLY QUIET IN THE COUNTY COURTS.

MARSHAL BENSON IS FEELING BETTER DOWN IN HIS NEW OFFICE. HE IS "CRACKING UP" IN THE DUTIES THERE IN GOOD STYLE.

IN THE U. S. COMMISSIONER'S COURTS THERE ARE MORE THAN ORDINARY CASES. WITH THE EXCEPTION OF A FEW CIVIL SUITS THERE IS NOTHING MOVING.

JUDGE ZANE ADMITTED A MILD "REMINDER" TO ATTORNEYS IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT THIS MORNING. A CASE WAS MENTIONED IN THE WHOLESALE COURT ON THE ONE SIDE FAILED TO COMMUNICATE WITH COUNSEL ON THE OTHER WHEN AN APPLICATION BEING MADE TO THE COURT WHICH RESULTED IN THE SETTING DOWN OF THE TRIAL FOR TODAY. HIS HONOR SAID HE OBJECTED TO CONSIDER "CRACKING UP" IN THE WAY" AND GETTING A CASE, AND DESPITE THE STATEMENT OF THE ATTORNEY THAT A NUMBER OF HIS WITNESSES HAD BEEN BROUGHT DOWN FROM CALIFORNIA AT CONSIDERABLE EXPENSE, THE JUDGE DECLINED EITHER TO TAKE UP THE CASE NOW OR AT ANY DEFERRED TIME FOR THE HEARING.

THE TERRITORIAL SUPREME COURT WILL NEXT MEET ON JANUARY 9TH. THE APPEAL IN THE CASE OF ELLIS DAVIS, CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF JOHN W. VERNAL, WILL BE HEARD. UPON ITS RESULT THE CONDEMNED MAN'S FATE WILL DEPEND.

OGDEN JOTTINGS.

THE OPERA HOUSE CASE STILL ON TRIAL.
—Serious Accident—Another Pioneer Case.

Another day has been consumed with the hearing in the case of the owners of the Grand Opera house against the lessee and manager, and the conclusion seems farther away than before. Yesterday there was a great deal of wrangling between counsel on both sides and a hot more testimony was taken. Among the interested spectators in court were several members of Julia Marlowe's company and the defense threw a bomb into the camp of the enemy by calling Joseph M. Francouer, stage manager and one of the principal members at the bar, to give evidence. The hearing will be resumed this morning.

C. H. Goodell, formerly employed in the Western Union Telegraph office in this city, has been appointed manager of the Arizona Telephone company, headquarters at Phoenix.

It is more than probable that after the first of the year work on the sewer in the new district will be discontinued on account of the inclement and resumed when spring opens.

"The Sixties Chapter" in the Vindicator at Home, decorated to resemble the period of the Civil War, will be the subject of the lecture to be given in the hall of Ogden, on Saturday afternoon next, by Mrs. Dilling, wife of the sculptor of the Salt Lake monument.

Union Pacific No. 1 west-bound passenger was again delayed nearly an hour this morning on account of a storm between Krumm and Granger.

Arthur Krich, owner of Utah's earliest papers, died last Tuesday evening surrounded by loving friends and relatives. The funeral will be held in the Second west meeting house on Friday afternoon.

John Hynes while riding a smooth-shod horse on Thursday last, sustained a serious accident. The animal slipped and fell on him, fracturing both bones in his right leg about two inches above the knee joint. Being so near the joint it may prove quite serious, though Mr. Gordon, who was called in and reduced the fracture, thinks that the unfortunate man may recover the use of the limb without any sign of being crippled.

Superintendent Allison of the Barron school returned last evening from Deseret, where he attended Hyman Lewis, one of the two boys who escaped from the school two weeks ago. He is now at home in Idaho, where in Ogden yesterday an audience consisted with the sale of several hundred of cattle recently made by him. The gentleman is writer of the Utah Standard and is situated in the mountains north of Montpelier and this winter is feeding his herd of sheep in Idaho. He says, in an splendid condition to withstand the usual hard winter. In Deer Lake valley there are now but six inches of snow.

Probate Court.

The following were the only orders made by Judge Hatch at this morning's session:

Estate of J. Harley Warner, deceased. Hearing on petition for distribution was had and the prayer granted.

Estate of John Robinson, deceased. The question of closing the same was passed for the present.

Estate of John Robinson, deceased. The question of closing the same was passed for the present.

LOGAN LETTER.

Alleged Forgery—A Painting of Logan—Accidents—Winter Lectures, Etc.

LOGAN, Dec. 10.—The fixture, table, etc., of the Logan House, together with the personal property of the lessee, Charles Power, were seized by the sheriff late on Saturday evening, on attachment issued by the creditors. There were seven writs of attachment, and the seizure of the establishment have since added their claims. The sum total is only a little more than $100, and it seems a pity that the creditors should find it necessary to close the hotel out, as it was doing a good business, and would have come out all right if left alone, whereas now, more will not be enough property to satisfy the claims.

Nephew Johnson had a hearing before Commissioner Fletcher on Tuesday for forgery. It was alleged that Johnson had signed his name in the police court, while testifying in a case of disturbance of the peace against Joseph P. Thomas. The commissioner took the case for under advisement until Thursday.

E. B. Hill of Fairview, Washington, has brought to Logan for sale, a fine lot of American cattle, including pigs and Southwestern sheep. They are all excellent specimens.

The public were invited on Wednesday evening to an exhibition of the paintings of Mr. Hill, a German artist. Many beautiful pictures were shown, but the most striking one in the collection, in the estimation of all present, was a large painting of Joseph P. Thomas, taken from the Agricultural College at Logan. The artist is willing to sell it for $100, which he considers a low price, and has already promised to sell it to the public.

As Hyman Lewis, a young man of Ogden, was riding on a horse, his horse took fright and threw him. His ankle was broken in two places, and his leg was also broken.

Farmers are looking forward with great interest to the winter season of lectures at the Agricultural College.

Philly Edwards, of Franklin, was run over by a wagon on Saturday last. The bones of his arm were broken.

Mr. George D. Gibbs, superintendent of the Paradise Camp, one standing in the back of his wagon in front of Hicks, Graham & Co., on Wednesday morning, when the team made a sudden start forward. Mr. Gibbs was thrown out. He fell on his head, and was rendered partially unconscious, but soon recovered, and assistance is proceeding on his journey home.

A Small Aperture.

The smallest hole placed by modern machinery is 1/1000 of an inch in diameter. They are bored through capillary tubes, and are used in the manufacture of the small holes in the needles of sewing machines.

The publisher is invited to attend.

PHILIP MAYOR, Chairman.

A. C. Johnson and John B. Miller, of Helena, Montana, and S. B. Miller, of Logan, Utah, have organized the McDonald Creek Sheep company, with a capital stock of $25,000. The bulk of operations will be in southeastern Park county.

ANOTHER GONE WRONG!

Studebaker Bros' Bookkeeper and Cashier has Suddenly Vanished.

NO ONE HAS HEARD OF HIM.

The Amount of the Shortage at Present Unknown—Investigation of the Firm's Books.

It is not very long ago since George McKinnon, bookkeeper and cashier in the employ of Studebaker Bros., carriage manufacturers, of Main street, in this city, embezzled a sum of money belonging to the firm, estimated at between $10,000 and $20,000. After a lengthy investigation, however, he disappeared without leaving a trace, and a private settlement with the company.

Now comes the unexpected information that his successor, P. A. Henderson, has gone wrong in a similar direction. Mr. Charles Vincent, Studebaker's local manager, declines, however, to say anything at present in regard to Henderson's alleged misdoings.

Henderson has been working for some time in the employ of Studebaker Bros., and until this time has been completely in the hands of the Studebakers. But Mr. Vincent does not appreciate that his firm can be led to any considerable extent, inasmuch as, besides the amount which can be realized under an attachment on property in his name, his books are gone for good.
