Health of Apostle Rich .- A re port has been circulated in this city during the last few days to the effect that Aposile C. C. Rich had been seized with another stroke of paralysis. We are enabled to state, on the best authority, that this report is neorrect. The ratient's condition fluctuates, but there has Leon no second stroke of the malady. Brother Rich is, however, suffering considerably from the effects of the first. He has been getting gradually more feeble for a week or two. In answer to an inquiry sent this morning, Brother Rich sent the foldowing to his wife in this city: "! am feeling somewhat better today."
